"On this particular day—it was considerably after February 14, for news teak a long time to come in those days—I was playing outside when I heard the cannon booming. I rushed into the house and asked my mother what it meant. She said, 'Oh, I suppose it means Oregon has been made a state. The event had been expected by residents of the state for some time before the news arrived."

Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Thatcher, who came to Oregon five years ago from Montana, and to Portland to make their home here last January, were guests of honor. Mrs. Thatcher, as Mr. Himes explained, was a daughter of the late Governor Samuel T. Hauser, next to the last Territorial Governor of Monthe last Territorial Governor of Mon-tana, who resigned in 1887. When ap-pointed in 1883 he had been a resident of Montana more than 20 years. His place of residence was Helena, which was in the original Oregon tegritory. Mrs. Thatcher is also a great-grand-niece of Captain William Clark, of the Lewis and Clark expedition.

Despite the recent storms along the columbia, the most severe in recent history the state lost only approxi-mately 6 per cent of its fish fry in the hatcheries at Bonneville.
This is the estimate of Frank M.
Warren and C. F. Stone, members of the State Fish and Game Commission, who submitted a report on the situa-tion to the whole Commission yesterday. Out of the 5,000,000 fry at the hatch-
