Justice Chadwick, of Washington, Is One of Four Surviving Children. Interment to Be in Oddfellows' Cemetery in Salem.

WINLOCK, Wash., April 13.—(Special.)—Mrs. Jane Ann Chadwick, widow of Stephen F. Chadwick, fifth Governor of Oregon, 1877, died of heart disease here today at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. H. J. Maury. Mrs. Chadwick was 82 years old and had lived in Salem, Or., for more than a quarter of a century. For the past few years she had resided at the family home, 402 North Capital street, Salem, with a daughter, Miss Mary Chadwick. Mrs. Chadwick's maiden name was Jane Ann Smith. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, Oregon pioneers. With her parents she went to Oregon in 1853, living on the family homestead near Yoncalla, Douglas County, and at Roseburg until her marriage, in 1856, to S. F. Chadwick. The couple resided at Roseburg until 1879, when they moved to Salem.

Mr. Chadwick Born in 1825.

Governor Chadwick died suddenly in Salem in 1895. He was a native of Connecticut, having been born in 1825. He went to Oregon in 1849 from New York State, and practiced law in the Umpqua Valley, where he met Mrs. Chadwick. He was elected the first County Judge of Douglas County and was postmaster at Scottsburg on the Umpqua River.

Later he served as Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Southern Oregon and was chosen a member of the constitutional convention for the formation of the Oregon constitution. He was successively elected Presidential elector in 1864 and 1868 and at the state election of 1870 was chosen Secretary of State. He was re-elected in 1874.

By the resignation of Governor Grover, February 1, 1877, he succeeded to the office of Governor, acting as Governor and Secretary of State until September 11, 1878.

After the close of his public career he retired to civil life and literary pursuits at his home in Salem. Throughout his public career he was ably assisted by his wife.

Four Children Survive.

During Governor Chadwick's term as Governor, the state witnessed the Indian wars of 1877 and 1878. In this war, the executive served in person at the front. He was a member of the Scottish Rite Masons and of the Oddfellows.

Mrs. Chadwick is survived by four children, Justice Stephen J. Chadwick, of the Washington Supreme Court; P. F. Chadwick, of Colfax, Wash.; Mrs. W. T. Gray, of Seattle, and Miss Mary Chadwick, of Salem, in addition to Mrs. H. J. Maury, wife of a Winlock banker, at whose house she was visiting when she died. She is survived by six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. The body will be sent to Salem Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the Oddfellows' Cemetery. Rev. Robert S. Gill will be in charge of the services.

Mrs. Chadwick was a member of the Episcopal Church and an active member of long standing in the order of Eastern Star, Chadwick Chapter of that order in Salem being named in her honor. She was a member of one of the best-known families in Oregon and Washington.

GIRLS "RUN FOR OFFICE"

Student-Teachers Make Campaign Speeches at Oregon Normal.

MONMOUTH, Or., April 13.—(Special.)—Oregon Normal School students in the class in rural school problems yesterday were "candidates" for the office of County School Superintendent and in campaign speeches tried to show their fellow class members why they should be elected. Six were women, who pledged themselves to work for the economical operation of schools and high scholastic standards. They were introduced by their instructor, M. S. Pittman, who acted in the place of a chairman of a Parent-Teacher Association, which had invited candidates to talk.

Some promises means to induce children to stay in school, and one said she would, if elected, make the "back to the farm" movement easier. The exercise was given to develop skill and tact in making appeals.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend 25 Cents! Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Try This! Hair Gets Beautiful, Wavy and Thick in Few Moments.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an inimitable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fashish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Adv.

OMAHA, April 13.—(Special.)—Mrs. Joseph Howard offered her husband the famous $25,000 pearl necklace that he might sell it and rid himself of the $4000 judgment secured against him in Portland, Or., two weeks ago, as the verdict in a breach-of-promise suit. "I said no," said Howard, detailing the story here. "The offer was made at the Fontaine Hotel, in the presence of Mrs. Lambert.

"Take this, Joe," she said, "and sell it. It will get you out of all your financial difficulties. You see, the lawyer from Portland had followed me to Minneapolis and had offered to settle the judgment for $2500. I told Irma about the offer and she handed me the necklace. I handed it back to her.

"Financial Help Offered. "Yesterday, in going over her handbag with her father, we came to the necklace. "They tell me Irma wanted you to have the necklace," he said. "Well, I, too, want you to have it, and he handed it to me. "But I handed it right back. 'I can't take it,' I said. Then he said, 'Well, I want to give you something; anything; money or anything.' "Again I said, 'No, I can't take anything.' "Well," answered Mr. Kilgallen, "if you ever want anything that money can buy, call on me.

Howard Travels in Secret. "I want you to know, Joe, that I was never against you. I came to Minneapolis to tell you I'd make you and Irma both happy, so far as money could do it. But I missed seeing you. We are both in the same boat now. I want you to consider yourself as my son. Howard left Omaha last night for Chicago to attend the funeral of his wife.

State Master Urges 5 Per Cent as Limit for Farmers.

DAMASCUS, Or., April 13.—(Special.)—In his address on rural credits yesterday at the meeting of Pomona Grange, State Master C. E. Spence said he opposed any system of rural credits that loaned money on a greater rate of interest than 5 per cent, which, he said, was as much as the farmer should carry. Others spoke along the same line, including A. C. Thomas, of Sandy. The Grange went on record as favoring setting aside 50 per cent of the proceeds of the sales of the Southern Pacific land grant in Oregon, 40 per cent for the irreducible school fund and 10 per cent for road construction, leaving 20 per cent for reclamation.
