

FULTON SITE PICKED TO BUILD DOG POUND

Lease Offered on Four Acres, That Is Slightly, With Building for $30 Monthly.

NO PROTEST IS VOICED

President Cowperthwait Says Location on Incinerator Grounds Would Be Undesirable on Account of Bad Odor.

The Fulton district now is slated to get the city's dog pound. Officers of the Oregon Humane Society, according to announcement yesterday, have decided that the site offered on the grounds at the incinerator plant is not suitable and therefore will be turned down by the society. Officers of the society have selected a site 200 by 800 feet in size, between the river and the Southern Pacific tracks, between Nevada and Texas streets.

This makes the fourth selection of a site by the society and the Council since the Council voted to turn the point over to the society. The first was at Fifteenth street and Powell Valley road. This was knocked out by the Council when the neighbors protested. The next selection was at Sixteenth and Jefferson streets. The neighbors here protested with similar results. The Council then offered free use of the incinerator property but this offer the society rejected. President Cowperthwait said yesterday: "The incinerator site is five blocks from a streetcar line and out of the way for a pound. There are garbage wagons there all day long and there is a bad odor to the place. Furthermore, there are no buildings on the site proposed, and to fix it up would entail heavy expense. We feel that the site would be very undesirable."

COMMENCING next Sunday, with Ethel Barrymore in "The Kiss of Hate," the Pickford Theater will inaugurate a new policy of first-run pictures, using the big features of the Metro and World programmes. General Manager Shainwald, of the Peoples Amusement Company; Manager Christ of the Pickford Theater, and Manager Kirkpatrick, of the Portland Metro exchange, signed the contract yesterday which assures for the Washington-street photoplay-house one of the strongest programmes on the market.

With both World and Metro features at our command the Pickford need bow to none in the matter of attractions," commented the jubilant theater manager yesterday. "Either the World or Metro presents a strong programme, ranking with any on the market, and the combination of the two will give the Pickford features and stars which cannot be surpassed. Metro and World each releases one five-reel feature a week, which means that the Pickford will have a full programme for each of its changes. The World until recently releasing two features weekly, has inaugurated a one-feature-a-week policy, with William A. Brady personally supervising all offerings.

SIGN EXEMPTION ASKED

Quarantine Officer Says "City of Portland" on Auto Hinders Work.

Taking the stand that a "City of Portland" sign on the city automobile would greatly hinder the work of that office, City Health Officer Marcelinus has asked that the car be not labeled along with the other city machines. The question will be before the City Council tomorrow. Dr. Marcelinus says people dislike being quarantined and as a result when a machine drove up in front with a "City of Portland" sign on it, the people in the house would lock the door and not be at home.

STOMACH TROUBLES. Digestion is largely a mechanical process. When there are stomach troubles there is usually a weakness of the muscles upon which digestion so largely depends. To strengthen these muscles and overcome stomach troubles our druggists, the Owl Drug Co., guarantee Vinol, a reliable non-secret remedy, which contains iron to purify and enrich the blood, the medicinal extracts of fresh cod liver, without oil and nourishing properties of beef peptone, all combined in a delicious native wine. If you are suffering from stomach trouble, it will pay you to try it—P. S.—In your own town, wherever you live, there is a Vinol Drugstore. Look for the sign.
