If the rival candidates, incensed at what they denounced as an attempt at the high political crime of nepotism by the Honorable Frank, had not raised their voices in lengthy protest to Senator Lane himself, who has not the sweetest temper in the world; and

If Senator Lane had not thereupon held up certain Postoffice appointments urged by the Honorable Frank, including those of relatives, and caused other eppointments to be made in their stead, and written burningly to the Honorable Frank, commenting, 'tis said, that an ex-campaign manager promoted to Postmaster of Portland should make friends for his patron, not enemies; and If the Honorable Frank in vexation and high dudgeon had not then proceeded suddenly to Washington, some two weeks ago, on a "vacation trip," to demand an explanation of the Senator—

Results Quite Different.

Why, if all this had not happened, the Honorable Frank would not then have been told bluntly by the Senator, his patron, where to head in at, as advices from Washington relate has occurred:

Officers elected were: Chester Cox, president and Roy Hicks, vice-president or the National Chapter, and T. H. West, ex-vice-president of the National Chapter, and T. H. Cat In Out of Bag.

Yes, the cat's out of the bag and the secret of the Honorable Frank's "vacasecret of the Honorable Frank's "vacation trip" to Washington is explained. It was not such a secret after all to bersons who had followed certain recent events. Among whom may be included quite a sprinkling of Portland and up-state Democrats. Quite a sprinkling, 'i faith!

These events culminated vexatiously for the Honorable Frank when the Schate on February 7th last, confirmed the nomination of Robert P. Wirtz, City Treasurer of Forest Grove, Or.

City Treasurer of Forest Grove, Or., for the postmastership at that place.

Now the Honorable Frank was brought up at Forest Grove and educated at Pacific University there. It's his "old home town," so to speak. And if a man's political patronage is good for anything, why certainly it ought to be good for naming the postmaster at one's old home town, ought it not? Especially, as for a good many onths the Honorable Frank had been commending postmasters right and left for all vacancies arising in the state, these recommendations being complacently followed by Senator Lane and agreed to by Senator Chamberlain, who is interested in bigger things than who is interested in bigger things than postmasters just now.

The Honorable Frank's nominee for the postmastership at Forest Grove was his sister, Miss Minnie J. Myers.

Others in the contest were Mr. Wirtz, the successful applicant; Ira Purdin, farmer; V. S. Abraham, former merchant; Dr. Ward and ex-County Judge Stevenson, father of John H. Stevenson, of Portland. of Portland.

February 7

This was the act that broke the patience of the Honorable Frank and sent him scurrying to Washington to find what had happened. Not that he was entirely ignorant, for a series of more or less lively letters had passed between him and the Senator growing out of the confirmation January 14 of W. F.
