We sell every instrument in perfect condition; every transaction, great or small, must prove satisfactory to the purchaser or money refunded.
Again we caution piano purchasers to make right investigation of the many bargain offerings frequently appearing in the classified and advertising columns of the newspapers. Usually such offerings will be found to be but brazen attempts to sell almost valueless instruments to the uninitiated or to attract buyers into an establishment for the purpose of selling other makes at a big profit. Again we say investigate carefully. No matter what may be offered elsewhere, depend upon it you can always do best at Eilers Music House, Broadway at Alder Street.
