Something is likely to explode when the Honorable Frank Stott Myers, Portland postmaster, gets back home some time this week from that pleas-ant little "vacation trip" to Washing-ton, where Senator Harry Lane, who gave his ex-campaign manager his present $6000 a year job as postmaster, received him so warmly-the Senator, as is well known, being a warm-tem-

And there is still quite a bit of explosiveness left in their systems.

Grants Pass Incident Rankles.

The situation at Forest Grove, where the Honorable 200 aroused explosions that finally aroused senator that the activities of his ex-campaign mounced his candidacy for the Republican National convention. If he amounces his candidacy, it probable to be ejected from the Third Congressional District.

The Woodrow Wilson League of Portland has sent a message to President Wilson, commending his position relative to warning United States citizens not to travel on armed merchantmen as outlined in his letter to Senator Stone.

The situation at Forest Grove, where the Honorable Frank sought so earnestly to have his sister, Miss Minnie Myers, appointed postmaster, caused a considerable ruction. But the to-do there was as nothing to the loud cries and plercing shrieks that arose when he tried to put over the appointment of a relative by marriage at Grants Pass, one of the best paying postofices in the state.

The situation at Forest Grove, where the Honorable Frank his will-known ambitions to boss the party in the state were deeply unappreciated.

Even Judge Hamilton, of Roseburg, one of the most prominent Democrats of the state, is understood to have had part in some of the protests. If the judge did not protest publicly, he made no secret privately of his lack of regard for the Honorable Frank and his methods.

much opposition.

Now comes on the scene one E. S. Veatch, son-in-law of Mr. Parker, the brother-in-law of the Honorable Franks. One of the family, so to speak. Mr. Veatch had lived in Grants Pass 16 or 12 years and had been a Republican and so registered during that lican, and so registered during that time. He served a term as deputy County Clerk for Josephine County under S. F. Chesire, a Republican Clerk, and was himself an unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for County Clerk two years ago.

Mr. Ventch Turns Democrat.

However that may be, Mr. Veatch, son-in-law of the brother-in-law of the Honorable Frank, one of the family, y'know, was indorsed for the post-mastership of Grants Pass, a neat little job paying at least $2000 a year, by the Honorable Frank.

And curiously enough, about then or thereabouts Mr. Veatch became noted for his staunch Democracy. He a Republican? Oh, once upon a time, perhaps, but not any more. He was a Democrat now, and he'd voted for Woodrow Wilson, too, by heck! or words to that effect. In the meantime there had been some hitch in affairs at Washington. Senator Chamberlain, it appears, was not altogether favorably impressed by the activities in bossifying displayed by the Honorable Frank. However, as there are other Veatchs in Southern Oregon who are good Democrats, Senator Chamberlain, so the story goes, finally sent word that he would not oppose Mr. Veatch's confirmation. Then Came Explosion No. 1.

The Honorable Frank, of course, had not anticipated any difficulty with Senator Lane and didn't have any, the Senator's information at that time not being as complete as it is today.

Anyway, when news reached Grants Pass that Senator Chamberlain was favorable to the confirmation of Mr. Veatch as postmaster there was a gen-eral gnashing of teeth and a sound of wiolent execration. In the hubbub somebody lit the fuse, and Explosion No. 1 occurred with a loud detonation. Other candidates for the office were W. H. Patillo, understood to have had the backing of William J. Bryan; T. Y. Dean, W. P. Quinlan, W. J. Mahoney, Miss Minnie Ireland, J. A. Stover, Burns Gillette, Ross Bailey and F. E. Hall, all Democrats. Several of these candidates banded together and one of them, understood to have been Mr. Gillette, came to Portland to see prominent Democrats here as to what could be done. The whot of it was that, representing mself, Mr. Dean and Mr. Hall, Mr.

Gillette sent a burning message to feeding, as its contribution to the pre-Senator Chamberlain at Washington paredness movement, it was announced to the effect that Mr. Veatch, the Hon-here tonight. to the effect that Mr. Veaten, the mon-orable Frank's indorsee, was a Republican and that rather than have him appointed under the circumstances they would prefer to have G. That was not all. Other of the candidates and their friends wrote personal letters to the Senators. These letters did not spare the Honorable Frank. And the upshot of it was that a great light suddenly shone in Washington, the candidacy of Mr. Veatch for the postmastership was hurriedly yanked back, and over the protests and walls of the Honorable Frank, who that Senator Chamberiain was "slipping something over" on Sen-ator Lane, both Senators indersed Mr. Quinlan.
