AMERICAN WOMAN WHO IS IN PORTLAND ON FURLOUGH FROM WORK AMONG JAPANESE SHOPGIRLS AND ONE OF HER NIPPONESE AIDES.

Miss S. Bauerfeldt (on right) and Japanese girl on tour with her to Finland.

Miss S. Bauerfeldt, missionary to Japan of the Evangelical church, on furlough from her work among Japanese shopgirls in Tokyo. She was assigned to the Mukojima district, a beautiful suburb of Tokyo. During her preparation period in the study of the language she became convinced that the one thing needful to successful missionary activity was a Bible training school for women and girls. To this work she set about.

Her thorough scholarship and spirit gained for her the confidence of the manager of the Kaneguchi Spinning Mills. The school was made possible through the influence and encouragement of Mr. Fujii, manager of the mills. He believed that such a school would be of great value to nearly 4000 women and girls working in their mill.

The manager opened his beautiful home for the two initial meetings, and then room in the mills. Nearly 1000 women and girls attended the first meeting. The Bible Women's Training School was founded in 1904, and is now the largest school of its kind in Japan.

Miss Bauerfeldt is at the head of it. One of her graduates is accompanying her to this country to complete her education and then return as a native missionary.

Miss Bauerfeldt will lecture on her work and observations tonight at the First English Evangelical Church, East Sixth and Market streets at 8 o'clock; Tuesday evening at Milwaukee; and Wednesday evening at the First German Church, Tenth and Clay streets. She will be one of the leading speakers at the Woman's Missionary convention at Albany, Or., May 11 to 14.

During her stay in Portland she will be the guest of Mrs. M. Shupp, 11 East Yamhill street.

GRANGE HEARS MRS. DEGRAFF.—Evening Star Grange listened to the address Saturday by Miss Grace DeGraff, principal of Kenton School, on the Ford peace mission to Europe. Professor DeGraff outlined the proposed scientific and philosophical school to be started at Mount Tabor in the near future. Talks were given by the national woman's suffrage movement. A musical programme was given. The master, J. J. Johnson, was authorized to appoint a committee of three to cooperate with similar committees from the 10 county Granges in preparing a programme for the proposed farmers field day to be held at the county fair grounds at Gresham this summer.

BLACKMAN CIRCLE TO ATTEND CHURCH.—Blackman Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., and the A. J. Smith Post have accepted an invitation to attend services at the Sellwood Methodist Church on the morning of Sunday, May 28, when the church will be dedicated.

PARISH ELDSHIP OFFICERS.—At the annual meeting of St. Michael and All Angels, held at the residence of the third street and Broadway, the congregation elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Pastor, Rev. W. E. H. Hobbs; assistant pastor, Rev. W. E. H. Hobbs; treasurer, J. H. Walker; clerk, S. Rasmussen; C. H. Lewis; E. B. Westover; Miss Helen Ladd, Tenth street and Park avenue; Mrs. Oscar Menefee, Twenty-fifth and Lovejoy; Miss Marie McGivern, Garthwick; Miss Ruth Teal, Kings Heights; Arlington Heights, and Kings Hill.

MORAWK CLUB TO MEET.—The Morawk Club will have its next regular meeting on Ross Island, where a campfire session is being planned, consisting of a picnic and a musical. Four topics were taken up at the regular meeting of the club May 4, at the Central Library. They were: "Preparedness," by Alfred Burkland; "Life of Andrew Carnegie," by Walter Sandquist; "The Architect and His Duties," by Chester Treichel; and "Electricity," by William Findie. A general discussion follows each of the talks.

PRIEST'S ATTITUDE SHOWN HAVE STRUCK LIVELY GAIT. Father Black Says Leader Should Face Death for Flock. Rev. Father Black addressed his congregation yesterday morning on "The Attitude of a Clergyman to His Work."

The State of Oregon stands well to the fore in its enactment and enforcement of laws relating to state banks and banking. Depositors and others would be most favorably impressed were they to know a few of the many laws governing the establishment and operation of state banks, and the safety and protection which depositors in a state bank enjoy as the result of these wise laws and restrictions.
