

WELFARE AID GIVEN

Governor and Others Pledge Co-operation in Work.

EXHIBIT PUT ON DISPLAY

Child Is Chief Topic at Session at Which Commission Receives Guarantees of Support—Fine Charts and Screens Shown.

Co-operation in all worthy efforts for child welfare was pledged last night to the Oregon Child Welfare Commission by Governor Withycombe, District Attorney Evans, Dr. George Rebec, of the University of Oregon, and Will H. Warren, representing Mayor Albee.

The occasion that attracted the attendance of the Governor, District Attorney, representatives of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, heads of state institutions, teachers, principals and specialists was the opening of the exhibit of the Oregon Child Welfare Commission in the Library. Before a tour of inspection of the pictures and charts was made, addresses were given by Governor Withycombe, Dr. Rebec, Mr. Warren and R. H. Tate, president of the Commission.

District Attorney Evans made a strong argument favoring a new commitment law. He gave a graphic picture of the evils and the economic waste resulting from allowing the defective to be allowed to mingle with society at large. Dr. Rebec, one of the economic reasons for conserving the child, and said that there should be specialists who should go to various parts of the state looking after special cases that need the advice and suggestions of one who is especially trained.

In the exhibit are carefully prepared charts and screens showing the work of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society, Oregon State Institute for the Feeble-minded, Oregon State Training School for Boys, Oregon State Industrial School for Girls, Oregon State School for the Deaf, State Board of Health, State School for the Blind and State Department of Education, and showing, too, the work of the Lane County done by the Thursday Charity Club of Eugene, the Red Cross Association and the women of Cottage Grove, assisted by the University of Oregon.

The exhibit will be open to the public until Wednesday night and will be in charge of the following organizations: This afternoon, Oregon Association for the Deaf; tonight, Grade Teachers' Association; tomorrow afternoon, Association of Collegiate Alumnae; Saturday night, Social Workers' Club; Monday afternoon, Portland Woman's Club; Monday night, Oregon Civic League; Tuesday afternoon, Portland Parent Council; Tuesday night, Young Men's Christian Association; Wednesday afternoon, C. T. U.; Wednesday night, the commission.

The personnel of the Child Welfare Commission includes: Mrs. Robert H. Tate, president; Portland; Dr. Hae H. Cardwell, secretary; Portland; Mrs. E. Clyde Anderson, McMinnville; George Rebec, Ph. D., Alderman, Portland.

In his address last night, Governor Withycombe complimented the members and the work of the commission on the great amount of work done. The exhibit was made possible by the obtaining of the gathering of nobles to be held there this summer. Mr. Goodman is at the Imperial.

Present plans are to make the decorations at Buffalo of a more elaborate character than those of any preceding convention city of the Shriners. Mr. Goodman had charge of the decoration work in the cities of the Atlanta and Seattle when the Shriners' gatherings were held there.

14,660 SIGN UP IN MARION Registration Shows Increase of 1000 Since Last Election.

SALEM, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—Registration in Marion County for the coming primaries shows an increase of approximately 1000 since the last election. The total registration to date with approximately 200 more to come in, is 14,660, of which number 8882 are men and 5778 are women.

The number of women registering in Marion shows a decided increase over past elections, as a result of the activities of the Women's Republican Club of Salem, which has waged an active campaign to induce women to register.

The supply committee of the session has under contemplation the call for a permanent pastor, but no definite action has been taken.

BUTTER LAW IS SUSTAINED Judge Kavanaugh Confirms Fine Imposed on Idaho Shipper.

The constitutionality of the 1915 law requiring all butter shipments into Oregon to be reported to the State Food and Dairy Commission immediately upon entry into this state was upheld by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh yesterday, when he over-ruled the demurrer of Carl Schallenger in his appeal from a fine of $25 imposed in a lower court. Schallenger is a butter producer of

NEW ENTRANT FOR QUEEN OF ROSE FESTIVAL.

Miss Christina Haek, of Forest Grove.

A new candidate for Portland's Rose Festival queen entered in the race for that honor yesterday, the store of King & Co., Forest Grove, nominating Miss Christina Haek, of that place. L. P. King, a member of the firm of King & Co., is campaign manager for Miss Haek. The count of the votes last night showed Miss Waive Jacobs, of Klamath Falls, to be in first place, with 55,793. Miss Louise Taylor, the candidate of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was second, with 51,126 votes, and Miss Georgia White, of Corvallis, was in third place, with 44,188 votes.

McMinnville entered a second candidate in the contest yesterday, Miss Beulah Vanderpool. Idaho and has been shipping the product into Oregon without reporting to State Dairy Commission. He admitted in a stipulation that he did not conform to the law, but demurred that the law was discriminatory and therefore unconstitutional.

SUIT FOR TROPHIES ENDS Captain Smith Buys Winning of Oregon Kid for $60.

Captain Milton Smith wanted one-fourth of $2500, which he maintained was the value of trophies won by Captain E. W. Spencer, who piloted the former's motorboat Oregon Kid in Eastern competitions. "Those trophies aren't worth more than $60," declared Captain Spencer, contemptuously, on the witness stand in the court of Circuit Judge Gates yesterday.

SAWMILL HANDS SCARCE UNION MEN ARE TOLD OF BETTER WAGES AND CONDITIONS. Central Labor Council Declares Oregon Federation Will Support Government in Peace or War.

The scarcity of sawmill labor, as indicated by the difficulty in securing men to work in mills, was emphasized by A. W. Jones, assistant in the Municipal Employment Bureau, in speaking before the Central Labor Council last night. Mr. Jones said that there has also been a great improvement in wages and conditions in that line of employment.

Men who were given 15 cents an hour for a certain kind of work 60 or 70 days ago, he said, "are now being offered 25 and 30 or even 40 cents for the same service. Today we have positions open for yard men at $2.50 a day, which is more than has been offered at any time in the last four years. The board at mill camps is also more reasonable, being as low as $4.75."

"The Oregon State Federation of Labor will support the United States Government in peace or in war," is the declaration made in a letter which the Central Labor Council is to send to the President, the Secretary of the Navy and to the American Federation of Labor.

The letter is to inquire for first-hand information relative to the industrial survey which it is proposed to make in Oregon. The council declares in the communication that it will not, however, be willing to submit to conditions contrary to the principles of organized labor.

Mazamas to Visit Capitol Hill. For their Sunday outing on Easter Day the Mazamas will assemble at the end of the Fulton carline, Riverview Cemetery, at 2 P. M. The party will proceed to the old homestead of Dr. Cardwell on Capitol Hill, where an hour or so will be spent observing and studying the various kinds of trees in the fine grove. Afterwards they will tramp to Multnomah, thence over the Desch road to Council Crest.

LURE OF PULPIT IS FELT Rev. Frank W. Gorman Says He May Abandon Stage. Rev. Frank W. Gorman, formerly pastor of Atkinson Memorial Church, and now engaged in vaudeville in the East, has written to E. D. Allen, of 763 East Burnside street, Portland, declaring that he may return soon to the ministry. "My finances are now settled," asserts Mr. Gorman, "I am ahead of the game, and feel that I have accomplished the purpose for which I entered upon a theatrical career. Since I have been on the stage, and away from surrounding conductive to Christian thinking and living, I have been thrown upon my own resources, to seek communion and fellowship with my eternal Savior, and when I preach again it will be with an assurance of his care and help, never realized in me before."

CITY OF 1877 MAY RETURN Reproduction of Portland in Early Days Is Proposed. If the City Council will grant the necessary permission, Charles Olston, of 1095 Concord street, proposes to stage a reproduction of Portland as it appeared in 1877, at the Armory during the Rose Festival. He sent a letter to the Council yesterday submitting his plan for approval.

SCHOOL BOARD IS SUED OREGON CITY SUPERINTENDENT IS DECLARED NOT QUALIFIED. A. L. Beatie Asks for Order Preventing Payment of Salary and Holding Up Next Year's Contract.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—Charging that F. J. Toose, City Superintendent of Schools, holds no state certificate or diploma of any character whatsoever and therefore is not entitled to teach in local schools, A. L. Beatie, ex-member of the School Board, today filed a suit in the Circuit Court in an attempt to restrain the board of school directors from paying Mr. Toose any more salary or giving him a contract for the school year 1916-17. Mr. Toose receives $1950 a year.

J. E. Hedger, George A. Harding, J. O. Staats, H. A. Rands and O. D. Eby, members of the board, are defendants in the action. The board met last night and discussed the selection of a superintendent, but did not take definite action. Claude Miner, principal of the high school, has written a letter to State Superintendent of Public Instruction Churchill asking for time to file a complaint against Mr. Toose in case the latter attempts to secure state certificates. Mr. Miner charges that Mr. Toose is guilty of unprofessional conduct, of writing anonymous letters.

Mr. Toose was employed by the School Board several years ago on the strength of a diploma from the University of Michigan. To the charge of having violated the law, Georgia Frazier pleaded guilty. She had not kept much liquor. It was apparent that the serious nature of the offense had never occurred to her. The court was more lenient than customary, and upon the recommendation of Deputy District Attorney Delch, fined the woman $50.
