

WHAT HAVE BEAVERS SAID VICTORY'S SEA

Southworth Is Same Old Star, With Two Doubles and Single Off St. Mary's.

FINAL SCORE IS 6 TO 3

Chuck Ward, Billy Speas and Hollacher Report at Camp and Two Jump Into First Real Game of Training Season.

PORTLAND TRAINING CAMP, Sacramento, Cal., March 17.—(Special.)—What hot and a bottle of rum. The first box score appeared! Portland 6, St. Mary's College 3. Billy Southworth, the same old star, with two doubles and a single; Indian Smith, a second Chief Bender!

Ward reported today, weighing 178 pounds, and with him on the same train from the East were Billy Speas and the 18-year-old phenom recruit, Hollacher, of Keokuk. Ward and Hollacher immediately hopped into the game at short and second, and Ward belted in Portland's first tally in the second inning with a double over third. Old Fox Speas contented himself with some preliminary Swedish calisthenics.

Ward appears to be sprouting up like Harry Heilmann, and is 10 or 12 pounds heavier than when McCredie belted his homer from Tacoma last Autumn.

St. Mary's College athletes this year are palpably weak batsmen, and for this reason the box work of Jimmy Clark and of the Redskin with the plebeian handle, Smith, merits no wholehearted denouncing. Clark, who is suffering from a torn ligament in his knee, the whole team is rounding to form in great shape.

The first real game of the practice season will be staged with the Modesto Reds tomorrow.

Elder, the Sacramento recruit, is showing up best among the youngsters and seems assured of second base, or at least the utility place. He is a natural hitter and fast in the field.

Blankenship turned another man loose today when he mailed an unconditional release to Jake May, who is playing with a North Carolina school.

Outside of Nantz, who is suffering from a torn ligament in his knee, the whole team is rounding to form in great shape.
