PORTLAND, OREGON.
Editorial of Portland (Oregon) Postoffice as substituted State University in advance.

we should have conceded to Germany's enemies the same freedom. If the entente powers adopted these methods Germany would resort to new forms of frightfulness in reprisal.

1914-AND 1912. Woodrow Wilson is "entirely unwilling to enter into any contest for the Presidential nomination of the Democratic party."

It is well now to be reminded that the Democratic platform of 1912 contained the following pledge: "We favor a single Presidential term, and to that end urge the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution making the President of the United States ineligible for re-election."

Another scrap of paper. It is in the first one calling Germany to account for the Lusitania disaster. Mr. Wilson upheld international law.

ABOLISHING INTERNATIONAL LAW. In the first one calling Germany to account for the Lusitania disaster Mr. Wilson upheld international law.

INOPORTUNE. The plan outlined to the Chamber of Commerce by Glenn E. Husted for disposition of the Oregon & California land grant is a proposal to cut the knot instead of untying it.

THE POORER PROFESSION. What is the poorest profession in America? Every disgruntled professional man will insist that his own is entitled to first place since it is a well-known characteristic of professional men to bemoan their choice.

PERSONAGES AND PERSONALITIES. Word comes from Detroit that Henry Ford has not yet run out of peace plugs. Which, we take it, is another way of saying that he has not run out of spare cash.

PLANNING THE GARDEN. Now is the time when the provident and competent amateur gardener commences his season's work. Not by spading up the back yard, since that is a process reserved for early April, but rather by planning the campaign which is to keep the family supplied with fresh vegetables in the coming summer.

THE RISK OF ADVENTURE. The lamentable fate of two young canoeists who were drowned in the Willamette River while running Rock Island Rapids is a warning to others not to take unnecessary risks through mere love of adventure.

INTERFERENCE IN ALL AFFAIRS That is Trend of Law's Progress as Seen by Judge Hennessy Murphy.

Portland, Feb. 14.—(To the Editor.)—Brother L. B. Smith opines "that the Oregon system is founded on the theory of distrust; distrust of public men, distrust of public institutions, distrust of the Legislature, distrust of the electorate itself."

ANTI-ROOSEVELT, AT ANY PRICE Republican Declares He Will Never Vote for One Who Knifed Party.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 14.—(To the Editor.)—In The Oregonian, February 9, you ask, "Is there a Roosevelt wave?" To me, there seems to be a large coterie of politicians—and of the most practical, idealistic sort—who would like to cause the people to believe that there is a demand for Roosevelt for President.

In Other Days Twenty-five Years Ago.

From The Oregonian of February 15, 1891. G. A. Webb, pioneer orchardist of Silverton, by whose efforts the fruit exhibit of the Board of Immigration has been kept replenished during the past season, has favored The Oregonian office with a box of choice apples and pears.
