CALENDAR FOR TODAY.

College fete at Cottillon Hall tonight. Informal luncheon; Miss Ruth Teal, hostess. Portland Heights card and dancing party tonight.

REED COLLEGE GIRL WHO WILL PLAY IN PRODUCTION OF "TWELFTH NIGHT" THIS EVENING.

MISS JOSEPHINE SAUNDERS AS VIOLA.

FOR the rest of this week the college contingents will reign supreme in Portland society. Beginning tonight with the elaborate and much-heralded College Fete at Cottillon Hall, the boys and girls home for a brief Easter vacation will have a gay time before resuming their studies on Monday. The alumnae are also sharing in the festivities of the week. Tomorrow night, the University of Oregon students will give the production of "The Taming of the Shrew" at the Hellig Theater, which will be followed by dancing in the crystal room of Hotel Benson. The Oregon folk have decided to celebrate their Easter vacation each year with a similar affair.

All sororities and fraternities are enthusiastic about the big college fete tonight, many prominent Eugene folk coming up to pass the week-end in town to attend these various functions. Tonight booths will be erected for the sale of refreshments, as well as dainty and unusual novelties, and fragrant little nosegays also will be on sale by various charming sorority girls. One of the features of the evening is the elaborate programme which will include musical numbers by well-known folk as well as an exhibition of modern dancing and artistic dances by clever artists. The fete is not limited to college folk, everyone desiring to attend being cordially invited to do so. Tickets can be purchased at the time of admission if they have not already been secured.

Mrs. E. D. Cusick, prominent matron of Albany, is the house guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, for several days. Mrs. Cusick, who has many friends in this city, is being entertained in an informal way.

Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman left Saturday for a motor tour of Southern California, which will consume about three months. They shipped their car and will motor practically the greater part of the time.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Westbrook and son, 463 East Forty-ninth street North, have returned from a two months' visit at Little Rock, Ark. Miss Susan Bell, of Little Rock, a sister of Mrs. Westbrook, recently arrived and will visit Portland for a time.

Complimenting Miss Daisy Adams, who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Mrs. May Webster Talbot entertained informally yesterday with a pretty bridge tea. Guests were asked to make up three tables of the game, and extra cards were provided. Mrs. Adams presided at the tea table, which was decked with quantities of beautiful spring blossoms.

A huge Orpheum party is part of the programme to be given in honor of a number of college folk who are passing the week in Portland, and a large dance at Laurelhurst Club. Both these affairs will take place Saturday, the Orpheum party to be a matinee with about 50 girls, for which Chi Omega Alumnae will be hostesses. The same evening Chi Omega will entertain further with an informal dance at the Laurelhurst Club, about 175 to 200 being asked. Numerous smaller affairs are marking the visit of the girls and boys. Among the out-of-town arrivals are Misses J. Kerber and Marjorie Stringer, Elgin, Ill.; Dorothy Grohman, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Vera Gimstead, Medford; Erna Petzold, Oregon City; Perry Ray, Pendleton; Helen Robinson, Eugene; Adelaide Adams, Heuliah Pine, Jean Rieckle and Marie O'Hara, Seaside; Lucile Shepherd, Karen, Spokane. The following Portland girls, who are attending the University of Oregon, are home on vacation: Aline Johnson, Lucile Shepherd, Mary Dunn, Charlotte Banfield, Margaret Caset, Agnes Basler and Dorothy Bennett.

Miss Byrd Holt will leave for the East next week to be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Berkson, of Kansas City, Mo. Later they will go to New York, where they expect to spend the summer months at one of the Riveaux Beach resorts. Mrs. Berkson and Mrs. Fairbanks have many friends in Portland, having passed several Summers here as guests of their sister, Mrs. J. Walter Holt.

Mrs. Jennie Burnham, a former teacher, who has had a long and severe illness, has gone to Seaside to recuperate.

At the Portland Heights Club tonight the members will enjoy dancing and cards. Members are privileged to invite friends, by notifying the secretary.

The social committee includes Mrs. Charles J. Schaefer, Mrs. Allen M. Ellsworth, Mrs. Walter A. Holt and Mrs. Russell E. Sewall. Patrons are: Mrs. C. E. Curry, Mrs. Jay Smith, Mrs. F. H. Ransom and Mrs. Charles E. Warrens.

Miss Marion Atwater, a popular bride-elect, is being entertained extensively, Tuesday Misses Mary, Rose and Louise Irving entertained in her honor with a surprise kitchen chowchow, their country home. About 25 friends of the bride-to-be motored out to the Irving place and an elaborate collation was served. The table was adorned with bride's novelties and favors and the rooms were adorned with daffodils and fruit blossoms.

The following day, Wednesday, Miss Atwater was again honored for a pretty bride tea, for which Miss Marie Seranous was hostess at the River home of her aunt, Mrs. C. Hoffman. Nine tables were arranged for the players, and Miss Lorna Ganong won first prize. An attractive special prize was awarded the honor guest. A color scheme of pink and white was chosen with fruit blossoms and Spring flowers. Mrs. Henry and Mrs. George Stephenson also entertained in honor of the bride-to-be recently, and a number of affairs will make the next week particularly festive.

Miss Mabel Abramson entertained recently with a shower in honor of Miss Jean Kidd, a bride-elect. Cards were the diversion of the evening. Honors fell to Miss Harriet Leas. Those present were the Misses Jean Kidd, Harriet Leas, Ruth Stewart, Edith Greenman, Ella Gunderson Selma Olsen, Esther Olsen, Louise Adams, Marie Adams, Doris Skelton, Beatrice Young, Mrs. John Kidd, Mrs. M. Kidd, Mrs. Alfred Abramson, Mrs. George Abramson and the hostess.

A delightful affair of Friday afternoon was the card party given by Mrs. Samuel Holm at her home in Irvington. The rooms were aglow with Spring blossoms. Six tables were arranged, honors falling to Mrs. Werner Peterson. Mrs. Sterling Borquist and Mrs. C. E. Johnson.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. R. Giltner will entertain this evening with a bridge party of nine tables. Next Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Giltner also will be hostess for a tea, her guests to be limited to residents of Irvington and Laurelhurst.

The alumnae of Phi Beta Sorority and the active members of Oregon Alpha at Oregon will give a luncheon tomorrow at the University Club at 12:30 P. M. About 30 girls will attend and the luncheon will be followed by a theater party at the Orpheum.

Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

How to make the best doughnuts you ever tasted

A really good doughnut is one of the choicest delicacies that can be set upon a table.

Doughnuts shortened with and fried in Cottolene have an appetizing flavor and a wholesome goodness that cannot be equaled.

Cottolene is a real aid to digestion. Hence doughnuts that are made in accordance with the accompanying recipe not only look tempting and taste good, but can be eaten with thorough enjoyment by any one.

Doughnuts
To a pint of risen bread dough work in a cup of sugar beaten with two eggs and one teaspoon of melted Cottolene. Mix a little nutmeg or cinnamon with one-fourth cup flour; add this and enough more flour to make a stiff dough. Roll and cut and let rise for half hour. Then fry in deep hot Cottolene.

This is true of all foods prepared with Cottolene, the Natural Shortening.

Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply. Pails of convenient sizes.
