OFFICIAL LIST OF CANDIDATES GIVEN

Charles Ackerson, Portland, Will Have First Number on Primary Ballot.

DANIEL BOYD IS NO. 13

Rotation Provision of Law, However, Will Give First Place on Only Part of Ballots to Local Aspirant for Delegate.

The name of Charles W. Ackerson, of Pertland, candidate for delegate-atlarge to the Republican National convention, will have the first number on the Republican ballots in Multnomah County at the primary election May 19. Mr. Ackerson's number is 12, and he gets it because he comes first alphabetically in the list of candidates.

For some reason or other, ballot numbers never begin with the number 1, but always with 12. It might be more politic to begin with 14, for by starting with 12 the hoodoo 13 falls to some poor candidate who can't help himself because he comes alphabetically next to the leadoff man.

Daniel Boyd, of Enterprise, has No.

Daniel Boyd, of Enterprise, has No. 13, while J. H. Worsley, of Portland, has No. 23. Both are running for delegate-at-large. First Pince Rotates.

Were it not for the law that provides for rotation of names on the ballot when there are five or more candidates for one office, Mr. Ackerson would head the ballot in print as he does in number. As there are 12 candidates for delegate-at-large, however, his name will be first on only one-twelfth of the Republican primary ballots, each of the other 11 enjoying the twelfth of the Republican primary ballots, each of the other II enjoying the same advantage.

Following receipt yesterday from Secretary of State Olcott of the certified list of candidates for National and state offices to be voted on in this county, John B. Coffey, County Clerk, gave out the complete list of numbers on the Republican ballot, including also the numbers of candidates for county offices. Here is the list:

Representative, Eighteenth District-Vote R. A. Graham, Plaintiff, Asserts Signature to Deeds Was Given Under Stress.

JUDGE BEAN WILL DECIDE

Charge Made That California Millionaires Ruined His Credit and Prevented Him Borrowing on Coos Bay Properties.

The case of R. A. Graham against Spreckels Broz., of San Francisco, was concluded in Federal Judgo Bean's court yesterday. The arguments consumed the entire day. B. A. Graham instituted action against the Spreckels Bros. for an accounting of deeds, stocks and bonds and other securities held by him as owner of the Coos Bay, Roseburg & Eastern Railway Company and stockholder in the Roseburg an stockholder in the Beaver Hill Coal Company.

The case of equity that Judge Bear The case of equity that Judge Bean will decide was based upon a contract made between the plaintiff and the defendant with the Bank of California as trustee. Mr. Graham deposited his stocks, bonds and other securities with the Bank of California, and the contract was made that upon the payment by him of $550,000 in gold coin he would become absolute owner of the securities deposited. This contract was to satisfy Spreckels Bros.' claim against Mr. Graham for money advanced to build the railroad and develop the coal mine.

Mr. Graham's credit was injured to such an extent by false statements caused to be circulated by attorneys of the Spreckels Bros, that he found it impossible to borrow money with which to liquidate the debt. He did, however, pay interest for several months that amounted to approximately $2200. RECRUITS SPEEDED UP amounted to approximately $3000 a nonth.

The case as outlined by Mr. McNab for the plaintiff hinged on judicial opinion that when the mortgagor did not deed to the trustee his title to properties that he had placed in the hands of a trustee outright for a consideration no contract would hold that would destroy the right of the mortgagor for BATTERY A/S SLOGAN UNTIL MAY 5 Full Complement of 130 Expected to Be destroy the right of the mortgagor for redemption:

The securities held by Mr. Graham were not put in escrow, argued Mr. McNab, but Mr. Graham and Spreckels Bros. entered into an agreement with the Bank of California.

Dunne, Spreckels' Bros counsel, said that as a result of the various negotiations between Mr. Graham and the Spreckels Bros., the latter firm had lost $959,000.

"If young men of good character and behavior would only look into the proposition to join the battery, they easily could see the benefits," said a battery officer last night. "Look on the propo-sition from the aspect of an ideal va-cation free of all expense. From now cation free of all expense. From now until early in July battery members will receive military training at the Armory and at the artillery depot at Clackamas, Or. They will be provided with uniforms and all other necessary equipment without cost." Mr. McNab and Robert Read, one of the associates of Mr. McNab, left for California last night.

It was announced last night that the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in this city bad agreed that any of its employes joining Battery A now would receive two weeks' vacation with full pay to enable them to enjoy the benefits of drill, etc., at the Monterey camp. Battery A officers hope that other Portland corporations will extend like privileges to their employes.

The officer in charge of the command ordered out a detail of mounted men, which, in regular formation, surrounded the white object. According to the testimony introduced at the hearing, in the event that Mr. Graham did not pay the $550,000 within six months after the date of signing the contract, all his securities were to become the property of Spreckels Bros., and he was to forfeit his right of redemption.

The case of Mr. Graham was based on the fact that he signed the contract through stress of financial circumstances and that he did so hoping to borrow the money with which to redeem his property. It was alleged that Mr. Graham's credit was injured to such other decisions were:
