Dunderdale Scores Only Point for Portland, Tieing Count in Final Period - Canadiens Regain Lead Just Before End.

MONTREAL, Quebec, March 33.— (Special.)—The Stanley cup, emblematic of the hockey championship of the world, will remain in Canada for another year at least. The Portland Pacific Coast Hockey Association team lost the deciding game here tonight to the Montreal Canadiens by two goals to one. The contest was hard fought and spirited and in the last period the rival teams skated like mad men and the big crowd was kept in an uproar, especially after Dunderdale, of Portland, and shot the goal which brought the score to a one-to-one tie. The series was hard fought throughout and even the most ardent Eastern fans admitted tonight that Montreal had shown little if any superiority over the clever skaters from the Pacific Cnast. Each team had won two games and tonight's game, played under National Hockey Association rules, an advantage to the locals, was the dean advantage to the locals, was the deciding factor.

The rival sextettes battled for 12 minutes in the initial period before a score was made.

Then the Canadiens scored their first goal, which was of rather a fluky nature. As Referee Harvey Pulford dropped the puck for a face-off near the Portland nets, Roman batted at the puck, and it dropped into the nets unseen by Murray, the Portland goal-tender.

The second period was a scoreless one, while in the first 19 minutes of the final session Dunderdale, of Portland, tied up the score. With four minutes left to play, Goldie Prodgers, who has been the sensation of the series through his starting the Canadlens on their victorious march in each game won by them, scored the deciding goal. He secured possession of the puck behind his own nets and worked his way in close enough to draw Mur-

He is certain, since there is no one fighting against him, is hitting better than any man on the club and appears to have the baseball sense.
