

MASCOTT AND FOX FIGHT FOR PRIZE

San Franciscan floored Twice, but He Comes Back Hard in Closing Rounds.

BENNETT DEFEATS GORDON

Trambitas and Cross Box Draw. Weston Defeats Wing and Allen.

Outposts Grant in Affair Which Rouses Fans' Ire.

Jimmy Fox, the popular San Francisco 122-pound boxer, came north with the idea that all the class hereabouts was locked in safety deposit vaults, he was under a disquieting thought.

Twice MascoTT floored his more experienced opponent and up to the fifth round had quite an apparent shade.

Referee's Decision Approved. Referee Jack Grant's decision that it was a draw met with the approval of most of the fans.

Jockey Bennett outpointed Abe Gordon in six rounds at 115 pounds.

Valley Trambitas drew with Leo Cross at 158 pounds.

Jack Allen won from Kid Grant at 140 pounds.

Allen incurred the displeasure of the packed house early in the bout by butting Grant over the head.

Some of the fans got rowdy. There were cries for embalming fluid. And through it all Gruman smiled his tantalizing smile and eventually glided to the ring in his usual manner.

Ralph must have had a tinge of astigmatism, for it was a made-to-order draw.

In the semi-windup affair, Abe Gordon was outwitted about nine pounds and this took a lot of the zip out of the affair.

After a couple of careful rounds the young newsboy idol dug in and boxed Bennett, but Jockey earned the decision.

J. Sugar Cured Ham, Jeremiah Gurgie Gurgie, Reginald Ouch and a lot of other names of higher or lower degree were introduced, challenging everybody except Bryan.

Larned and Brookes. O'Phand, we should say that W. A. Larned and Norman Brookes were the best tennis golf or golf-tennis combinations to be found.

American lawn tennis champion for about seven years. Since retiring from active tennis competition he has developed into a first-class golfer.

In the combination of golf and tennis Brookes would have just a faint shade on Larned, but hardly enough to measure.

Travers, Outmet, Evans and Gardner play very little tennis. But Max Marston and Phil Carter are both fairly good at the racket game.

More Verso Libre. An amateur, they say, is one who never makes any out of his game.

Who never makes any out of his game. Which is all very well enough.

Come to think about J. J. L.'s above comment, the sporting page of late carries more financial news and dollar signs than the financial page—by 10 to 1.

The Case of Francis Outmet. We see where Francis Outmet, ex-opeen and ex-amateur champion, is planning to retire from tournament competition rather than be forced out by the U. S. G. A. for opening a sporting goods store.

It is something more than a shame that such fine golfer, such a clean, square type of sportsman should be crowded out. Outmet is well above the average in high-class sportsmanship.

Outmet was a golf golfer for some time before he was recognized as any star—some time before he was heard of beyond the borders of Massachusetts.

As an average golfer, that is, as he has gained, in place of helping him, as it has helped so many others, is about to end his competitive career.

Uncle Sams and Orphans Play 4-to-4 Contest, but Spectators See Little of It.

MIST FILLS SEATTLE RINK

Game to Be Replayed Tonight. Portland Has Two-Goal Lead Until Few Minutes Before Final Whistle Is Sounded.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 15.—(Special.)—The ice hockey match between Portland and Victoria, transferred from Victoria to the Seattle arena, was called at the end of the third period because of a heavy fog which prevented the spectators from seeing the players.

The score was 4 to 4. The game will be replayed tomorrow night. Warm moist weather is believed to have caused the formation of the fog over the indoor ice sheet.

In the first period Victoria outplayed Portland in the first 10 minutes, scoring once when Riley dashed through the fog.

Three minutes later Oatman's rush and pass to Dunderdale evened the score. In less than two minutes later Oatman scored again.

In the second period it was impossible to distinguish the players on account of the increasing fog. Goal for Victoria, four minutes after play started. This tied the score with 2 all.

Six minutes later Oatman pushed the puck through the mist bank of clouds and shoved in the puck, giving Portland the lead again, 3 to 2.

In the third period fog converted into rain. In the first few minutes, Nichols scored two goals for Victoria.

The teams decided to withhold play until tomorrow night. The summary and lineup:
