

REPRIMAND GIVEN INFANTRY OFFICER

Second Lieutenant Taintor Is Confined to Vancouver Barracks for Six Months.

DRUNKENNESS IS CHARGED

Ex-Private, Who Won Commission in Army, Found Guilty on Charge of Abusing Privileges at Arlington Club Here.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—(Special.)—Second Lieutenant Harold H. Taintor, of the Twenty-first Infantry, an officer well known here, and who was appointed to the commissioned personnel of the Army from the Philippine Scouts by special act of Congress in 1912, has received an especially severe reprimand by Major-General J. Franklin Bell, as the result of the general court-martial that recently convened at Vancouver Barracks to consider charges made against Taintor.

Taintor was, among other things, accused of "entering and taking advantage of the privileges of the Arlington Club, of Portland," of which club he was not a member, and was not entitled to the privileges of the club because of his position. He was found guilty on the charge of failing to pay "dues" for purchases and then failed to pay. Also Taintor was accused of being drunk in a public place in Vancouver Barracks, and of excessive drinking of intoxicating liquors, rendering himself unfit for his military duties.

In approving the sentence that Taintor be reprimanded by the reviewing authorities here and to be confined to the limits of the post at Vancouver Barracks for six months, General Bell has administered this scathing reprimand.

In the foregoing case of Second Lieutenant Harold H. Taintor, a court of his fellow officers found him wanting in the faithful service he swore to render when, at his solicitation, the Government passed a special statute allowing him to hold a commission in the regular Army's body of officers.

Worse Punishment Hated. "The confinement to post limits will be viewed at the station as a punishment, and it is expected that reprimand will be a sharp reminder of the seriousness of his failure to meet the requirements of the service he was sworn to enter. It is likely that a still more bitter experience is in store for Lieutenant Taintor if he disregards the lessons of this case."

Taintor was private and Corporal in Battery A and E, and Battalion Sergeant-Major of the Third Field Artillery from October, 1907, to October 14, 1910. On May 9, 1911, he became a Second Lieutenant in the Philippine Scouts, which commission was vacated in 1912, and he was commissioned to the regular service.

Members of the Arlington Club, which is a fashionable club for men at Salmon and Park streets, did not seem to remember distinctly last night that Lieutenant Taintor visited the club. It was explained, however, that he doubtless was regularly introduced by a member of the club, and had been granted the privileges of the club, such as obtaining liquors and meals on credit.

It is understood that he abused these privileges by failing to meet his accounts there.

So far as an attaché of the club could be ascertained, he visited the place only a few times.

OFFICERS DENY SMUGGLING

Immigration Men Charged With Admitting Chinese Plead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Six immigration officials and employes pleaded not guilty today when arraigned on Federal indictments charging a conspiracy to smuggle Chinese into this port.

Counsel for the men presented a statement showing that the men were concerned recently in similar charges after an investigation by the Department of Commerce.

Twenty-seven persons in all were indicted in connection with the conspiracy, which was said to have centered about the discovery of 84 Chinese on the Pacific Mail steamer Mongolia last fall. The others included officers of the Mongolia.

Officers accused are W. T. Boyce, deputy commissioner; Joseph K. Strain, inspector; Frank Hayes, inspector; W. C. Glendinning, interpreter; and two watchmen, L. J. Smith and David P. Graham.

Little Ellen Wilson McAdoo, whose father is Secretary of the Treasury, and whose grandfather is President Wilson, is being reared as a "fresh-air baby." In the boxlike crib which is suspended from the window of the McAdoo apartment in Washington, the young lady makes her sleeping quarters. The crib is so constructed that it may be swung out from a window and the child is able to live and sleep in fresh air without the constant care of mother or nurse. Physicians who have inspected the crib declare that it is particularly adapted to crowded districts of the city, where it is difficult to find a healthful place for infants and children.

RIVAL COMPANY DEFENDED

Public Hearing Into Nomination for Supreme Court Justice Will Be Resumed Today by Senate Judiciary Sub-Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Public inquiry into the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to the Supreme Court of the United States will be resumed tomorrow by the Judiciary sub-committee of the Senate. On the witness stand will be officials of the United Shoe Manufacturing Company, with which Mr. Brandeis formerly was associated as a director and general counsel.

S. W. Winslow, president of the United Shoe Machinery Company, who was subpoenaed, notified the sub-committee today that he would be present. Testimony will be sought regarding charges of "unethical conduct" on the part of Mr. Brandeis in his relations with this company to the effect that, after serving as attorney and director of the company, he withdrew and later acted as counsel for a group of manufacturers in a suit against the company as an unlawful trust. Mr. Brandeis resigned as director of the company in December, 1906, and retired as its counsel in January, 1907. In 1910 he appeared as counsel for the Shoe Manufacturers' Alliance in a suit against the company.

Later, it is said, witnesses will be called in defense of Mr. Brandeis, whose testimony will be designed to prove that Mr. Brandeis withdrew from the United Shoe Machinery Company because of some of the business methods it had adopted.

Detective Riecko said the letter also referred to the manner in which a Catholic priest could be destroyed by such a bomb.

Detectives headed by Sergeant Mike Mills detailed at the office of Deputy Schuetler renewed their search for anarchists who may throw light on the whereabouts of Cronos.

The police today learned where Cronos obtained enough arsenic to kill 240 of the guests at the Archbishop Mundelein dinner at the University Club.

Broth Thinned After Chef Leaves. Cronos purchased an ounce, or 480 grains, of arsenic from the Groebel Instrument Company, of Carbonate, Pa.

The police in connection with the International Correspondence Schools, of which Cronos was a student. The ounce of arsenic was sent to Cronos on January 13. Two grains of arsenic is enough to kill a person. Thus the 480 grains in the ounce would suffice to kill 240 persons.

If Cronos put the grains of arsenic in the chicken soup he probably thought he would succeed in killing the 240 guests originally invited to the banquet.

ENVOY SEEKS LEAVE

Colombian Minister Sees Likelihood of Treaty Rejection.

SENATE DECISION AWAITED

Julio Betancourt Says Conversion of International Question of Grave Moment Into Party Issue Is Serious Mistake.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Recognizing the probability that the pending treaty between the United States and his country will not be ratified by the Senate in its original form, Julio Betancourt, the Colombian Minister, has asked his government for a leave of absence from Washington.

It is understood he will seek permanent withdrawal if the treaty is rejected or if the Senate accepts its foreign relations committee's amendments reducing the indemnity for the partition of Panama from $25,000,000 to $15,000,000 and making the expression of regret mutual.

In a statement tonight Mr. Betancourt referred to the state of his health, which he said made it necessary for him to leave Washington.

"I am only waiting," he said, "to know the decision of the Senate on the pending treaty in order to communicate a report of its action to my government."

Efforts of the Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson administrations to settle the controversy with Colombia were cited by the Minister to prove that no question of party was involved.

"Could this question be settled by popular vote in the United States," he added, "I feel quite sure that it would be decided in favor of Colombia. There are proofs in this legislation of the strong leaning of the most important commercial and industrial concerns of this great country in favor of the treaty. I have received a great many letters to this effect."
