

SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

SOCIETY matrons are busy these early Spring days planning and assisting in the building of their wardrobes, as well as making arrangements for their annual visit to the California towns for golf and other diversions.

Portland boasts of many unusually clever maids in the debutante set, many of whom are not only able to design and plan their own clothes and hats, but in many instances they make them without assistance. They also have exploded the old theory that knitting was only for grandmothers, who could not be actively interested in gaieties, for they make their own sweaters, scarfs and skating toques. These knitting bees are delightful affairs and have taken the place of the faintly embroidered and cross-stitch parties formerly enjoyed by debutantes and maids, and are always the inspiration for chatty little tea parties.

The society is keenly interested in the "Romeo and Juliet" which is to be repeated for the benefit of the Baby Home entirely gratis by the large company and those directing it, so that the deficit left from the original performance here in January may be made up. Society and clubdom are rallying nobly to the support of the philanthropy and are putting forth their best efforts in behalf of the forthcoming production, which will be given at the Seattle Theatre on Thursday, February 24. Box parties will be given by the MacDowell Club, of which Mrs. Thomas Carrick-Burke is president; the Portland Woman's Club, Mrs. G. J. Frankel, president, the latter being assisted in the arrangements of the parties by Mrs. Herbert Carr Reed, and the Laurelhurst Club also will be represented with box parties, arranged by F. E. Reed.

All the fraternal and civic organizations are actively interested in the affair and are arranging many box and line parties. This production, with Mrs. Jane Burns as Juliet, the only change in the original cast, promises to be a brilliant function, socially and financially. Warren A. Erwin is general chairman of the committee, putting on the opera under the auspices of the Portland Opera Association.

Mrs. Joseph Andrews and her sister, Miss Marian Smith, have asked a few of their friends informally to tea tomorrow afternoon at their home on Westover road.

A luncheon in the grill of Hotel Benson will be presided over tonight by Mrs. F. Rothschild.

Phi Delta Kappa fraternity of Lincoln High School will give a dance in the crystal room of Hotel Benson on Friday night, which has the interest of many of the high school contingent.

The next meeting of Rose City Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, will be a "Colonial social" and will be held Friday night at Masonic Temple.

Mrs. D. E. Rose entertained a number of young folks Monday, in honor of the anniversary of her granddaughter, Miss Helen Rose. The affair was given in the ballroom of the Wheelon Annex, and was attended by about 20 young people. It was a Valentine affair, all appointments and decorations being carried out with red novelties appropriate to the occasion. Assisting the hostess in serving refreshments were Mrs. F. Speer and Miss Kate Rose, Miss Marie Speer, assisting in receiving the guests.

Members of the P. A. P. recently entertained their friends with a heartily enjoyed luncheon at the home of Gertrude Kuehle, 14 Buechell avenue. A profusion of cups, hearts, pennants and fluffy bows of red and white tulle were used to deck the rooms and the supper table. Music and games formed the programme for the early part of the evening and dancing followed.

Miss Kuehle was assisted by Miss Lillian Stricker, president. The invitation list included: Misses Lillian Stricker, Hedwig Hahn, Carl Kuehle, Herman, Bertha Freilicht, Helen Fromme, Clara Knecht, Freda Haeblen, Elsie Blum, Margaret Lehman, Mildred Fran and Gertrude Kuehle, Helmhelm Krause, Gunther Krause, Arthur Freilicht, Henry Kuehle, Arnold Zeller, Adolph Freilicht, Eugene Hahn, Chris Zeller, Charles Schaefer, Jack Schaefer and Fred Smith.

Ten tables of enthusiastic card players enjoyed the hospitality of the Laurelhurst Club Friday evening. Mrs. Samuel Murray and William H. Smith were high scorers in bridge and in the Miss Hazel Eaton and Gertrude Kuehle scored high. For the party of February 25 Mr. and Mrs. A. Asquith will be hosts.

M. Marx, of Chicago, and his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Davis, of Cincinnati, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenblatt.

The 1916 Follies dance, which will be given Friday night at Christensen's Hall, is being anticipated with considerable pleasure by the committee and its friends. An attractive programme has been prepared and a serpentine battle will add to the gaiety of the occasion.

The committee includes Virginia Cash, Leonard Oliver, Margaret Cundy, A. A. Hall, Lillian Bullen, Albert Harvie, Hazel Fassett, Louis Balbach, Irene De Harde, Maurice Snook, Louise Thomas, Harry Hammer, Eva Vinton, J. W. Bacheller, Lena Balzimer, Herman Lind, Lou Hertz, Gene Geisler, Jack Crossley, Allen Dutcher, Carl Knudson, Norman Schaecker, Earl McKinney, Edward Springer and Nathan Bessel. Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cash, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Geisler and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Snook.

On Sunday at 10 o'clock, in All Saints' Church, of the infant, Rev. and Mrs. F. K. Howard will be christened by the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, of St. Mark's. The baby will be called Allen Kendall Howard.

A pretty wedding at the Piedmont Presbyterian Church Saturday night was that of Miss Emilie Wightman and Harry Stevens Bastian, Dr. A. I. Hutchinson officiating at the services. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wightman and is a 1912 graduate of the University of Oregon. For the past two years she has been head of the botany department of Jefferson High School. Mr. Bastian is a graduate of Bucknell University, of Pennsylvania, and is with the O.-W. R. & N. Company.

A green-and-white color motif was effected with Oregon grape ferns, pussywillows and white lilies. A similar

A color scheme was developed in the reception-room.

The bride wore a gown of white silk tulle, trimmed with real lace. Her tulle and lace veil was held in place with a rhinestone coronet. Miss Kathryn Wightman, her sister, was ring-bearer and the only attendant. She wore a filmy green tulle gown combined with soft, white lace.

Mrs. C. McCullough, of Harleto's "A Gift From Heaven" and played the wedding march. A reception in the reception-room of the church followed the wedding.

The C. C. Club will give a dance tonight at St. Patrick's Hall, Nineteenth and Savier streets.

Mrs. Lella Eldredge, of Newberg, is passing a few days in the city, visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Eldredge is the niece of Judge E. V. Littlefield.

Miss L. Brady, of San Francisco, is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Vanleer Elchbaum.

Miss Frances Stanley, who has been in Panama for several months, is now en route to Honolulu, where she will be indefinitely.

Miss Myrtle Ashby, of Tacoma, who accompanied by her mother, came to sing in the Apollo concert last week, has been staying at Hotel Nortonia.

Mrs. A. G. Barker left Saturday for a visit of about two months in Florida.

Delta Delta Delta Alliance will hold their meeting today at the home of Mrs. Homer Jamison, 1280 Commercial street, at 2:30 o'clock.

All the way from Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., journeyed Lieutenant Henry Adair, arriving here yesterday to see his mother, Mrs. Adair, who is ill at Good Samaritan Hospital.

Norman Rupp, of Saginaw, Mich., who has been away for several months in the East, returned last week to Portland.

The women of Knights of Pythias will give a leap year party on February 22 in Knights of Pythias Hall. All members and friends are invited to attend.

At the card party that the Monday Musical Club will give Thursday at Arcadium Hall, on Thirteenth street, Miss Rosina McIntosh will sing and Miss Nadine Baker will give readings. Miss McIntosh has been in San Francisco for several years and her friends have not had an opportunity to hear her sing. She will return and will welcome this chance again to enjoy the pleasure. She will sing "St. Mrs. Vers des Alpes" by Hahn, and "At Dawning" by Cadman. Miss Martha Reynolds will accompany her. Miss Baker, who is the daughter of Mrs. E. M. Baker, is a clever young reader.

The Portland Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi were luncheon hosts at the University Club Monday in honor of Miss Helen Unity Graves, whose engagement was announced last Friday. The decorations and place cards were in the fraternity colors. Covers were laid for 15 of Miss Graves' fraternity sisters.

Miss Graves will be entertained with a bridge tea at the Ann Day-empire Tea House on Portland Heights by Miss Elizabeth Mathews Thursday afternoon. Eight of her college friends will honor the bride-elect.

As the repairs to Christensen's Hall will not be completed by Thursday evening of this week, the leap year party of the Rose City Dancing Club has been postponed until Thursday evening, February 24. The women in charge have made up an elaborate programme and it will be the merriest party of the season.

The Daughters of Norway held a meeting Saturday night and installed the following officers: Mrs. H. Bakken, Mrs. C. Addie, Mrs. V. Holdars, Mrs. F. Ritzinger, Mrs. H. Borstad, Miss S. Hougseth, Miss A. Nelson, Mrs. O. Tafelsson, Miss A. Johnston and Mrs. L. Egan. The installing officer was Mrs. O. Johnson.

A short programme followed and refreshments were served.

A card party was planned for the close of the meeting, but had to be postponed until Saturday night. It will be given at the Woodmen of the World Hall, and all are welcome.

Washington High School Alumni will give a dance and card party followed by a programme tomorrow night in the Laurelhurst Club. All members of the alumni are urged to attend this function.

Preparations have been completed for the stepping party for which the Myrtle Rose Club will be hosts tonight at Christensen's Hall. Several features will make the evening notable, and the grand "prom" will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John K. Kollock, who has been in Dr. Coffey's Sanitarium for about 10 days, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to her apartments in the Trinity Place.

The young people of the United Evangelical Church of St. Johns will give a Valentine social Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hall, 419 South Jersey street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Holman will entertain their dancing club Saturday night at Hotel Benson in the Tyrolean room, with an informal dance. In addition to the members of the club, which has met regularly all winter, there will be a few additional guests.

Transforming a House.

IN A certain large city, of the East there are literally miles of houses all built on the same plan. You step from the vestibule into a long, dark narrow hall. A stairway starts in the front of this hall and leads to the second story. The parlor, a long, narrow room, opens off the hall, and at the end of the hall is usually the dining-room, apt to be another gloomy room, for very little light reaches it owing to the closeness of the next house. Houses of this type stand compactly built together for block after block. To go into one is to go into all. Their monotony is oppressive and their ugliness is a dead weight upon the spirit.

Most of their occupants are either indifferent or resigned. The general feeling is that nothing can be done to make these houses more attractive, and so one might as well make the best of the situation. But one bride, whose future home was to be one of them, could not so content herself. She felt she wanted a home with more charm and beauty than could be pressed in such a house, and she went to work to see what could be done with the domicile to which she was going.

It was a small two-story house with the usual narrow dark hall, long, dark parlor, gloomy dining room at the end of the hall. But under her transforming touch it has become such a place of charm that when you step inside, expecting from the exterior a house similar to miles of others you know, you give a little gasp of amazement and delight.

Yet what she has done has not cost a large amount of money. Her own spirit of determination to make her home beautiful may be inspiring to others who are not satisfied with their present abode.

The partition between the parlor and hall was taken out. Instead of a small, narrow hall and a small, narrow parlor, she had one comparatively large living room. Between the vestibule and this room are long, quaintly leaded glass doors, thus helping to make the room and make a pretty alcove effect about the one large front window. The same effect of column and archway marks the entrance into the dining room, which now connects directly with this room.

The stairway, which is open, has been turned at the bottom with a small square landing and two long, broad steps. This is more graceful than its former straight, up-and-down style.

These are all the architectural changes that have been made. Very little, you see, in reality; yet they have completely transformed the place.

The treatment of light and furnishings has further added to the charm of the home and made it different from other homes of this town. The woodwork is painted a soft, French gray, even to the mantel. The tops of the columns are touched with gold, and the furnishings are a lovely, deep, rich blue. A number of bright, warm color is added in the lights, which have shades in deep rose tones. She has many lights. The new posts of the stairway each have one. There is a chandelier with five pendant lights, a glowing lamp on the table, and a tall, standing gas lamp near the front of the room. Rose, gray and blue, with touches of gold, are the color scheme; gracefulness; light—what a difference between this and the narrow, gloomy, gloomy, straight-lined interior of its former appearance.

CONDEMNED MEAT SHOWN

Council Sees Diseased Hogs and Beef as Prelude to New Law.

As a prelude to the presentation tomorrow of the proposed amendments to the meat inspection ordinance, State Dairy and Food Commissioner Nickle and City Health Officer Marcus yesterday exhibited to the City Council a drayload of condemned dressed hogs and beef, and diseased hogs, which were apparently prepared for marketing. The meat was exhibited to show the need of meat inspection.

The hogs shown, or some of them, were affected with hog cholera. The beef was impure and had been con-

DR. JACKSON'S ROMAN MEAL IS A FOOD, NOT A FRAUD

Many so-called cereal foods are frauds. To prove it, try to live entirely upon them for a few days. Many live entirely upon Roman Meal. A recent letter from California says: "Dear Dr. Jackson: A friend of mine has lived upon Roman Meal for thirteen months. His case had been pronounced hopeless. He is now in perfect health." No fraud here. Roman Meal is scientifically balanced by an expert dietician. It's the perfect food, and positively relieves constipation. Ask your doctor. Make it in porridge, pancakes, gems. WOMEN WHO LEAD THE WAY

BY MARIE DILLE.

Mrs. Josephine Lawrence—Pencemaker.

IN this day, when, according to the reformers, the divorce courts are working overtime, a woman in the profession of Mrs. Josephine H. Lawrence is a welcome and unexpected novelty. Mrs. Lawrence is an official home saver. Her occupation is keeping the dove of peace serenely hovering over ex-warring households.

For five years the title by which Mrs. Lawrence has been known in her home in Chicago, Ill., is Superintendent of the Social Service Department of Cook County. Summed up in the terms of the day, she is a neutral board of arbitration for private misunderstandings.

All manner of cases of family discord come to the attention of Mrs. Lawrence. When possible she solves the difficulty before a divorce decree is granted, and often the matter is settled after a full understanding between the warring factions has been reached. Sometimes it is merely the matter of a quarrel that threatens to wreck the matrimonial ship. She is tactful and persuasive, and in cases of this nature seldom has difficulty in convincing the couple to meet each other half way.

In more serious cases of non-support she has the power of judge bestowed upon her by her county and her word is supreme. Her decrees are binding and imprisonment confronts the delinquent who disobys them. About 200 cases of this kind come before her every month. In most instances the disagreement is between husband and wife, although occasionally it is old people who have been neglected by those who are considered their lawful support or children are left destitute by selfish parents.

In 80 per cent of these cases Mrs. Lawrence has been successful in settling the controversy in such a way as to keep the families together, the children out of charitable institutions and old people out of infirmaries. A sum of over $500 is collected monthly by this department for the support of its charges.

The county has issued a bulletin explaining the efficiency of this department in checking the spread of pauperism. It is estimated that besides paying for itself, this office saves the county over $25,000 which would otherwise go to meet the expense of dependents. In a surprisingly great number of cases families that have been forcibly prevented from separating have been reconciled and the husband and wife, returning later to thank Mrs. Lawrence. In a single hour she succeeded in adjusting 17 family difficulties and securing the regular support of this department for the support of its charges.

Another great good that this department has served is in meeting the legal difficulties of charitable institutions which, through the neglect of trustees, cost a vast sum which may now be used for the support of the organization.

Installation East Today.

$15,000 Is Mark Set.

Klamath Falls merchants, professional people and citizens sent in an additional contribution of $110 to the Jewish fund yesterday, a large donation already having been received from the Klamath Falls Commercial Club about a week ago. The total in the Portland fund now lacks less than $4 of touching the $14,000 mark, the subscriptions from Portland people yesterday being more than $110. The largest individual gift to the cause was $50, which came from the Henry Weinhard estate.

Ben Selling, treasurer of the fund, will send another $2000 installment to the National treasury at New York today, and he expects the fund to reach $15,000 before the end of this week.

LAWYERS, BROTHERS, SPAR

Verbal Dissension Arises in Gambling Case Hearing.

Deputy City Attorney Fred W. Stadter and his brother, Attorney E. O. Stadter, crossed swords, verbally, in the Municipal Court yesterday when the case involving an alleged gambling game at 241 Couch street came up for trial.

The proprietor of the place, Harry Travis, and nine other men were arrested on gambling charges Monday by Sergeant Van Overn and Officers Miller and Webster. Deputy City Attorney Stadter appeared as the prosecuting attorney in the case and his brother, E. O. Stadter, defended the arrested men. No decision was reached in the case. The hearing was postponed to today.

Besides the proprietor, the other men arrested were: William Shashramet, Pete Kowalski, Nick Stamovich, Theodore Dorbroka, S. Valina, Sam Shoemain, Pete Banko, W. Kreston and F. Lore.

Grand Jury to Probe Charges.

Grand jury investigation of the charges of Martin Reddy that county jobs are being bartered will begin on Monday. Informal investigation of the charge has not succeeded in substantiating any of the accusations made by Reddy. All bridge and road employees of the county who are implicated by the charges will be brought before the grand jury in the probe.

Office Men Should Take

AMEROIL

The New Mineral Oil Treatment for Constipation.

Men who work at a desk all day and constipation a constant source of annoyance.

If laxatives are necessary, the new mineral oil treatment for constipation will be found far superior to anything so far used.

Ameroil is a water-white, odorless, tasteless mineral oil, free from all impurities. It acts without gripes or discomfort, softening the hardened charges, lubricating the walls of the intestines and enabling nature to perform her own processes in her own way.

Ameroil is a boon to office men who have been torturing themselves with harsh, painful cathartics.

K C Marble Pudding

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

2 cups sifted pastry flour; 2 level teaspoonsful K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful cinnamon; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; yolks of 2 eggs, beaten light; 1/2 cup sugar; 1/4 tablesponful melted butter; 1/2 cup cold water; whites of 2 eggs, beaten dry; 1/2 ounces melted chocolate.

Sift together, three times, the flour, baking powder, salt and cinnamon. To the yolks add the sugar, butter and water, and stir into the dry ingredients. Add the whites of the eggs. Divide the mixture into two parts and add the chocolate to one part. Dispose the two parts in a buttered mold to give a marbled appearance. Steam forty-five minutes.

Vanilla Sauce

Boil 2 cups of sugar and a cup of water six minutes; add 2 tablesponfuls of butter and a teasponful of vanilla extract.

HOW TO REGAIN STRENGTH

The great factor that retards recovery after sickness is that weakened devitalized condition, and it will interest our readers to know that our local druggists, The Owl Drug Co., have a reliable, non-secret strength creator called Vinol, which contains iron for the blood, the curative medicinal extractives of fresh cod livers and the nourishing properties of beef peptone, all combined in a delicious native wine. For weak, run-down conditions and to regain strength after sickness there is nothing better.

P. S.—In your own town, wherever you live, there is a Vinol Druggist. Look for the sign.
