Byron Holds Visitors to One Scratch Hit After He Goes In in Eighth.

GAME LASTS 12 INNINGS

Guisto's Spectacular Fielding and Gus Fisher's Pinch Batting Are Added Features in Lively Contest.

Portland turned on Salt Lake yesterday after the opening day double and trimmed the Bees, 6 to 5, although it took 12 innings to turn the trick.

Walter McCredie had to call in the services of two pitchers, Harstad and Houck, but he had nothing on Cliff Blankenship, for Cliff had to yank Bert Hall when the cork-ball heaver got into dire trouble in the eighth. Paul Fittery finished up and recaptured for the beating.

Three big features stood out prominently during the afternoon session—the great pitching of Byron Houck, the sensational fielding of Louis Guisto and the pinch hit of Gus Fisher. It may sound strange that Portland did all the extra work.

Harstad Batted Out. Harstad started the match for the Beavers and he lasted until eight and one-third innings had been completed, when the former Washington High School and Federal Leaguer went on the mound. He went in just after Quinlan had doubled, scoring two runs, making a total of three for the inning.

During his stay in the box Houck allowed but one run, that a pinch hitter did not permit to count. In all except the ninth the Bees were sent to the bench in one-two-three order by Houck. Catcher Vann bounced a slow roller to Hollacher, who slipped and fell and then threw the ball. The only hit made off Houck's delivery.

The firework opened in the second, when the Bees came back strong in the third and stopped in the front with two more in the fifth, through the stickwork of Gus Fisher in the pinch.

With two men on Hall deliberately walked Roche to first. The pinch runner McCredie sent in Fisher, who knocked the ball to the right field fence, scoring Southworth and Guisto.

The Bees came back strong in the eighth and made three runs on one hit. After Quinlan doubled, scoring Hall and Orr, Houck went in.

Portland had a lead in its half of the eighth. After walking, Spears went to third on Vaughn's single to center field, when Quinlan hit the ball over Murphy's head, sent home.

The winning run was made with none down. In the ninth, Roche as first up hit for two runs, but the ground ball and when Bier threw wild to Murphy on Houck's sacrifice Roche continued toward the plate in the score that ended the excitement.

Guisto's backhand stab of Quinlan's line drive with two on in the fourth was a feature of good hand from the 1600 fans present.

Today is ladies' day. The score: Salt Lake 6, Bees 5.

Notes of the game. Each team made 12 hits, several of them being gifts because of the soggy condition of the playing field. On several occasions, after the game had proceeded perfectly, the player fell, making it impossible to judge the playing ability of the men.

Manager Blankenship announced last night that his battery for the game this afternoon probably would be Munsell and Hannah Wynne Noyes or Iva Higginbotham will appear on the mound for Portland, with Fisher going for the Bees.

Jack Washop likely will not report to Salt Lake here this season. Manager Blankenship has a right arm that is the same as the new pitcher to meet him at San Francisco next week.

Hunny Brief failed to break into the hit column in his first three at-bats. His plate was walked, but his last three at-bats were walks, a lack of hits.

Budd Ryan had a batting touch on. He credited with three hits, the number scored by his teammate, Rath, and was the only one to get a hit.

Bert Hall forced in the second Portland run. The sacrifice was made and he walked Guido, forcing in Captain Vaughn.

LOS ANGELES, April 20.—San Francisco pounded the ball to all portions of the grounds in today's baseball game with Los Angeles and won its first contest of the series, 9 to 6. The locals made their big effort to win in the seventh, when they made five runs, causing the retirement of Fletcher Baum. However, the Seals more than evened the score in the next inning.

Stanford expects trouble in defeating Berkeley. California coach says men's work is satisfactory and blue and gold supporters take heart.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—Stanford and California varsity eight-oared crews today in their long training grind today in preparation for Saturday's big race on the Oakland estuary, with final trials. They will rest over tomorrow and try not to think or worry about their coming struggle.

University of California supporters were cheered by the laconic "very satisfactory" reply returned by Coach Ben Wallis, when he was asked what time the crew would over the three-mile course in the final trial spin.

Stanford's outsmen and Coach Frank L. Guerrero reassured their confidence of victory, although they admitted Stanford has more to fear this year than for years past from the blue and gold oarsmen. Stanford has had some bad luck this year.

The crew, shocked-full of confidence, was easily defeated by five boat lengths two weeks ago at Seattle by Washington University. Captain C. H. Orme headed the crew, who are now in the Poughkeepsie regatta next June.

The Stanford boys were glad to end their training for a while at least, tonight. They have grown tired of making a 15-mile trip daily to and from water, but they will resume it soon to prepare for their coming contest with the big Eastern universities in the Poughkeepsie regatta next June.

Aggies Off to Play Washington. OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, April 20.—(Special)—The Oregon Agricultural College baseball team left Corvallis today for Seattle, where they will play the first conference game of the season for the orange and black Friday and Saturday against the University of Washington. Eleven men boarded the train.

Detroit Signs Jack Dalton. DETROIT, April 20.—Jack Dalton, who was with the Pirates in the League team last year and with the Brooklyn Nationals in 1914, has been signed by the Detroit club, according to an announcement today. Dalton is an outfielder, and batted above .300 in the Federal League.

What the Box Scores Show About Players You Know. JOE GEDEON kept up his fearful slugging for the Yanks yesterday. Getting a triple and single in four times he scored two runs. The ex-Beaver hit seven chances at second, and booted one of seven chances at first.

Harry Hellmann, ex-Seal, also stayed in the spotlight with two hits in four trips. His final hit, a two-bagger, broke up the game and gave Detroit victory over the White Sox.

Little Zeb Terry made a hit for the White Sox. The ex-Angel fielded safely at shortstop, and scored one run and made a hit for Detroit.

Ivan Olson, ex-Beaver, who had hit a batting fever Wednesday, repeated yesterday for Brooklyn with three hits in four attempts. He made one error at shortstop.

Joe Wilhoit, ex-Vernon, scored two runs and made one hit for the Braves. Jimmy Johnston, ex-Oak, broke in as a pinch hitter for Brooklyn, but failed at shortstop.

Pep Young, ex-Sacramento, with Detroit; Roger Peckinpah, ex-Beaver, with the Yanks; and Dave Bancroft, ex-Beaver, with the Phillies, were former Coasters who failed to register in the hit or run column.

Slim Love, ex-Angel, took a beating from Washington. The tall Yank yielded six hits in three innings, walked one and fanned none.

Salvor Stroud, ex-Sacramento, now a Giant, gave the Phils nine hits and six runs in five innings, walking one and fanning two.

Wesley Dell, ex-Seattle heaver, yielded five hits and no earned runs in four innings for Brooklyn. He fanned one.

Tom Seaton, ex-Beaver, went in for the Cubs long enough to fan one man. A moment later he retired for a pinch.

Pete Schneider made a hit and scored a run, but the Cincinnati pitcher from Seattle was touched up for three earned runs and eight hits in seven innings. He walked four and fanned four.

Pitcher McKenney, ex-Victoria, who relieved Schneider, allowed two earned runs and three hits in two and two-thirds innings.

Harvard Eight Beaten by Half a Foot in Great Race.

Clemon Makes Great Dash to Overcome Tigers' Lead and is Coming at Great Rate at Finish Line.

Princeton, N. J., April 20.—Princeton's varsity crew defeated Harvard's eight on Lake Carnegie late today by about a half-foot. The junior varsity race was won by Harvard by two lengths. The times of the boat races were: Princeton, 9:55. Harvard, 10:15. Princeton varsity, 2 minutes 12 1/2 seconds. Harvard Juniors, 9 minutes 45 seconds. Princeton, 9:55. Harvard, 10:15.

The Princeton seniors, after a spirited struggle at the start, took the lead, which they had increased to three-quarters of a length at the three-mile post. Harvard moved up her stroke and gradually narrowed the distance between the two boats until they passed into the final sprint almost even. Both crews made 26 strokes to the minute, but the last pull was with Princeton.

Captain Cochran, of the winning crew, called his men "beautifully" at the three-quarter-mile post he had dropped his stroke to 30, increasing it to 32, 34 and 35 as the Harvard crew came up.

Lund, the veteran who led the Harvard eight, made a magnificent spurt after the mid-and-half post had been passed and was rapidly overhauling the Princeton boat when the finish line was reached.

Coast League Gossip. WEDNESDAY and Friday will be ladies' days again this season. All of the fair sex will be admitted on these days.

Jimmy Clark, former star hurler of the Vancouver club of the Northwestern League, who has been unable to hold down his position in practice, Bennett was going at a great clip when struck.

"Jude" Moreland and Leo "Frisco" Edwards have both been released by the Tacoma club, of the Northwestern League. Moreland is a pitcher and Edwards a catcher from the end lots around Portland. Moreland went to away from training with the Salt Lake club of the Coast League at Modesto.

Red Kuhn has been disposed of by Salt Lake to the Waco club, of the Texas League. His arm was sore and he could not figure that he could carry him advantageously.

This week's series starts a four-week invasion of foreign soil for the Bees. After Portland come games with San Francisco, Vernon and Oakland, in the order named. The Salt Lake club will return to Majestic Park, Salt Lake, on May 16, when the Beavers open there.

Salt Lake is one club that is kicking on only three weeks of training being allowed the Coast League clubs. The Salt Lake club has some real training next spring. In all probability it will not be had in California.

The experience of the Salt Lake club in 1915 and the fact that they have not returned to the club in 1916 is a fact that will never be forgotten by a ball club which has only three precious weeks for training. Too much rain is the complaint.

Present indications are that the Salt Lake club will train next season at Las Vegas, Nev. One thing is certain, as mid-February. It is possible that no practice games with other clubs could be arranged at Las Vegas, but it has been proved that training game revenues are revenues in name only and don't make much of a click in the treasurer's pockets.

The pitching staff of the Salt Lake club is not there and won't be until the club has had at least three more weeks of training. Munsell, Mullins, Peterson and Reigal have failed to show anything as yet since they have not shown their ability has survived the winter. The coming of Jack Warhop, ex-New York Yankee, should strengthen the Saints.

Manager Cliff Blankenship, of the Salt Lake Bees, is still holding hopes of getting Claude Williams back from the Chicago White Sox. There is a possibility that Lefty will become available and Comiskey has promised Williams to get the first crack at him if he fails to make good.

DON'T "CLEAN UP" YOUR OLD SUIT—BUY A NEW ONE TODAY ON CREDIT!

The recipe for keeping oneself well groomed no longer depends upon a fancy pocket watch. Now, of course, as every man knows, but ever since CHERRY'S CREDIT CLOTHING STORE opened, several years ago, the number of men who dress cleverly has increased enormously.

There's scarcely a man in town who, regardless of his occupation, hasn't bought something on credit. As a matter of fact, real estate, furniture, musical instruments and many other things are seldom bought any other way.

The system at Cherry's Clothing store is simplicity itself. You just bring your wardrobe into the store, smart clothes and make a small initial payment. Then you arrange with the credit department a schedule of monthly installments. It's a big convenience, isn't it? Then, why don't you make the most of it?

Cherry's stores are always open Saturday until 10 o'clock, in both departments. Their place is 383-91 Washington street, in the Pittcock block.
