

SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

MAY DAY was a glorious one, and in many sections of the city was celebrated in Old-World style. The children revelled in the festivities attendant upon the time-honored day and danced gaily around May poles, some enjoyed little picnics to the shady woodland glades, motors conveyed matrons and maids to the country clubs for tea, and the day was generally treated as a holiday.

Honoring Mrs. Alexander A. McDonnell of St. Paul, who has been joined by Mr. McDonnell at Hotel Benson, will be the inspiration for a tea for which Mrs. Frederic S. Stanley will be hostess tomorrow afternoon. Every morning, afternoon and evening is filled with countless little informal functions in compliment to the attractive and popular visitors.

The engagement and marriage of two members of a well-known Portland family are made today. Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Schade announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anna Elizabeth, to William Lemsee, Jr., the wedding bells to ring in June. The youngest son of the same family, Karl Schade, and Miss Kitty McKee, were married at Camas, Wash., on Sunday. Mr. Schade is in business in Camas, and he and his bride will make their home there.

The Sub Ross Club will hold its post-Lenten dance Friday evening. The grand promenade will commence at 9 o'clock sharp. The committee is working hard for this dance, as it will be the last one this season, except the grand ball to be given by the club and their friends for the benefit of the high school graduates on or about June 15. The committee for this dance is: Derva Hawn, George Mullen, Howard Hutchinson, Neil McEachren, Iola Barrett, Albert Dugan, Edward Nadeau, Leslie Konak, Charles O'Malley, Ray Leonard, May Nadeau and Marie Vial. The patronesses are Mrs. H. V. Mullen, Mrs. E. J. Nadeau and Mrs. Katie A. Cook.

Company C, Third Infantry, Oregon National Guard, has secured the services of the American quartet for their dancing party at the Armory tonight. The American quartet is a local organization under the direction of F. P. McKim, the noted vocal artist, and in their short period of existence have won a host of admirers by their pleasing rendition of close harmony. McKim is also a composer, and the quartet will render several of his newest successes. Following are the voices: F. P. McKim, bass; W. W. Bradley, first tenor; C. M. Heath, second tenor; M. V. Daniels, baritone.

All of the officers and men of the Third Regiment stationed in Portland have been invited. The dance will be an informal affair.

St. Agatha W. C. O. F. No. 1094, will give a card social and dance this evening at St. Agatha Hall, Fifteenth street and Miller avenue. The committee in charge extends a cordial invitation to all Foresters and their friends.

Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Thomas, 325 East Fourteenth street North, Irvington.

In celebration of her 10th birthday Miss Carolyn Edna Baker entertained a group of her little friends at a charming party recently. The guests, in addition to the little "hostess" baby sister, were Helen Jean Randall, Mary Jane Cram, Eleanor Wiggins, Margaret Crookham, Grace Wells, Annie Ellen La Morree, Edwina Thompson, Phyllis Dickinson, Dorothy Hart. The rooms were decked with baskets of lilacs, bowls of forget-me-nots, pansies and old-fashioned garden flowers. Pink and white, with green, formed the keynote of the color scheme.

The refreshment table was adorned with a pond of gold fish, surrounded by a tiny lawn on which kevin dolls "lumbered and frolicked." It was an unusually attractive arrangement of flowers, dolls, ducks, swans, birds and all the little novelties dear to the hearts of kiddies.

From a basket suspended from the chandelier a streamer of pink ribbon led to each play at the end of which was a tiny basket of Easter eggs. Following the refreshment hour an egg hunt on the lawn closed a merry party.

The C. D. C. Club will give a stepping party Wednesday evening in St. Patrick's Hall.

Miss Loretta Bollman was hostess for a merry party recently at the home of her parents, 1929 Van Houten street. Musical games were the attractions of the evening, and the guests included Clyde Walton, Howard Smith, Carl Petersen, William O'Brien, Bryant Lindley, Ruben Ketchen, Margaret Thomas, Frances Thomas, Violet Nye, Catherine Aheff, Katherine Joyce, Barbara Gaine, Cecilia Schrantz, Clara Stoneman, Gladys Newman, Edna Bollman, Roy Gillian, John Reich, Bertrand Walton, Agnes Pierson.

Miss Ida Loewenberg will leave today for Indianapolis to attend the conference of the charities and correction societies. Miss Loewenberg plans to return home the end of this month.

The Daughters of the Covenant will give a card party this afternoon for the benefit of their fruit and flower fund for the sick. The party will take place in the First Fifth building at 2 o'clock. Prizes will be awarded the high scorers, and refreshments will be served.

Honoring Miss Agnes Albers, bride-elect, Miss Ethel Nelson was hostess for a charming bridge tea Saturday afternoon at her home in Irvington. Five tables were arranged for cards in the attractively decked rooms. Honors fell to Miss Agnes Albers and Mrs. Cecil H. Greene. The guests included

PORTLAND MAID WHOSE WEDDING WAS AN EVENT OF RECENT DATE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Mrs. S. Earl Ostrander.

Misses Agnes Albers, Helen Hogan, Esther Hogan, Audrey Northrop, Terrace Albers, Esther Hawkins, Grace Kern, Meta Nichols, Reva Funk, Verna Backstrom, Esther Rudeen, Willow Shepherd, Marguerite Paltzsch, Mrs. Archie C. Van Cleave, Mrs. Fred Andersen, Mrs. Arthur Rudeen, Mrs. Cecil H. Greene, Mrs. Parke B. Myers and Mrs. Oscar Spill.

Miss Hazel Wieden, a well-known Portland girl, was elected delegate from the Hood River Sunday School to the convention at The Dalles. Miss Wieden will pass the Summer in Hood River. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson accompanied Miss Wieden to The Dalles, returning to Portland on Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Graham Smith, formerly of this city, is in Portland for a few days' visit with her family and friends, en route to New York to pass the Summer. Mrs. Smith, before her marriage, which took her to California, was one of the most popular girls in her set in Portland's social circles.

Frederick G. Broetje and Miss Hattie Groning were married by Rev. Mr. Hornschuch, of the Evangelical Church, at noon April 27. Mr. Broetje is the son of Mrs. Emily Broetje and has always made Portland his home. The bride was one of North Yakima's popular girls. Mr. and Mrs. Broetje will be at home to their friends after May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fagan, of Seattle, have come to this city to make their home, and are domiciled at present at Chesterbury Hotel. Mrs. Fagan was one of the most popular young matrons of Seattle, and in demand at smart social functions.

A pretty wedding was that of Miss Adda M. Colvin and D. E. Steiner, which was solemnized on April 15 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nibblin, East Morrison street. The bride wore an attractive Spring costume. She was attended by Miss Elizabeth Howitt and Mr. Steiner had as his best man James G. Kelly. The services were read by Rev. E. Olin Eldridge, pastor of the Mount Tabor Methodist Church. The bride is popular in her set in the city and the bridegroom is well known in Grangeville, Idaho, where he has business interests.

Mrs. L. Nute, 1203 Milwaukie street, will open her home today for a "mothers' meeting" for the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Robert H. Tate and Mrs. Neal B. Inman will speak.

Mrs. E. G. Chandler and Mrs. W. C. Wilkes will be hostesses this afternoon for the Laurelhurst Club's card party. Both bridge and 500 will be played.

Miss Katherine Hart will return to Portland tomorrow from a short visit at Gearhart.

Coming as a surprise is the news of the marriage of Judge W. S. Hufford, of this city, and Mrs. Mary H. Shelby, which occurred Saturday at Vancouver. Judge R. H. Back, of the Superior Court, officiated at the simple ceremony. Ann Coonradt and A. C. Coonradt were the witnesses to the function. Mr. Hufford is a former resident of Corvallis, and has been practicing in this city for many years. He has a daughter in Portland, Mrs. Bessie L. Woods, and two sons, Walter Hufford, of Stevenson, Coonradt and A. C. Coonradt, of Seaside.

THE SANDMAN STORY

By Mrs. F. A. Walker

ONE morning Bennie Dog's mother said: "I want you to take this bowl of broth and a jar of jelly up the road to Mrs. Hound Dog; she is very sick."

"If she is so sick why do you send her nice things to eat?" asked Bennie Dog.

"When I am sick you never let me eat anything, and I have to stay in bed."

Mrs. Hound Dog is in bed, too, but she can eat nice broth and jelly and other dainties," replied his mother.

"If I am sick will I have nice things brought to me?" asked Bennie Dog.

"If you are sick long enough," said his mother.

Bennie Dog took the jelly and broth to Mrs. Hound Dog and his lips smacked as he looked at all the nice things Mrs. Hound Dog had on the table by her bed.

Bennie Dog went away, thinking it was very nice to be sick, and on the way home he met Ned Dog, who lived in the next house.

Bennie Dog told Ned all about the good things that Mrs. Hound Dog had brought to her just because she was sick.

"Why don't you get sick, Bennie Dog," said Ned Dog, "and I will tell everybody how ill you are and that you can only eat nice, delicate things; then everyone will bring you something, and when you get a whole lot

COAT AND DRESS SPECIALS AT CHERRY'S THIS WEEK!!!

Yes, and your convenience is their terms. Just think, Mabelle, Frances bought the NIFTIEST Coat at CHERRY'S Saturday that I have seen this season. She asked me what it was worth. I looked it over and made an honest guess. Well, she laughed at me and said: "Now just cut that half and you will about have it right." SURPRISED? Well, I never was more taken off my "PINS" in all my life. Just imagine getting a nice white or corduroy coat, cut on the latest lines, full of dash and "ZIP" for the price she told me, is a wonder. And say, their dresses are a class to themselves. "Some specials." Now I am not going into all the details to speak of these garments, but you just take a tip from me and go up there and see for yourself. Seeing is believing. But the merchandise and the price is there, which is "Truth Itself."

Besides, don't go down to the bank and draw out money on your savings account, you don't need it. Just take a little with you—enough to make your first payment, and then CHERRY'S will be only too glad to make terms—easy terms—with you for the payment of the balance, either by the month or week, just as may be convenient for you. Don't forget their place. Conveniently located at 388-91 Washington st., Pittock block.

STUDENTS VISIT SALEM
McMinnville College Party Is Entertained on Trip.
McMINNVILLE COLLEGE, McMinnville, Or., May 1.—(Special.)—Sunday afternoon about 25 students from McMinnville College motored to the capital city, where they spoke in the evening at the First Baptist Church. After seeing the beauties of Salem in the afternoon, they went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwell, their meeting a number of Salem young people. Miss Flower, the talented blind singer, sang for the guests.

In the evening, the Baptist Young People's Union of the Salem church held a "Mac rally," and the visiting students used the chance to tell of the work being done by McMinnville.
