"REGISTRATION TEAS" will be quite the vogue for the next fortnight. Society women are suddenly realizing that there remain but three weeks more in which the registration books will be open, and numbers are planning to go in groups to the Courthouse. To this end a popular fad will be afternoon teas, at which members of some of the smaller card and sewing clubs will meet, motor down to the Courthouse, their duties as citizens by registering, and then motor back to the home of one of the members for a chat over the inspiring tea cups.

To be entirely correct, then, one must register.
 So many of the society women do their own shopping now, making the rounds of the markets in their cars. To stop off at the Courthouse and register takes but a few moments. There is rarely a crowd in the morning and after all, why shouldn't the women register?
 As a popular young matron said yesterday, "It gives one such a sense of having done the right thing when it's such a relief that they don't make us tell our age."

Miss Ernestine Heslop entertained the Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Club at her home on Twenty-third and Marshall streets Wednesday afternoon. Tea was served at the close of the afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. J. E. Withrow, Mrs. H. W. Hopkins, Mrs. Frederick Lister, Miss Helen Wasmann, Miss Jessie Maxwell and the hostess.

About 14 members of the younger set have been bidden to a luncheon today at the home of Miss Stella Wolfe.

George F. Cornwall, of Piedmont, left last Saturday for a two weeks' trip to California, extending as far as San Diego.

Miss Alice E. Cornwall was here from the Oregon Agricultural College on Wednesday to attend the funeral of her friend, Mrs. Knapp. Miss Cornwall returns to Corvallis today.

Mrs. Jay Van Buren and Mrs. James Carr will arrive in Portland today from La Grande to attend grand opera.

Miss Felice Lyne and her mother, Mrs. Lyne, will arrive today and will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore at Belle Court. Miss Lyne is one of the stars of the grand opera company. She has many friends in Portland, but aside from a few informal dinner parties, will not enter into social entertaining.

The 1916 Follies will entertain on Friday, March 24, in Christensen's Hall. Scotch Highlanders will provide specialties. The patronesses will be Mrs. E. J. Geisler, Mrs. T. C. Cash and Mrs. W. H. Snook.

One of the most enjoyable of recent card parties was held at the Laurahurst clubhouse Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. W. Hugh Williamson and Mrs. Guy E. Johnson as hostesses. Card honors in 1916 were won by Mrs. Ferdinand E. Reed and Mrs. Charles Purcell and in bridge by Mrs. Herbert Cloyse and Mrs. L. J. Gordon. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Griffin will entertain at a regular club party tonight. Members and friends are invited.

An event of musical and social interest of tonight will be the entertainment to be given in the East Side Baptist Church. Misses J. J. J. and several of her young proteges will appear in solos. A number of prominent members of the church will assist in receiving the guests.

Miss Alisa MacMaster, who has been ill at St. Vincent's Hospital for the past month, was able to return to her home yesterday.

Mrs. Lewis McArthur, who was operated on for appendicitis yesterday at St. Vincent's Hospital, is progressing well.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Gevurtz will be at home on Sunday afternoon in honor of their daughter, Fannie, whose engagement was announced recently.

The Cadalans will give their dancing party tonight in Christensen's Hall. The committee in charge has announced that something special will be featured during the evening. Extensive decorations have been placed throughout the hall. The grand promenade will be held at 8:30 o'clock P. M.

The reception to be given on Saturday to the Portland Woman's Club members no doubt will be an event of social interest. Mrs. P. J. Mann will be hostess, honoring Mrs. G. J. Frankel and Mrs. J. A. Pettit.

Mrs. Edwin Hall and Mrs. Herbert Cudlipp will entertain today for Miss Crystal Hyland, bride-elect. Yesterday Mrs. Leon Peters gave a bridge party for Miss Hyland and Mrs. R. J. Himmelmright (Louise Ramsdell). Prizes were given to the honor guests and to Mrs. George Stapleton and Mrs. Joseph McCallister. The rooms were decorated in pink carnations.

STYLE TIPS FROM PORTLAND STORES

IF MILADY has denied herself the lovely Spring finery until Lent shall have passed, surely she can have no greater joy than to indulge herself in beautifying her toilet articles that doir must be a heavenly place, else how could it inspire? Is it this or for other reasons that lovely maidens have been buying looking glasses, perfume and perfume bottles, powder boxes and the like, and so profusely of late? Evidently the Portland dressing tables are being redressed.

To gratify the fastidious girl who desires a lovely bower for Europe and the East have been called to aid local shop keepers. And as a result we have some of the most beautiful enamel and silver toilet articles that could be designed. The enamel ware is so exquisite that it bears scarcely any relation to that of former days. Of course it is not used alone, but with silver, gold and cut glass.

The newest type comes in whole sets. There is a comb of white bone and its crest is a heavy silver completely covered with dainty enamel in soft colors. This must be of a fixed design that is used at the back of the looking glass, on the brush, and even the jewel case and powder box. Some of these are in lavender with ever so narrow an edge of gilt; others in pink, pale green or soft blue. Flower designs are particularly good.

One fine set features a flower basket design. The center of every piece is brocaded enamel with the basket in relief. About the center is a wide band of enamel, embossed. At the edge is a fine rim of gold. The perfume bottle is ever so graceful and of cut glass. The stopper, however, bears the same pattern as the cold cream jar and all the rest of the set.

French gilt, imported recently, is also attractive in toilet sets. The gilt is heavily lacquered so that it will not tarnish. These are smooth and in round-edged designs or in oblong styles reminiscent of the days of Louis XIV. Cut glass is combined with the French gilt, also.

Another vanity that milady will not deny herself is a case that hangs from her little finger by a six-inch chain. The case is like an old-fashioned snuffbox, round, and flat at both ends. The center is a gold or silver circle suitable for an initial, and about it is a ribbon of fancy, daintily hand-tinted enamel. The rest of the case is silver or gold. Inside hides a powder puff and looking glass that are found by pressing a hidden spring.

SCHOOLS TAKE GIRL'S IDEA

Students to Write in Spanish to South American Children.

As the result of a suggestion coming from Blanche Hellyer, a student in Spanish at Jefferson High School, it is likely a course in Spanish correspondence may be started between Spanish students in Portland and English students in prominent South American cities. Miss Hellyer has written Superintendent Alderman making the suggestion and he thinks so highly of it that he will write superintendents of schools in a number of the leading South American cities.

The plan contemplates the interchange of letters between boys and girls of the South American republics, and girls will write to girls.

Eat a Royal Coffee Cake With Your Breakfast

More Nourishing, More Delicious, More Economical Than Any Breakfast Food

Place Your Order With Your Grocer He'll Supply You With Any Royal Cakes Fresh From Our Ovens

—The Germans are a healthy race. Several theories are advanced in explanation of their well-known physical superiority, none perhaps which seem more correct than the one recently advanced by a food expert who attributes much of their vitality to coffee cake.

—this is certainly plausible, when you consider that one pound of coffee cake contains more nourishment than many of the foods popular with the Americans as breakfast dishes.

—why not try a change of diet—have your grocer order a ROYAL COFFEE CAKE for you—he carries no stock, and for that reason you can be assured that you will receive a coffee cake fresh from the ROYAL OVENS—delivered in but a few moments after baking, and rushed to its destination as fast as modern delivery efficiency can accomplish it.

—no need coming down town to the Royal stores for Royal goods—your dealer will supply you with any of the Royal Coffee Cakes, Cookies and Fancy Cakes—just tell him what you want, and when, your grocer and the Royal will do the rest.

—this saves you the time, bother and expense of home baking.

—you will decide that the ROYAL way is the most satisfactory way.

—it will give you more time for your children—your housework—your social duties.

—also remember that Your grocer sells ROYAL BREAD, the bread popular in every home.

GARRIGUS CASE HEARD

ELECTION RECORD SHOWS IT VOTES AGAINST JUDGE CLEETON.

Argument in Effort to Oust County Official Will Be Heard Next Tuesday.

Out of 75,312 votes cast in the general election of 1914, there were 19 written in on ballots for Lewis C. Garrigus, two of which were for his election as Circuit Judge in Department No. 8, and 17 of which were for the position of County Judge. The ballots had no provision made for voting on the office of County Judge, which had not been declared vacant.

All testimony in the suit of Mr. Garrigus to oust County Judge Cleeton was concluded yesterday and the case will be argued before Judge Kavanaugh Tuesday.

Judge Cleeton said that he heard that Mr. Garrigus had secured stickers for his name to put on the ballot, the day before the election.

"I would have been a candidate, had I thought there was any vacancy," he testified.

O. A. Neal, of the Republican County Central Committee, said that the position was not considered open. Shad O. Krantz and John Kelly, newspaper men, testified that they had written no announcements of Mr. Garrigus' candidacy for, though they had heard something of it, they had not considered it seriously.

Mr. Garrigus' evidence was the record of the returns, proved by the tally sheets of the election judges. He received one vote in Precincts 29, 75, 87, 89, 199, 222; two votes in Precincts 170 and 117; three in 139 and six in 125.

JOVIAL AUTOIST FINED

VIRGIL COOPER ADMITS DRINKING, BUT DENIES CASTING BOTTLE.

Judge Langguth Assesses $20 Penalty on Motorist Who Says That He Bought Supply Here.

There was evidence in his manner that Virgil Cooper had been out with the boys. He clambered into his machine at Broadway and Stark streets early yesterday morning, just as Patrolman L. F. Russell sauntered up to look him over.

As Patrolman Russell questioned him the party was joined by Patrolman Jervy, who was in search of a motorist who had thrown a whisky bottle into the street from a machine answering to the same description as Cooper's car. Mr. Cooper was arrested and brought to the police station.

In Municipal Court some hours later, the prisoner admitted he had been drinking on the previous night. His supply had been brought in from California by himself, he said. He denied casting the bottle into the street, saying that a companion of earlier hours might have been guilty.
