More Chinese left yesterday afternoon for Astoria under police guard, which they requested for their own safety.

In hotels of the city Chinese residents did not leave yesterday without being accompanied by a bodyguard.

What would be the next development in the tong war was the big question facing the police officials yesterday, and every effort was being made to anticipate any move of the tong.

Much Peace Talk Reported. Peace talk was reported to be strong in some quarters among the Chinese.

Wong Gin, member of the Bow Leongs, who was shot by members of the Hop Sing Monday afternoon, died at St. Vincent's Hospital yesterday morning at 2:45.

It is said that the death of Wong Gin will cause further complications in any move for peace in that the Bow Leongs will want to even up the score.

Dying Words Accuse Hop Sing. Wong Gin gave a dying statement to attorneys Thomas E. Hannick and Seabrook in which he named Leo Kim, a member of the Hop Sing tong, as the principal assailant.

Julian Alabero, Hop Sing, who was arrested following the shooting Monday and charged with being one of the assailants of Wong Gin, is still being held at the Police station.

Escape Held Not Difficult. It is pointed out that they would have little difficulty in leaving in the general exodus of Chinese.

ROSES AND HONOR TO WASHINGTON LINKED

Whole City Plants Flowers as Part of Tribute Paid to Father of Country. PARK WORKERS SET PACE Organizations Throughout Portland Hold Programmes—Pupils of Schools Observe Day in Games and Ceremonies.

It was a cherry tree, and not a rose bush, that George Washington chopped down 180 or so years ago, and for that reason rose planting day in Portland yesterday fitted in very well as a feature to the celebration of Washington's birthday.

The city made it a holiday. The banks, City Hall, Courthouse, Government offices and many of the business houses were closed.

As for rose planting, it was common in many parts of the city. Park officials struck the pace in the morning when the force of gardeners in the various parks put out about 1000 rose slips to augment the banks of bushes already in the parks.

Spirit Pervades Portland. All over town people were seen during the day setting out plants in the parking strips and other parts of their premises.

LABOR CHANGE IS PLAN

INCREASE OF WOMEN'S MINIMUM WAGE IS PROPOSAL. Limiting Working Hours for Boys Under 18 Is New Provision Recommended by Committee.

Important revisions in the Industrial Welfare Commission's rulings have been proposed by the special committee appointed for that purpose in December.

One proposal provides an increase of the minimum wage for all occupations in which women are engaged, and not otherwise specially provided for, from $8.25 per week to $8.64 per week.

Another provision would permit overtime on payment of time and a half, but in no case to exceed ten hours a day.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in Just a Few Moments. 25-Cent "Danderine" Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you surely can have is beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.
