Convict in Rhode Island Prison Declares He Helped Bury Young Woman.

DETECTIVES DOUBT STORY

Prisoner Says in December, 1910, He and Accomplice, in Pay of Wealthy Man, Took Body to West Point, N. Y.

CRANFORD, R. I., April 17.—The mystery of the disappearance more than five years ago of Miss Dorothy Arnold, member of a wealthy New York family, may be solved by the purported confession of Edward Glenmorris, an inmate of the state prison here, giving details of her burial in the cellar of a house outside West Point, N. Y. The young woman had died in the house, he said, being buried in an unconscious condition from New Rochelle, N. Y., where she had been operated on.

In a statement to Warden A. J. Davis, of the prison, which he made three weeks ago and which he repeated to newspaper men today, the prisoner said $250 was paid him for what he did by a "wealthy man" whose name he did not know. An accomplice whom he had known as "Little Louie" hired him at a Seventh-avenue saloon in New York, according to his story, and drove the automobile which carried the young woman from New Rochelle to West Point.

The prisoner fixed December, 1910, as the time of the events which he described. It was on December 12 of that year that Dorothy Arnold left the home of her father, Francis R. Arnold, a wealthy New York importer, and dropped out of sight.

Glenmorris, who still has six months of a two-year sentence to serve for attempted extortion from a Providence clergyman, expressed his willingness to assist in locating the house in which the body was buried and that from which the young woman was taken. He felt confident that he could find them again, although he said he had been at those places only at night.

When questioned further as to his belief that the dead woman was Miss Arnold, Glenmorris said he had insisted upon knowing her name on the way to West Point and was told that she was "Dorothy Arnold."

Warden Davis said tonight that when the prisoner told the story two weeks ago he had expressed the fear of the matter becoming public. The warden thought the man was seeking notoriety and took no action except to ask a private detective agency in Providence to investigate. When he was told that the agency did not credit the story enough to make inquiries, he said, he could not understand it. He would say whether he had found any reason to change his previous disbelief in the alleged confession.

Bone Found at Baker Is Jaw of Earliest Specie of Elephant.

BAKER, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—That the fossil of a lower jaw of a prehistoric animal found in the Virtue district, near this city, recently, is that of the Terrabellon, the earliest kind of elephant ever known, has been decided.

Eobert Wallbrunn, of this city, made an investigation and found a photograph of the Terrabellon, which tallied in every way with that of the specimen found.

The Terrabellon has previously been believed to have been confined to Europe because no specimens had been found in this country. There is a movement to send the fossil found here to the Smithsonian Institute.

CAPTAIN CHARLES VON KLEIST.
Captain Charles von Kleist is one of the men under arrest, from whom it is understood, the New York police received most of their information relative to the sinking of the ships. According to the reports Captain von Kleist said that the money for the bombs was furnished directly by Francis von Rintelen, a Lieutenant-Captain in the German army now prisoner of war in England, and by Captain Fran von Papeu and Captain Karl Boyed, military and naval attaches of the German Embassy, who were expelled from the North German Lloyd liner Friedrich der Grosse, tied up at Hoboken since the outbreak of the war. Captain von Kleist is a retired German naval Captain, brother-in-law of General von Bismarck, killed in the war four months ago, and relative of the late Prince Bismarck.

BERLIN, March 16.—With two meatsless days a week, to say nothing of two more that are "meatsless" and "porkless" Saturday, being a restaurant-keeper in Berlin is far from an unalloyed joy. Then there is the fact that the majority of the Berlin waiters are at the front and women must take their places. The association of Berlin restaurant-keepers has just reached an agreement with the Berlin police covering the details of the observance of the various rules concerning the kinds of food that may be served.

Reindeer Meat for Wilson Lost by Secretary Lane.

Alaskan Delicacy Obtained by Cabinet Officer for President Disappears Mysteriously.

REGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 17.—Who got the reindeer meat? That's what Secretary Lane wants to know, and incidentally, President Wilson, has some curiosity about it, for particularly personal reasons. Secretary Lane was scheduled to entertain the President and Mrs. Wilson at dinner early in March, and had arranged, as a piece-de-resistance, to serve reindeer meat for Alaska. The President has never tasted reindeer meat; Secretary Lane is fond of it himself, and looks forward to the time when reindeer meat will compete with beef in the markets of the United States.

To give the President a treat, and incidentally to boost the reindeer industry of Alaska, the Secretary had sent to Washington a select side of Alaskan reindeer, and it came in ample time for the dinner in March. But before the dinner date arrived, Secretary Lane was obliged to go to California, and the dinner to the President was postponed until a week ago. When Secretary Lane called in his chef and gave instructions for preparing and cooking the reindeer meat, he was shocked to learn that the meat had disappeared. The President has yet to enjoy his first taste of what is said to be a Pacific Coast delicacy.

NAVAL BASE QUESTION DEPENDS ON UNITY

Active Co-operation of Delegations of Entire Northwest Sure to Bring Results.

OREGON FINALLY IN ACCORD

Mr. Harley Surprised to Find That Until Recent Meeting No Concerted Move for Aid of Columbia Was Afoot.

REGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 17.—The congressional delegations from all the Northwestern States will get together in support of our bill for a naval base on the Columbia River, Congress will be forced to yield to our demands. But only through hearty and active co-operation can this project be carried through.

"We have accomplished one thing thus far," said Mr. Harley; "we have impressed upon Secretary Daniels, and upon some members of the naval committee, the importance of the Columbia River is on the map and that the Columbia River offers a favorable site for a naval base. Whatever may be done in the immediate future, the Columbia River will be reckoned with hereafter, not only in the shaping of naval, but military legislation as well."

When Mr. Harley arrived in Washington he found that the Columbia River naval base bills had made no progress since they were introduced. He was astonished to learn that the Oregon delegation had had no conference on the subject and had mapped out no course of action.

All Have Common Interest.
It was not until Mr. Harley gave a dinner at the National Press Club to the various members of the delegation and their secretaries that the five Oregon legislators were brought together.

When the delegation met it was found that every member was interested in the bill; that each Senator and Representative wanted to see a naval base established on the Columbia River as soon as the naval appropriation bill is reported. But at the Senate end of the Capitol, nothing whatever had been done.

BACKACHE, PAIN IN SIDE, RHEUMATISM.

Dear Mr. Editor:
For a long time I suffered from backache, pain in left side, frequent urination (bothering me at all times during the day and night), and the uric acid in my blood caused me to suffer from rheumatism along with a constant tired, worn-out feeling. I heard of the new discovery of Dr. Pierce's "Anuric" and I at once began their use. After giving "Anuric" a good trial I believe it to be the best kidney remedy on the market today. I have tried other kidney medicines, but these "Anuric Tablets" of Dr. Pierce's are the only ones, in my opinion, that will cure kidney and bladder troubles.

(Signed) HENRY A. LOVE
Note—Experiments at Dr. Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that "Anuric" is 37 times more active than Lithia in expelling poisons from the body. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—such as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "Anuric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in case of acute rheumatism in the joints, gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness, which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear. Send for a free trial package or go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "Anuric," manufactured by Dr. Pierce. If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, send him a sample of your water and describe symptoms. Dr. Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you without fee or charge whatever.—Adv.
