FRUIT THE REFORM REASEMING.—H.
Dillon, horticulturist, who made a special trip of investigation through the Willammette Valler, returned yesterday and reported that the fruit trees, especially in the Newberg district, have not been affected by the silver thaw. The trees are in good condition and I think their will be no ill consequences from the storm."

Inexperienced labor is always the most expensive. This company offers you the service of a trained crew of tree men who make the welfare of trees a life study. Trees under our care suffer little and our service cares for the insidious split that may be more dangerous to your tree than the more spectacular breaks. WE KNOW WHERE TO LOOK FOR THE REAL CAUSE OF BREAKAGE, AND REMEDY IT. WE ASSUME THE PERSONAL RISK OF OUR WORKMEN. Phone us and have our representative call and advise you. THIS COMPANY DID NOT LOSE ONE TREE OR LIMB OF ANY CONSEQUENCE FROM THE TREES WE RE-PAIRED PRIOR TO THE SILVER THAW. Have our crew trim
