GUARD IS SENT TO REINFORCE FUNSTON

Three States to Help Patrol Border.

50,000 MEN WILL BE IN FIELD

Regulars Will Stay in Mexico Until Order Is Assured.

CABINET IS PESSIMISTIC

General O'Bannon's Order in Battling Agreement With Americans in Pursuing-Militia Can Be Sent Across Boundary.

WASHINGTON, May 1—With 5,000 additional troops under order for the defense of the border states by the President, the Cabinet today was impressed with the gravity of the present international situation. President Wilson and his Cabinet have already decided that the President has authorized the call for 250,000 men under this order, which has been the recommendation of the Cabinet.

The President's order, which has been decreed the most important in the history of the armed forces of the United States, was announced by Mr. Bryan at a Cabinet meeting this morning.

A meeting was called by the President of the Cabinet to discuss the situation.

It is understood that the Cabinet was to meet to discuss the situation.

AUSTRALIA WANTS PAPER

Committee for 10,000 a Month Is Offered by the Government.

GOVERNMENT CITY, May 1—The government has decided to publish a daily newspaper to be called the "Australian Journal.

The government will appoint a committee to select the location for the new newspaper.

The government will purchase the necessary printing equipment and other supplies.

WOMEN CRITICIZE CHURCH

Pastor Who Told Against Judaic Laws Prominent.

NEW YORK, May 1—A prominent pastor of a church in New York has been accused of telling his congregation that the prosecution of a woman for heresy was a violation of the Fourth Commandment.

The pastor has denied the charges.

THE DALLES SHIVERS AT 35

Storm Tides with Temperature Drop.

The Dalles, May 1—A storm in the area of the Dalles, Oregon, has caused much damage to property and life.

A tornado, accompanied by thunder and lightning, struck the town yesterday afternoon, causing widespread destruction of homes and businesses.

VILLA IS BELIEVED ALIVE

Chief of Russian Secret Republic Belongs to Him.

TOMSON, May 1—A man who is reported to be the chief of a secret republic in Russia, was reported missing yesterday.

The man was last seen in the town.

There is a possibility that he may have been killed.

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, May 1—The weather in Washington, D.C., is expected to be partly cloudy with a high temperature of 70 degrees.

The National Weather Service predicts that the temperature will reach a high of 80 degrees tomorrow.

A tornado, accompanied by thunder and lightning, struck the town yesterday afternoon, causing widespread destruction of homes and businesses.

The man was last seen in the town.

There is a possibility that he may have been killed.

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, May 1—The weather in Washington, D.C., is expected to be partly cloudy with a high temperature of 70 degrees.

The National Weather Service predicts that the temperature will reach a high of 80 degrees tomorrow.

A tornado, accompanied by thunder and lightning, struck the town yesterday afternoon, causing widespread destruction of homes and businesses.

The man was last seen in the town.

There is a possibility that he may have been killed.