GREAT MUSICAL TREAT IS PROMISED TO PORTLANDERS.

JOSEF HOFMANN AND WALTER DAMROSCH. No event in recent years will approach in musical significance the coming engagement at the Heilig, April 9 and 10, by the New York Symphony Orchestra, under Walter Damrosch and Josef Hofmann, pronounced by the greatest pianists in the world today.

There will be two concerts. The Sunday matinee will be purely orchestral, and the genius of the 80-odd men that comprise this great orchestra, each an artist on his chosen instrument, will prove a revelation to Portland music-lovers.

The leading feature of the concert Monday night will be the first and only appearance during this engagement of Josef Hofmann in a great concerto with full orchestra.

them. They are views not only of the university buildings but of the wonderful scenery in the vicinity. Pupils of the high and preparatory schools contemplating going East to college no doubt will avail themselves of this opportunity.

RAILROAD MAN PROMOTED.—William Barr, traveling freight agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad system in Portland, was advised by telegraph yesterday that he had been promoted to a similar position with the same company at Chicago and was instructed to leave at once to take up his new duties. A man will be sent here from Chicago to succeed him. Mr. Barr came to Portland a year ago from Spokane, where he had been traveling freight agent for the Pennsylvania lines for nearly five years. He served previously in the Chicago territory.

MRS. ELIZABETH SHANKLE'S BURIAL TODAY.—Mrs. Elizabeth Shankle, aged 82, who died Wednesday at her home, 422 Skidmore street, will be buried today. Services will be conducted from the chapel of Miller & Tracey, 2 P. M., and the interment will be in Riverside Cemetery. Mrs. Shankle is survived by the following children: W. K. Shankle, M. Shankle, Mrs. Mae Silver, Mrs. Rhoda Shankle Kocheva, Mrs. Claire Allen, of Portland, and F. E. Shankle, of Wrangell, Alaska.

FREE LECTURE IN AN EXHIBITION.—John Morrison Murray, welfare missionary, will give a free lecture in the story hour room on the first floor of the Central Library Sunday afternoon. Mr. Murray has just returned from the exposition cities and he will tell of his work there in his lecture.

SEVEN OUT OF 23 PAIRS.—Seven out of 23 men who took a recent Civil Service examination for the janitors and elevator men in the city were passed according to the ratings made public yesterday. The seven who passed are: F. S. Hilton, J. M. Cummins, T. E. Drimmer, W. O. Anderson, Helms Peper, A. T. Connor and H. C. Allen.

SUNDAY BIRD WALK PLANNED.—Dr. J. Arch Stewart will lead the Audubon Club walk Sunday afternoon, leaving First and Alder streets on the 1:20 o'clock Oregon City car for Evergreen station. Here the walk will begin, going up Kellom Creek and back by the Foster road to Milwaukie, an easy four-mile stroll.

FIGHT OF FALLING TREE HAS FURNISHED SKILL.—Peter DeWinters, Rainier, Wash., is in a precarious condition at St. Vincent's Hospital, suffering from a fractured skull. He was injured by a falling tree, and conveyed to this city for treatment. His age is given as 25.
