George La Guere, the Metro juventle with its playing an important role in "The Blindness of Love," in which Julius Steger is starred, was severely injured in Jacksonville, Fla., during the staging of a scene which proved a trifle too realistic.

The scene was a raid on a bank, in which 400 persons were used. When Le Guere tried to fight his way through the mob he found himself with a genuine battle on his hands. He was thrown down and trampled upon, the crowd obeying the shouts of Director Horan to keep pressing forward. Le Guere was as limp as an oyster when finally rescued. But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy sca'p and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can-tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully lication or two, it becomes beautifully ark, glossy, soft and abundant.—Adv.
