

WOMEN'S CLUBS

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

ONE of the most active of Portland's little working bands is the war relief committee. The workers assemble three days of the week and make bandages for the wounded in the European war. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are the working days and since the beginning of the campaign the attendance has averaged 70 at each meeting. Just now there are many workers, but funds to carry on the work are lacking, and the committee is soliciting subscriptions, even if they are small.

On the finance committee are: Mrs. Harry Sherwood, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Wilder, Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. F. C. Malpas, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell and Mrs. E. Hart.

In charge of the Tuesday committees are: Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens, Miss Mary Failing, Mrs. W. H. Nunn and Mrs. John Latta. The following have charge of Wednesday workers: Mrs. F. E. Hart, Mrs. George Good, Mrs. Howard Mather, and for Thursday, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. E. A. Wilder, Mrs. W. L. McGregor and Mrs. W. A. George.

This morning at 10:30 o'clock a special boy feature will be given in connection with baby week. Mrs. W. L. Swank will preside and the meeting will be held at the Meador & Franks Auditorium. "A Birdseye View of the Work of the Boys' Division of the W. M. C. A." will be given by J. C. Meehan, with illustrated exercises. At 2 o'clock Mrs. Valentine Pritchard will preside at a meeting of the Judge T. J. Cleaton will discuss "Child Welfare as Related to Juvenile Court Work." At 3 o'clock "Prevention and Protection" will be taken up by Mrs. Robert Tate.

The Glencoe Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the school assembly hall Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. F. S. Myers will speak on "The Development of Imagination in Children." Mrs. L. H. Hanson will sing and reports will be given on work being done by the association.

The annual meeting of Chapter P. E. O. Sisterhood, was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Della Seeburger. During the afternoon a new member was initiated and at noon-time the members enjoyed a co-operative luncheon. At the business session the following officers were elected: President, Miss Beattie Mickey; vice-president, Margaret Copeland; recording secretary, Mrs. W. F. Staley; corresponding secretary, C. H. W. Staley; treasurer, Mrs. Della Seeburger; guard, Mrs. Leslie Miller; Journalist, Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar; chaplain, Mrs. R. B. McCluney.

The current literary department of the Portland Woman's Club will be entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. C. Whitten at 210 Bryant street North, with Mrs. J. C. Bryant, Mrs. H. J. Bigger and Mrs. M. A. Ogden as joint hostesses.

Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. Members will tell their stories. Mrs. Anna Palmer will sing Irish songs and Mrs. A. A. Bailey will read an Irish story.

The members of the Musical Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Warren Thomas today to see if some disposition cannot be made of the money fund, $500, toward founding a scholarship at the MacDougal Institute, Peterborough, N. H.

The Rose City Park Parent-Teacher Association met in the assembly hall of school yesterday afternoon for the first monthly meeting. Miss Joyce gave an address that was interesting and practical and was enjoyed as much by the girls and boys of the school as by the parents and teachers. Many beautiful views of school gardens, which Miss Joyce secured when in Germany, Switzerland and Holland, were shown with other views.

The Oregon Yarn Club had an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cummings. Plans were made for the annual Spring exhibit to be held at the Central Library early in May, at which time a collection of decorated porcelain will be exhibited.

At a recent meeting the following officers were elected: Mrs. Claude Starr, president; Mrs. Laura Pope, vice-president; Mrs. J. H. Cummings, secretary; Mrs. M. M. Johnson, treasurer.

THE SANDMAN STORY

By Mrs. F. A. Walker

Tommie's Choice.
Tommie Jones was only 5 years old, but he thought a great deal, and sometimes he said things that showed he had a great deal of sense in his little head.

One day a family moved into the house next to where Tommie lived. It was not very near, because the houses were far apart and not like the city houses.

"O mother! there is a little boy come to live in the next house," Tommie told his mother, and he has not gone in there just now, and he is as big as I am."

Tommie meant by that, of course, that the little boy was about his age, and he was so impatient to see him again that he hardly ate any dinner.

That night he came in to supper with a smiling face. "His name is Freddie, and he is 5 years old, just like me," he told his mother.

The next morning he was up bright and early to play with his new friend, and when he came into his dinner he had many things to tell.

"O mother! Freddie has a cart and a horse that goes all around the floor when you wind it, and he has a baseball and a bat, too," he said.

"He has an Indian suit, too, mother. I wish I had one."

That night Tommie came home with many more wishes. "Freddie has a music box over at his house," he said. "I wish I had one."

"And he has a big boat that will sail in the water, too, if he has not got with two blades, and mother, he has a watch, and he carries it all the time."

"I am afraid my little boy will find Freddie has many things that he does not have and cannot have, for Freddie's father has more money to buy things with than my father," said his mother. "You must not let it make you unhappy because Freddie has so many things to play with and you so few."

ONE OF THE SPEAKERS AT TODAY'S SESSION OF BABY WEEK.

MRS. ROBERT H. TATE.

that night when he came in the house there were tears in his big blue eyes and he ran to the kitchen where his mother was preparing supper.

"I know what it is he hasn't got that I have," he cried, clinging to his mother's skirt. "Freddie hasn't any mother. His mother is dead."

Tommie's sobs came fast and loud, but his mother took him on her lap and soon quieted him.

"Mother, know her boy would not want to change places with poor little Freddie when he knew there was no mother there," she said. "You see, it was wrong to want anything Freddie has because he hasn't any mother and his father buys him all the things that money can get for him so he will not be unhappy because you cannot have as much as he has."

"But he'd rather have his mother than anything else in the whole world," said Tommie, looking up at his mother through his tears. "He told me so, and he cries every night when he goes to bed, and no one tells him a story or tucks him in his bed same as you do me."

"Poor little Freddie; we must be very kind to him and do all we can to make him happy," said Tommie's mother, "and you will never again want anything Freddie has, will you, or be unhappy because you cannot have as much as he has?"

"No, mother, I won't," replied Tommie, hugging her tight.
