Double Golden Wedding Celebration Is Jolly Affair.

HUNDREDS ENJOY FEAST

Grand Army Veterans and Women's Relief Corps Honor Members of Their Organization at Fiftieth Anniversary.

Two of the belles and two of the beaux of long ago figured in a double golden wedding which was celebrated last night at the headquarters of the Grand Army and Women's Relief Corps, room 525 Courthouse.

Following the ceremony each of the four was presented with a gold coin. T. B. McDevitt then presented Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, on behalf of their children, with a gold clock, which bore the legend, "From 1866 to 1916."

The wedding dinner was served by members of the Relief Corps, the company gathering round long tables, which ranged down nearly the full length of the hall.

Songs were sung by Miss Lucile Howland, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks; Mrs. Elizabeth Stowers and Miss Hilleg Thompson. Miss Marguerite Eschert gave several readings.

It was just 50 years ago yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were married at Newport, Me. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were married at Jonesville, Mich., April 1, 1866.

Several of the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the two couples were present last night.

TWO "DARK HORSES" OUT

General Leonard Wood and T. Coleman Du Pont Talked About.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—New York may have another candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination.

It will probably surprise no one to learn that the nomination of General Leonard Wood, former chief of the United States Army, is being pushed for by the Republican party.

Mr. Du Pont, once a miner, also will be a candidate for the nomination.

Another possible candidate who has been mentioned in connection with the campaign is General Leonard Wood.

There is much talk in New York that the coming election is going to be a walkover for the Republican party.

RESERVOIR SITE BOUGHT

OREGON CITY PLANS FOR LARGE EMERGENCY SUPPLY.

Move for Line Connecting With Bull Run Main Is Abandoned Because of Outlay Required.

OREGON CITY, Or., March 24.—(Special.)—The Water Board has purchased a four-acre reservoir site and has commenced construction for a new reservoir with a capacity of 5,000,000 gallons, which, with the present one, will give the city a reserve supply of water of 8,500,000 gallons.

The board has also received information that the plan of treating river water with hypochlorine is not approved by the State Board of Health.

OPTION TAKEN ON BLOCK

$250,000 BUILDING PROBABLY WILL BE ERECTED.

Deal Is Indication of Return of Front Street to Popularity as Wholesale Center.

The entire block bounded by Front, Davis, Everett and First streets, embracing land 200 feet square just south of the Front Street building, is being offered for sale by the Portland Gas & Coke Company.

The announcement of the Front-street option is particularly interesting at this time in view of the fact that the tendency among wholesale business houses for some time has been away from the former jobbing center on Front street to the North Front Street District.

GRAND OPERA SEASON ON

those indescribably social affairs of all big theatrical functions. The name of this, that or the other singer was on this, that or the other lips, and the eagerness to see Pavlova in her fascinating interpretation of the art of dancing was often and enthusiastically expressed.

Pavlova Comes Last. But Pavlova was not to come for a while yet. The opera finished, then Pavlova. That is the order of things under the arrangement of the opera house as conceived and carried out by Max Rabinoff.

The evening was reserved until long after 10 o'clock when "Snowflakes" from Tchaikowsky's "Nut Cracker" ballet was to be put on. The entire Ballet Russe, 55 strong, under the direction of Adolph Schmid, provided this part of the evening's big entertainment.

The large, capacity audience seemed to be saturated with the brightness of the opening night. Never before had so many automobiles, it seemed, carried so many captivately gowned women or so many formally groomed men.

NOISE IS MADE IN SOUTH

Progressive Party Leaders Busy Like Frogs Farmer Going to Sell.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—"The Progressive party leaders are making a great deal of noise in Louisiana, but they are like the frogs the farmer was going to sell," said Mayor Martin Behrman, of New Orleans, at the Willard. "You remember how this farmer, when he was charged 75 cents in a restaurant for an order of frogs, and then offered 40 cents apiece for every frog he could deliver, promised his neighbors to make them millionaires. He got them together and fished for frogs all night and got just eight. They could understand for the life of him how eight frogs could make all the noise they had been making. That's the way with the Progressive party leaders in Louisiana. When it comes to the election Attorney-General Pleasant, the Democratic candidate for Governor, will defeat Colonel John Parker by so big a majority that it will not be a contest."

LAWRENCE HOLDS OWN

BALTIMORE VOTES BY SELF

Prediction Made That Prohibition Will Be Snowed Under.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—"The Legislature of Maryland acted in a most sane and conservative way when it voted to allow the city of Baltimore to vote separately on the question of whether a prohibition law should be fastened upon our great and growing city," remarked Sig. M. Goodman, a Baltimore business man, at the Willard.
