window, Piggie Wigg twisted and turned his head, but it was of no use. His neck was too short. He could not see the spot and he did not really believe it was there, so he ran off to Miss Molly Cow in the pasture, knowing that she would tell him the truth, because she was so gentle and kind. She would not hurt your feelings if she knew it. "Miss Molly," asked Piggie, "have I a black spot on my side right over my We are all greatly indebted to those who tell their experiences. And among Wigg knew that he was fine looking because he saw himself once in a pool of water and then again in a bright tim milkpan standing by a tree to dry.

But one morning Piggie Wigg had a shock and the shock hurt his pride very, very much, Piggie was stand-flected his good-looking little self, when along came Henny Penn.
"Good morning, Piggie Wigg, stat as stand fellow, always looking at yourself. And fellow, always looking at yourself. And fellow, always looking, but that is a blamish you cannot rub off."
Piggie Wigg was far too astonished to reply, and Henny Penn was out of sight before Piggie recovered from the look and the selfor the first the prime was out of shock she gave him and took another look at his fat white self in the cellar service and to take away the power of re-election afterwards was laid on the table. The motion was made by the look at his fat white self in the cellar Columbia River Conference. It had been repeatedly voted down. An in-teresting old "Methodist Distipline Book" of 1790 was reviewed by its owner, Rev. G. H. Feese. The reading showed a remarkable widening of view in the church code and government.

Everyone can now afford a taxi, because we have cut rates 60 per cent or more on the big, luxurious Fiat cabs. We know of no other taxicab company in America that offers such service for the prices. We can do this only by keeping our cabs always busy-and for cash only.

Remember the phones-Main 2-3-4 and A 2-3-4-5. Remember the rates-20c for first one-third mile and 10c for each additional one-third mile. By the hour, $2.50.

The most aged face will look years younger after the use of ordinary merco-lised wax for from ten days to two weeks. This remarkable substance, because of its peculiar absorptive power, actually removes the thin vell of faded or withered outer tuticie, a little at a time. Gradually the fresher, more youthful skin underneath is revealed. This absorption process being a purely hysionic one, an entirely natural complexion is acquired—quits different from the artificial complexion, which appears any-thing but girlish, though often bearing pain-ful evidence of childishness. An ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to rejuvenate any complexion. It is put on like cold cream at bedtime, and removed mornings with warm water. To cradicate such age marks as winkles To cradicate such age marks as wrinkles and furrows make a wash lotion by dissolv-ing I oz, powdered saxolite in 14 pt. witch hazel. This has wonderful astringent and tonic properties. It quickly effaces all kinds of wrinkles, no matter how caused, making the skin firm, smooth and young looking.— Adv.
