

CLEAN-UPS BEGUN

Firemen Start Out 3 Days Before Campaign Opens.

SQUAD IS USING CAMERAS

Rubbish Piles Will Be Noted and Unsanitary Places Photographed.

St. Johns and Woodhawn First Districts Covered.

Equipped with pencils, pads and cameras, more than 40 members of the city Fire Department started the clean-up campaign yesterday morning.

Three days in advance of the regular work of cleaning up the city and making it shiny and new, Mayor Albee, Jacob Kamsler, secretary of the city bureau of the Chamber of Commerce; Fire Chief Dowell, Fire Marshal Jay Stevens, O. M. Plummer, captain of district A; Battelle, chief of the 40 firemen, met at 8:30 yesterday morning at St. Johns and initiated the campaign for eliminating tin cans and other unsightly and insanitary defects in civic beauty.

Evidence of the enthusiasm with which the men entered into the work appeared when all were present and ready to begin active work at 8:32, two minutes after the time appointed.

Work All Over. Dr. C. J. Smith, captain of district 2, with the same force of men who began the preliminary work at St. Johns yesterday, will be at Woodhawn promptly at 8:30 this morning. He had a conference with his lieutenants yesterday afternoon and has organized his work so that it will be executed with dispatch and effectiveness.

"The work has been started with clockwork regularity," was the emphatic statement of Mr. Kamsler yesterday afternoon. "It is going to be the biggest thing for Portland that has happened for some time. I have been riding through the city for the past few days and already there has been a marked improvement in the appearance of the unsightly spots. I noticed particularly that there were many vacant lots that had been freshly plowed, lots that had formerly been the breeding places of harmful weeds."

Essays Are Encouraged. Mr. Plummer said yesterday that he was going to see that essays on the clean-up campaign were distributed by each of the school children in his district. The executive committee in that district will be the judge of the essays and the best in the lot will be given due publicity. If the other district captains follow out the plan of Mr. Plummer, Mr. Kamsler said, he would publish the best essay from each district in the general report that will be made at the conclusion of the campaign.

Circulars were put in the mails yesterday morning directed to each of the lieutenants in each district. As it was impossible for each lieutenant to be present at the organization meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, the members of the executive committee in all the districts were apprised through the circulars of the work they have to superintend.

Firemen Go First. Sixty thousand handbills have also been printed and contain general information regarding the campaign. These handbills will be distributed by the firemen in their preliminary campaign. The firemen will do their preliminary work three days in advance of the regular clean-up work in any district and will make notes and photographs of unsightly spots. The camera method of locating rubbish is considered particularly effective.

Approximately 200 circulars, containing the names of all the district committees with their telephone numbers, will be distributed among the school children. These circulars also contain the prices that will be offered for rubbish that has a commercial value. Already the small boys of the entire city are vying with each other in collecting tin cans that can be sold.

Charles Muckle Passes Suddenly at St. Helens Home.

ST. HELENS, Or., April 27.—Charles Muckle, one of the wealthiest men in Columbia County and a resident of St. Helens for the past 40 years, died suddenly this afternoon at his home. He was apparently in good health when he reached home at noon, and at 1 o'clock this afternoon he went to his bathroom, as usual, and was found dead and died before medical help could reach him.

He leaves an estate believed to be worth more than a half-million dollars. The Muckle family came here originally from Canada. He is survived by three brothers, James Muckle, of Portland; George Muckle, living in Tennessee, and Washington Muckle, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Jacob George and Mrs. Richard Cox, both of St. Helens.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon and the casket will be interred in the Masonic Cemetery here. Mr. Muckle was a member of Al Kader Temple of the Mystic Shrine.

YOUTH IN OLD AGE

How to Live to Be One Hundred Years Old.

With proper attention to diet, prevention of colds, exercise, plenty of sleep, proper care of the skin and the use of a strengthening tonic like Vinol, years may be added to one's life. A Civil War Veteran, Mr. W. H. Bowers, of Steubenville, Ohio, says: "I am 77 years of age. I suffered from general weakness, nervous breakdown and dizziness. An old doctor recommended Vinol. It built me up so that I was able to go to work as strong and well as ever."

The reason Vinol is so beneficial to old people is because it contains the very elements needed to replace declining strength with renewed vigor, viz—the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers, without oil, peptonate of iron, beef peptone and a mild tonic wine.

Invariably filled with appreciative folk. Yesterday the new mid-week bill went on with a change of vaudeville acts and a change of film stories.

The six Galvins bicycle artists, is the big number of the vaudeville offerings. Five pretty girls and one lone man, all adepts on the speedy cycle, gave an exciting exhibition. They balance and ride all on one wheel, again in duos and trios and sustain interest. Their fresh costumes, consisting of white blouses and pastelle toned knickerbockers, add an attraction.

Mankin is an exceptionally agile contortionist who appears in the guise of a frog. He hops out of a closed up ily blossom and proceeds to go through fantastic performances while seated on a toadstool. Later he swings by a grape vine and then seeks his lily pool bed again.

Knox and La Belle, are a man at the piano who can play it, assisted by a female singer.

Fox and Evans are a blackface duo who tell old jokes and an occasional new one, with song and dance interludes.

The big featured film is "The Grip of Jealousy," a beautiful dramatic story of the Southland with thrills of intrigue, murder and mystery in it. Picturesque in costume and scenic settings, the story holds every interest.

"The Neighbor's Wife" is the comedy film and tells the story of a borrowed wife who mixes things up at a party. An unique picture is an educational exhibition, by Bernard MacFadden, who gives a series of classical poses showing methods of physical culture and physical development. The screen flashes interesting data and advice with each picture.

Another picture full of fun is a big careful of polar bears being put through their paces.
