Serven Gossip. Alice Brady is finding out something new every day about the discomforts, not to may perils, of playing -elore the camera. In the early part of "The Bal-let Girl" she plays La Syrema, an aerial dancer. Out on the wire had to go Miss Brady, about 20 feet from the foor, and just when she reached the middle someone cut the wire, and down she fell. Hhe had to jump into a tank, and then, one cold day, when pheumo-nia epidemics were at their height, down she went to the hank of the Hud-son River and ever she went into the key stream. No wonder Miss Brady was glied when the story came to an Constance Collier, the Morosco-Para mount film star, who makes her initial screen appearance in "The Tongues of Men." received a visit at the Morosco studios from the celebrated Sir Her-bert Tree, who is also at present doing his first motion-picture work in Los Angeles.
