Harborline extensions on the Williamette River, from St. Johns on the east bank and Linnton on the west bank, both continuing to the confluence of the Columbia River, will be made the subject of a public discussion at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the office of Colonel Potter, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.

In the main the liens have been agreed on by the leading harbor interests, the Port of Portland Commission and the Commission of Public Docks. They have appointed a committee and conferred as to the extensions, but there is one point remaining some sense of the will be simple to such as the such yesterday that the plant of the West Oregon Lumber Company a barge which sunk is gradually rising above the surface of the Williamette as the freshet subsides. The barge belongs to one of the contents of the williamette as the freshet subsides. Harborline extensions on the Wil-General White and Captain G. F. bank, both continuing to the conflu-ting landholder would not be injured.

The meeting tomorrow is to give all interests an opportunity to be heard, preferrably through the medium of written arguments so they may be forwarded to Washington, but oral statements will be listened to as well.

SHAVER'S REPAIRS COMPLETED Vessel Damaged During Freshet Again in Active Fleet.

Ready for operation, the steamer Shaver took the water at the plant of the Portland Shipbullding Company yesterday, after having had a false stem placed, supported on either side by plates. During the recent freshet she struck the east pier of the O.-W. R. & N. bridge, while assisting the steamer Tamalpais through the harbor, the stem being carried away about on a line with the ends of the forward a line with the ends of the forward planking. The vessel remained tight, and it was deemed expedient to affix a false stem rather than tear out work on the bow to replace the entire stem. "Jimmle" is a name suggested for the propeller Coquille, which the Shainterests have acquired from owners at Bandon. The vessel is to be over-hauled and partly remodeled above deck, and talk of her name being changed brought forth the proposed cognomen, being intended as a tribute to Captain "Jim" Shaver, head of the

With the start made last year in building up a big wool market in Portland, wool men are assured that the movement of the prod-uct to this city will grow. The freight rate situation is favorable, as wool can be shipped from points as far east as Gooding. Idaho, to this city and later reshipped to Eastern markets by rail as cheap or cheaper than direct from the growing point, giving the grower the advantage of better selling conditions here. When Panama Canal traf-fic is resumed, shipping rates will be still more favorable.

POTATO SHIPMENTS SIX HUNDRED CARS Oregon Will Not Dispose of Usual Quantity

Outside This Year, Up to the present time about 600 cars of potatoes have been shipped from Oregon, and the indications are the total shipments for the season will not exceed 1000 cars. Normal shipments from the state are about 1500 cars a year.

"There are between 400 and 500 cars of potatoes left unsold," said McKinley Mitchell yesterday, "and these will all clean up at some price. There is no likelihood the market will be any better in the immediate future, but there is a possibility the late market will improve if California cleans.
