Giant Collegian Who Can Run Like Deer to Play With St. Mary's Today.

CLARK AND CULLEN SHINE

Lyle Bigbee, Signed as Pitcher, Hits Ball So Murderously That McCredie Figures on Making Him an Outfielder.

BY ROSCOE PAWETT.

FORWARD TRAINING CAMP, Sacramento, Cal., March 16.—(Special.)—Cullen, Guisto and Clark—these loom up as the most promising of the small army of non-major recruits trying out with the Portland Beavers under Sacramento's training.

Jimmy Clark, erstwhile Vancouver pitcher, and Cullen, a young outfielder, who looks like Rolfe Zeider, are ready in camp, and Cullen will here tomorrow, playing first base for St. Mary's College.

The collegians will tackle the Beavers tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday, and Graduate Manager Mervin Nevis, here today, believes his youngsters are due to surprise the Beavers.

According to Nevis, it's going to take a team of oxen to keep this fellow Guisto off the regular roster.

Guisto Is Big and Fast.
"He is one of the greatest all-around athletes the Coast has ever seen," rhapsodized the St. Mary's official, enthusiastically. "Mind you, Guisto weighs 235 pounds now in first-class condition and runs the 100-yard dash on our track team in 10 1/2 seconds. He is the fastest man I have ever seen. He is a remarkable baseball and football player. For two years he was chosen an all-star rugby player and last fall, when St. Mary's went back to the American game, Guisto played halfback and was a wonder. Against California he was everything on his making good on this Portland club."

To prove his faith in the big Italian, Nevis has wagered a dinner with Walter McCredie, manager of the Beavers, on Guisto's hitting three home runs in the three games coming up.

Lyle Bigbee Swags Fiercely.
Today's dual workout—morning and afternoon—developed another interesting morsel of news, hope and charity—to wit, that Walter McCredie hopes to transform Lyle Bigbee, his University of Oregon pitching phenom, into an outfielder. Bigbee hurt his salary flipper in the Oregon-Oregon Aggie football game last fall. Brewer, Bigbee ran into him, and he was hurt and put a knuckle on his right shoulder and it is still bothering him. Bigbee has surely been a "strong" ball during batting practice, however, and McCredie is nurturing a hunch that Bigbee will develop into a slugging gardenener under the hot-bushings.

He knocked two balls over the right-field fence today during batting practice.

None of the Beaver absentee reported for work today and the bunch on hand saluted through the usual preliminaries—batting, running, fielding and a run around the park.

Lush Shows Oldtime Form.
Trainer Clough massaged a slight link out of Johnny Lush, and the veteran worked after lunch it would not surprise anybody to see him out there April 4, in the opening game against San Francisco. Higginbotham has worked the last three openers.

Cullen, the young Santa Clara outfielder who took sweet to Manager McCredie, has a dandy pair of legs under him and seems to have a good eye in the outfield. Cullen's batting remains to be proved.

Jimmy Clark and the big Indian, Lou Smith, who do the twirling for the Beavers tomorrow against St. Mary's, Smith lives at Healdsburg, north of San Francisco. He had a tryout with Frank Chance at Chicago four or five years ago and spent half a season at the Cubs farm at Louisville, Ky.

Haworth, who is an opening game pitcher, will do the backstopping; Quinn will be at first; Carson Bigbee and Derham at second and short, and Stump at third, southward. Cullen, Lyle Bigbee and Muff Bronson will round out the horticultural corps.

Mickey La Longe, former Beaver catcher, worked today with his former tiller, Mickey jumped Buffalo last fall for the Brooklyn Feds. Now he is worrying about his 2800 kopeks due for two years to a partner. He has no idea where he is due to play this season.

OAKLAND TEAM NOW SHAPING
Middleton Joins Squad and Is in Good Shape as Are Teammates.

BOYES SPRINGS, Cal., March 16.—"Roxey" Middleton, latest arrival in camp, was on his first practice today, and he looked rather good to the baseball sharps gathered here.

Though Middleton is late in reporting, he worked all winter on his farm near Flat Rock, Ill., and is in fine shape.

The Oaks are on edge for their first practice game which will be played against the Maxwell Hardware Company here Saturday.

Sunday Oakland will oppose Vallejo. All the pitchers will get a chance as work in the first two practice games. Klawitter, Boyd and Prough will be worked three innings each Saturday.

"Speed" Martin, the Oakland recruit, will be sent to the firing line. Pruet and Klein will also be used in the Sunday combat.

The regular infield, Barry, Kenworthy, Davis and Robinson, will line up in the first practice game, and Gardner, Randall or Middleton and Gardner will appear in the outfield for the Oaks.

SEALS MAY FORM CATCHERS
Machold, Rook and Chase, of New Pitchers, All Promising.

SAN JOSE, Cal., March 16.—(Special.)—Already is Harry Wolverton debating with himself as to what he will do with some of his present youngsters, particularly the catchers, Harwood and O'Brien.

The Northwestern League clubs would like to be rated a "farm" for San Francisco and Wolverton hopes to ship some of the excess talent into the northland.

Machold and Dutch Rock will probably fight it out to be retained permanently as a member of the pitching crew. Machold's performance in the opening contest is still being discussed here, and even Wolverton admits Machold is some pumpkin for a new man.

Dutch Rock did some pitching to the batters today and showed a deceptive

Spokane Picked to Win.
"Who will win the pennant in the Northwestern circuit?" was asked the veteran last night. "Spokane," he answered, "is the favorite. I expect to have a tough job on my hands, however. Farr has only one or two pitchers having sold out the Coast of very other member of last season's runner-up."

Farr has several players signed for the coming campaign, whom Williams doesn't know. Nick has a line on the following players, however, and says that with them as a nucleus a formidable aggregation can be rounded into form: Pitchers, Emery Webb, Rube Evans, Salveson, Leifer, John Shick, Alexander and Orville Webb; catcher, Walter Smith; second baseman, Glendon; shortstop, Bobby Coltrin and McGinnis; outfielders, H. Shale, Ike Hough and G. Neighbors. Herb Murphy may be secured back from Salt Lake, but according to the present reports from Modesto, he will stick with Lake from Spokane last winter with the understanding that if he failed to make good he was to be returned.

Bogart May Join Indians.
Most of the foregoing players are known personally by the blonde leader, and the others have been recommended to him or he has a good line on their football careers.

Eddie Bogart, last season a star on the Piedmont Maroons of the Portland City League, may also get a chance with Spokane.

Most of the players on Williams' present list are semi-professionals, and the blonde leader, who will stick with the Indians, has himself what work it will mean to build up a strong nine from that kind of material.
