

WILSON BROOKS NO COMPROMISE

Record Vote Is Demanded of Congress.

EFFORT AT EVASION CHECKED

President Will Not Accept Mere Expression of Confidence in Policy.

HOUSE IS IN DEADLOCK

Negotiations With Germany Suspended. Pending Settlement at Capitol.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Wilson served notice on Congress tonight that he will consent to nothing less than a record vote on the anti-Administration resolutions to warn Americans off the armed ships of European belligerents before he goes on with the submarine negotiations.

No compromise proposition, such as a vote of confidence in the President's foreign policy, will be acceptable. Such an action, it is held, might be construed in Berlin as justifying the opinion that the President lacks the support of Congress and his own party in his demand for a full observance of international law, while its only purpose would be to afford members of Congress a way to avoid recording their positions before the country on the straight out-and-out question.

President Is Unequivocal.

President Wilson made his position clear to Congressional leaders tonight in unequivocal terms as the climax to a day of confusion, uncertainty and political maneuvering which marked the opening of his first real fight with Congress.

As if to emphasize that the President absolutely refuses to continue the negotiations with Germany until the attitude of Congress has been settled, it was made known that the United States does not consider the latest assurances from Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, as broad or as satisfactory as those originally given. No further step will be taken, however, while the President waits on Congress. Meanwhile the pending Lusitania agreement will not be finally accepted.

Congress Situation Snarled.

The whole situation in Congress, confused by the President's call yesterday for a vote, was thrown into a snarl today when, at an early morning conference, the President outlined his position to Senators Stone and Kern and Representative Flood, chairman of the foreign affairs committee of the House; Speaker Clark, House Leader Kitchin and Acting Chairman Poy, of the House rules committee.

As soon as the delegation returned to the Capitol with news of what the President had said, it was apparent that some of the leaders who had secretly supported the anti-Administration forces and under Administration pressure had pocketed resolutions in committee when there was danger of their being adopted, realized that the President and his friends had suddenly gained the whip hand. It was plain that they at once devoted their efforts to attempts to avoid a defeat at the hands of the Administration forces by sidetracking the main issue and making the fight turn to a vote on a resolution of confidence for the President, in which they could join without compromising their position in support of warning Americans to avoid belligerent armed ships.

House Is Deadlocked.

Practically in control of the machinery of the House, these leaders held the situation deadlocked all day while they conferred and sought for some proposal which would satisfy the President and still save their positions.

Friends of the President, watching the maneuvering closely, saw the object and tonight from the White House came word that there would be no compromise. Congress will meet tomorrow facing a clear-cut issue with the President.

New Embarrassments Not Risked.

The President's supporters openly charge that resistance to his program is purely political. They make it unmistakably clear that he does not intend to let the question be passed over by a compromise and risk being

TWOHY BROTHERS BUY RICH MINE

FIRST PAYMENT OF $78,000 MADE ON QUEEN OF BRONHEE.

Company's Line to Be Extended to Waldo and Shipments of 20 to 50 Per Cent Copper Assured.

GRANTS PASS, Or., March 1.—(Special.)—Sale of the Queen of Bronhee mine at Waldo, in Josephine County, to John F. Twohy, of Twohy Brothers Company, and associates, was announced today. The price has not been made public, but it is understood that a payment of $78,000 was made to bind the deal. John Hampshire, treasurer of the Twohy company, organized the mining company, and the other members of the Twohy concern are stockholders.

The Queen of Bronhee is reputed one of the richest mines in this section of the country. The veins are well defined and the ore runs from 20 to 50 per cent copper. Value of the ore is indicated by the fact that extensive shipments have been made at a handsome profit after the product was hauled by team 45 miles to this city for shipment to the smelters at Kennett, Cal., and Tacoma, Wash.

For two years the property has been under lease to Tucker & James, who are now shipping ore from Waters Creek, the present terminus of the Twohy railroad. This line is to be extended to Waldo and with proper transportation facilities it is proposed to operate the mine on an extensive scale. It is well developed.

2000 GERMANS ARE TRAPPED IN RUINS

Remnant of Famous Corps Surrounded.

FRENCH WAIT AT DOUAMONT

Brandenburghers May Either Starve or Be Annihilated.

ENORMOUS LOSS SUFFERED

Mine Fields Play Important Part in Bringing Great Offensive to Pause—Dead So Thick They Do Not Fall to Ground.

LONDON, March 2.—The German Emperor left the Verdun front and returned to Germany Tuesday, according to a Rotterdam dispatch to the Daily Mail.

BY FRED B. PITNEY.
(Correspondent of the New York Tribune. By special cable.)

PARIS, March 1.—(Special.)—The remnant of the famous Brandenburgh Corps, flower of the Kaiser's armies, which bore the brunt of the assault on Verdun, is trapped in what remains of the fort at Douaumont. French forces surround it on all sides.

Guards have been placed about the fort. The French are not wasting lives in attacking it, but are waiting until hunger compels the Kaiser's crack troopers to run up the white flag or come out and fight. More than 2000 of the Brandenburghers are virtually prisoners.

Fort Often Changes Hands.

In the attacks on Douaumont, the fort at the place changed hands four times. Repelled by the Germans, the French rallied and regained the stronghold, only to be routed again. Assaults and counter-assaults might have continued indefinitely had not the Breton Corps been called on. The Bretons, charged with irresistible elan through a storm of German shells and put the famous Brandenburghers to flight.

The pursuit carried the main division of the German corps to the northward, beyond the fort. The ferocity and suddenness of the French assault cut off the escape of 2000 of the Brandenburghers, who were unable to get out of the fort. The French assert that the latter will either be starved into surrender or will make a break for the German lines. The French say ammunition will follow a break to escape.

Lines of Dead Are Shelled.

A wounded officer told how the German dead lay on the battlefield so thickly that, in the faint light of early morning, they seemed a new army advancing to the attack. The officer was in the trenches on Hill 288 before Vacheriauville.

RESTAURANT MAN SHOT BY ROBBER

HOLDUP STAGED NEAR THEATERS AND LIBRARY.

W. D. McIntosh Wounded Twice When Accosted While Alone in Place—Highwayman Escapes.

W. D. McIntosh, one of the proprietors of the Cottage Waffle restaurant at 333 Tenth street, near Tenth, was shot twice and seriously wounded by a highwayman during an unsuccessful attempt to hold up the restaurant at 7:30 o'clock last night.

Mr. McIntosh was alone in the restaurant when the robber entered. "Put 'em up!" the highwayman commanded, and drew a revolver.

Mr. McIntosh thought the man was joking. He stepped between the robber and the door. The highwayman, about 22 years old, was frightened and began shooting.

One bullet struck Mr. McIntosh in the hand. Another passed through his shoulder and broke the glass door. The wounded man ran to the street and began shouting for help.

The robber ran to the rear of the restaurant, smashed the glass from a door and climbed out into an alley. Then he ran up Park street towards South Portland.

After some delay the crowd attracted by the shooting called the police. Captains Haty and Circle, with Detectives Coleman, Moloney, Tichenor and Snow and a squad of police responded. The police took Mr. McIntosh to St. Vincent's Hospital.

The shooting occurred just outside the downtown business district, and but little more than a block from the theater district on Broadway and less than a block from the Central Library.

TONGS AGREE TO PERMANENT PEACE

Warring Leaders Sign and Shake Hands.

4 SUPREME COURT JUDGES CALL OF LAST FLARE

Banquet Celebrates Success of Composing Agents.

NEW WAR BARELY AVERTED

Negotiations Break Off in Course of Parley, but Mediators Finally Bring About Treaty—No Indemnity Is Paid.

Permanent peace between the Hop Sing and Bing Kong tongs was announced yesterday by prominent members of the Chinese Peace Society. At 1:30 P. M., in the quarters of the Chinese Benevolent Association, 257 1/2 Davis street, the document was signed with the seals of the hitherto embroiled orders.

This satisfactory conclusion to their efforts brought much joy to the peace committee, whose members have worked for the last two weeks in an endeavor to arrange and arbitrate the differences between the tongs. Just one week ago they announced a truce which peace might be discussed.

War Barely Averted.

More than 100 merchants of this city, and members of the two tongs involved, together with the intermediary peace party, were concerned in the convulse which decided for peace. The dove did not alight without some difficulty. In mid-afternoon it was said by Chinese that all negotiations were off, and pistols would be in style again.

The Bing Kong-Bow Leong, so the report ran, balked at signing the peace document, while the Hop Sing were willing. The difference, if there was any, did not materially delay the final success, as the meeting was scheduled to end at 4 o'clock and only expedited its limit by a half hour.

Rival Tongmen Shake Hands.

When the seals of the Bing Kong, the Bow Leong and the Hop Sing were affixed to the treaty, the entire party mingled and shook hands.

"It is all right now," said Mei Jin Min, member of the San Francisco Peace Society. "When they put the seal of their tongs on the paper it is a sacred pledge that they will no longer fight. This peace is to be permanent—to last always—I want to assure you."

Peace commissioners and tongmen alike are positive that no cash settlement was made or accepted by either the Hop Sing or the Bing Kong-Bow Leong. They declare that the differences were such that money could not adjust them. The Occidental notion is that the adjustment may have been

ASTORIA NAVY BASE HEARING PROMISED

HOUSE COMMITTEE TO TAKE UP DEFENSE PROPOSAL.

Representative Hawley Is Advised by Supporters That Move Is Part of Coastwise Plan.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, March 1.—The chairman of the House naval committee today notified Representative Hawley that he will hold hearings on the Hawley bill, providing for the establishment of a naval base on the Columbia River, soon after the regular naval appropriation bill is reported, and will give opportunity to all who are interested to be heard. This indicates that the committee will hear what can be said in behalf of this station before making any decision.

Representative Hawley today received a telegram from Chairman Hawley of the Astoria committee, advising that the campaign for the Columbia River naval base will be made nationwide, and adding:

"The movement is for a complete Pacific Coast defense, naval and military. Astoria will co-operate with San Francisco, Puget Sound and all Pacific Coast ports, but insists that the Columbia River is the vital strategic point and must have first-class recognition. Our campaign is not local, but patriotic. Free sites for the naval base are offered on both sides of the Columbia River if available for the Naval Board. We don't ask for pork, but for preparedness."

ARDENWALD MANIAC SUBDUED IN BATTLE

2-Day Siege in House Brought to End.

3 WOMEN HELD PRISONERS

School Children Threatened by Clackamas Madman.

STRATEGY FINALLY WINS

William Klinkman at Length Outwitted by Ruse and Aid of His Friend After Terrorizing Folk at Ardenwald.

OREGON CITY, Or., March 1.—(Special.)—William Klinkman, aged 25, who has been living with his mother and two sisters at Ardenwald, near here, yesterday barricaded the three women and himself in the family house and defied the Clackamas County officials for two days. He was captured tonight by a trap laid by Sheriff Wilson and his deputies.

For several days Klinkman has been acting queerly and had told members of his family and neighbors that if the officers did not leave him alone he, in revenge, would shoot the Ardenwald school children. This threat, made again today, was taken seriously and school authorities dismissed school earlier than usual, fearing Klinkman would carry out his threat.

Deputies Enter Home.

When Ardenwald residents telephoned the county officials here yesterday what Klinkman had done, Deputy Sheriff Mullen and Frost made a trip to the Klinkman home. Mr. Mullen ascertained that he knew Klinkman and knew how he could be caught easily.

When they approached the Klinkman home, the officers saw Klinkman was armed with a short shotgun and a revolver. Mullen rapped at the Klinkman door, Klinkman opened it and Mullen said:

"I would like to speak to your mother." Klinkman assented and Mullen and Frost entered.

Revolver Pointed at Officer.

As soon as Deputy Mullen started conversation with Mrs. Klinkman, Klinkman quick as a flash covered Deputy Frost with his revolver and threatened to shoot if any harm was done, or if they attempted to take him.

The officers admitted they had been outwitted and outwitted and withdrew quietly, realizing that had Mr. Mullen made a move to draw on Klinkman the latter would have shot Mr. Frost.

Klinkman is a powerful fellow, having worked all his life on a farm, and of late has been engaged in doing the farm work on the Klinkman place here, which is a 10-acre tract.

The deputy sheriff returned here and reported to Sheriff Wilson.

Shot Out School Flag Ropc.

Just for practice Klinkman this morning took aim at the school flag rope and clipped it in twain with his shotgun at 100 yards distance. This target practice was noticed by the school authorities, who, at noon, dismissed school earlier than usual and ordered the children not to pass the Klinkman home.

Today when the officers returned to the Klinkman home, reinforced by Sheriff Wilson and Deputy Sheriff Riley, the house was still barricaded.

Deputy Mullen returned to Ardenwald where he found a lifelong friend of young Klinkman and watched up a scheme to capture Klinkman at the Ardenwald Station at 7 o'clock tonight as he would board the train for Portland with his friend, whose name the authorities withheld, the friend telling Klinkman that they would go to the city to see a show.

The plan worked to perfection, but Klinkman put a fight of a full half hour before the officers could get the straps on him.

Tonight he is pacing the floor of his cell swearing vengeance on the Sheriff, who he accused of having killed his brother, Henry, who committed suicide at the Klinkman home two years ago.

When searched the authorities found on Klinkman several letters and rambling statements on various subjects, which Klinkman says he wrote, but which mean nothing.

Klinkman's family decline to talk about the case. Mrs. Klinkman only replying over the telephone tonight: "Yes, it is true, my boy has lost his mind."

3 CARRIERS TO BE BUILT

J. H. Bloedel Credited With Plan to Add Lumber Schooners.

TACOMA, Wash., March 1.—(Special.)—That three auxiliary lumber schooners will be built on Puget Sound by J. H. Bloedel, president of the Bloedel-Donovan Lumber Company, of Bellingham, or by an independent company formed by Mr. Bloedel, was reported today.

The vessels will cost $125,000 or $150,000 each and will be from 225 to 250 feet long. They will have auxiliary oil engines and five masts and will have a large lumber capacity. They will be engaged in the offshore and coastwise lumber trade. They probably will be of steel frame construction with wooden sides.
