SNAPSHOTS BY BARBARA BOYD

Is She Too Self-Sacrificing? SHE is a young girl, pretty, clever, popular.

She does not complain. She shoulders her burden gladly to serve those she loves. But since those she loves and serves are two perfectly healthy women isn't she too self-sacrificing?

But she emphatically repudiates the idea of her mother sewing a little "bit" she could never make a living sewing, this self-sacrificing daughter says.

The sister keeps house, but she, too, is incapable of earning her living. "They simply couldn't get along without what I earn," the girl asserts.

Chamber Bureau Plans Smoker. The Oregon development bureau of the Chamber of Commerce will give a smoker for its members at the Chamber of Commerce main dining-room Monday night, February 25, at 8 o'clock.

What is Home Without an Hair!

This is a subject that has a place in all minds in all times. And it naturally occurs thought as to the comfort of the mother during that wonderful period of expectancy. Mothers who know recommend "Mother's Friend." It is an external remedy for the stretching muscles, eases the organs to crowd against nerves, pulls at ligaments to thus avoid pain.
