According to Mrs. Landone, the minds of women are more important than their clothes, and when relieved from the worry of following everchanging fads they will devote their attention to more important things. Her original idea was that of a rather short skirt with trousers just showing beneath it which might be turned up in wet weather. She advised the selection of the most durable and adaptable materials.

The "Polymurlel" that has been designed differs slightly from her original idea. It has a short rather full

LYRIC INGENUE SINGS SONG BOOSTING PORTLAND.

Miss Dolly Bunch, the charm ing and petite ingenue of the Diling and petite ingenue of the Dillon and King Company at the Lyric, is leading a boost-forPortand song this week called "Portland." It has proved one of the song successes of the season.
Miss Bunch says: "That Portland song, how I love it. The words express what a beautiful city Portland really is, and each performance I can hardly wait until I get out before the audience to sing that song to them, for I put my heart into it. I love Portland, and the song gives me a chance to express to the people out in front my liking for their beautiful city.

"My engagements have always kept me away from the Rose Festival, but this season I shall be here, and it is something I am looking forward to."
