Paris Conference Says Economic Solidarity Is Assured for War.

FREIGHTS ARE STUDIED

Nations to Work Together in Securing Diplomatic Action to Prevent Revictualing of Enemy, Says Statement.

PARIS, March 28.—The conference of the allied states, which ended today, adopted the following resolutions just prior to adjournment:

"The representatives of the allied governments in conference at Paris March 27 and 28, 1916, affirm the complete community of views and solidarity of the allies. They confirm all the measures taken to realize unity of action and unity of front.

"They understood by that at the same time unity of military action, assured by the entire concluded between the general staffs, unity of economic action, the organization of which the present conference has regulated, and unity of diplomatic action, which is guaranteed by their unshaken will to continue the struggle to victory for the common cause.

"The allied governments decide to put into practice in the economic domain their solidarity of views and interests. They charge the economic conference which is to be held shortly at Paris to propose for them appropriate measures for the realization of this solidarity.

"With a view to strengthen, co-ordinate and unify the diplomatic action to be exercised to prevent the revictualing of the enemy, the conference has decided to establish at Paris a permanent committee, in which all the allies will be represented.

"The conference has decided: First, to continue the organization already begun at London, of an international central bureau of freights; second, to proceed in common and with the briefest delay to seek practical means to apportion charges between the allied nations the charges for maritime transportation and check the rise in freight rates."

ELOPEMENT IS SUSPECTED

Girl Leaves Note Implying Suicide, but Mother Has Warrant Issued.

Allene Munkers, 19 years old, left her home at 805 Halsey street yesterday, leaving a note implying that she was about to commit suicide. The girl's parents and the police believe that she has eloped with Lawrence E. Conklin, a young man who has been attentive to her.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Miss Munkers and Mr. Lawrence on charges of disorderly conduct.

The following is a part of the note left by the girl: "Darling Mother: I have worried you enough. You will find me some day in the realm of glory with God. And mother, dear, don't worry or grieve over the loss of me, but forget and forgive. No mother, by the time you get this I will be no more. Don't hunt for me or worry. Your daughter."

The girl's mother, Mrs. N. F. Munkers, 805 Halsey street, reported the girl's disappearance to the police last night. Miss Munkers is about five feet two inches tall and has gray eyes and brown hair.

Tuesday's War Moves

A NOTHER determined effort by the Germans to break through the French lines northwest of Verdun has resulted in failure and with heavy losses to the Germans.

After days of intense artillery preparation for another effort to lessen the six miles intervening them and the Paris-Verdun railway and the nine miles still between them and Verdun, the Germans launched a great infantry attack on the Hautcourt-Bethincourt sector. In successive waves, the Germans were thrown into the fray, but all of their attempts were put down by the fire of the French guns and fire of the French infantry.

There still is an intermittent bombardment going on northeast of Verdun and in the Voivre region. In the Argonne the French are still in the German lines no rest while in the

ROSE FESTIVAL PLAN OUTLINE IS MADE

Children's Parade, Opening Day Feature, Will Be Held on West Side This Year.

CENTER TO OPEN JUNE 6

Broadway Will Be Illuminated as Court of Honor and Grand Promenade—Rose Fountain Will Be Unique Feature.

The annual children's parade, opening-day feature of the Rose Festival will be held on the west side of the river this year. This is the decision of the board of governors of the festival as outlined in the tentative program adopted at last night's meeting at the Chamber of Commerce.

For several years the parade has been staged on Grand avenue, but it is believed a great many more people can see the pageant if it is held on the West side. The question of changing the parade from the East to the West side has received serious consideration, and unless the program for the 1916 show is changed the great pageant will move through the downtown business section the morning of June 6.

With the decision of the changing of the children's parade from the East to the West side, comes the definite plan to open the festival center the night of June 6.

In addition to the crowning ceremony, opening of the festival center with its gorgeous beds of bloom and the first presentation in the United States of a rose fountain, will come the illumination of Broadway, to be the court of honor and grand promenade. Band concerts at the festival center will conclude the night program of June 6.

The children's parade will move promptly at 9:45 A. M. June 7. This will be followed at 2 P. M. by the National dedication of the Columbia River Highway, the event to be staged at Multnomah Falls. The festival queen with those to take part in the ceremony will proceed to the highway after leading the children's parade.

Committees are at work arranging the details of the dedication of the great roadway.

The second day will bring the floral pageant and the last day the fraternal, military and civic parade. Events at the golf club and the annual Rose Festival shoot by the Portland Golf Club are features already arranged.

GIRL CONFESSES ARSON

FEAR OF FATE OF WHITE SLAVE GIVEN AS CAUSE.

Waitress Says She Tried to Kill Herself by Opening Gas Jets—Two Dead, 18 Injured.

CLEVELAND, March 28.—As a result of the confession of Beattie Reimers, 19 years old, a waitress, that because she feared she would be forced into white slavery she set fire to her apartment this morning, causing the death of two persons and injury to 18, the girl was arrested today on the charge of manslaughter and arson.

George D. Hanson, a waiter, and George Bauman were also arrested on the charge of being suspicious persons, pending a further investigation.

In her signed confession the girl said she was being driven to desperation by Hanson and his associates, who, she said, wanted her to become a white slave. As a result of a police raid on the Foster Apartments last week in which she was innocently involved, she lost her position as waitress and in her confession she declared she sought death as a means of evading her fate.

The girl admitted that in an effort to commit suicide she turned on two gas jets without lighting them, bound her hands and feet, and then waited for death. A small stove ignited the gas and started the fatal fire, she said.

CULTURE GAINING, HE SAYS

Lecturer Leaves Audience With Gloving Opinion of America and Americans, Whom He Has Been Meeting for Years.

John Kendrick Bangs, who has such a natural way of establishing himself in the normal American heart, heard yesterday, on his second visit to Portland within a year, it is probable nine-tenths of his former hearers regarded themselves as justified in calling him by his first name at least and treating him like one of the "home folks."

He has based upon his opinion, which he has based upon the most exhaustive method of research possible—ten years mingling with Americans on the highways and byways of the lecture circuit, which leads via all the typically national institutions—John Kendrick Bangs quickly deepened the niche which he made indirectly for himself last year among the "salubrities" of the world.

Mr. Bangs was not lecturing upon famous "salubrities"—which is a word he detests—Burroughs into the vocabulary himself—but he was discussing the real American character, which one encounters outside the boulevards and the peacock alleys, along the ways in which the great procession of the American people move.

He loves the American people the better he knows them, and he knows them well, and his kindly talk about the American people as he does know them is a great thing to restore one's confidence in the United States. It has been shaken by the criticism that has been flying this way and that way. The opinions of distinguished foreigners who pass through America by way of the finest hotels in the biggest cities he discredits as they deserve, and all the assertions of various of our own writers to the effect that the United States is lacking in the elements of literary culture, or humor, or civility or what not, John Kendrick Bangs denies point blank—and in the past ten years of going to and fro in the land he has encompassed himself with a comfortably large cloud to testify to the soundness of his position.

Mr. Bangs was entertained yesterday afternoon with an automobile trip to some of the scenic points about the city. He will be the guest of the Ad Club at noon today, at which time W. E. Conklin will be chairman of the day and recognition will be given to the fact that Mr. Bangs secured under the auspices of the Portland Education Association brought in a substantial contribution to the Vista House fund for the Oregon pioneer memorial at Crown Point.
