"BLACK EYES" COST ONLY $5.—A valuation of $5 was placed by Municipal Judge Langguth upon two "beautiful" black eyes which Frank Bookhnia, employed at the Jones Lumber Company's mill, received in an altercation with H. Paul Jones, a fellow employee, last Saturday. For that reason Bookhnia was fined but $5 while his opponent, who was unscratched as a result of the melee, was fined $10. Evidence showed that there had been "bad blood" between the two men for some time, finally reaching its culmination Saturday at the close of work. Jones is employed on a logging carriage of the mill and Bookhnia is offbearer.

St. Johns Man Dies.—Frank Lawson Fletcher, died yesterday at his home, 908 South Washington, of pneumonia, at the age of 44 years. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fletcher, husband of Mrs. Nellie Fletcher, and father of James and Harold Fletcher, of St. Johns; a brother of Hamilton, Alfred and Norton Fletcher, of St. Johns; W. H. Fletcher, of Montana, and Mrs. D. C. Mathewy, of Tacoma, Wash. Funeral will be held tomorrow from the St. Johns Evangelical Church, Jones and Idaho streets. The interment will be made in the Mount Scott Park Cemetery.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR BURIED.—Funeral services for George Doerfler, a veteran of the Civil War, died Sunday at his late home, 6530 Fifty-seventh avenue, in the South East Side, were held yesterday afternoon from Miller and Tracey's chapel. Interment was made in the Grand Army Cemetery. Services were conducted by George Wright Post, No. 1, G. A. R., of which he was a member. Mr. Doerfler was 75 years of age and served during the Civil War in Company H, First Wisconsin Infantry, being a sergeant and resident of Portland for several years.

CLERK ORDERED TO FILE MORTGAGE.—Judge Bean has issued a mandatory injunction in Federal Court to Etacy M. Russell, County Clerk of Lane County, to compel that official to file a mortgage for $25,000 on land in Lane County to the Mortgage Company for America, of The Hague. The mortgage was given to that concern by John and Mrs. Christianon on land in Lane County, but when offered for filing, its acceptance was refused by the County Clerk because of alleged irregularities. The mortgage was drawn, however, and the County Clerk refused to file it.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT MADE TO EXTEND STREET.—For the fifth time an effort is to be made to extend Benton street from its present end through McMullen's Addition to Healy and Adams streets. Petitions asking for the extension were filed yesterday by property owners. The extension got near the point of completion a few months ago, then was killed when property owners protested. On the petitions, as filed now, are the names of some persons who were objecting to the extension the last time.

BARBER FINED $10.—His propensity for securing seats for the candy slots in the Columbia Theater by the use of slugs resulted in Lewis Rada, Portland barber, 24 years of age, in being given a fine of $10 in Municipal Court yesterday. Rada was arrested Monday night by Special Deputy Constable Dredge. Certificates of deposit in the postal savings bank for approximately $500 and between $30 and $40 in cash were on his person at the time of his arrest.

Mr. BONHAM EXPECTED SOON.—R. P. Bonham, inspector in the Immigration office of this city, who has been appointed head of the new division of the Immigration Service here, is in Washington, D. C., conferring with officials there in regard to his work. Mr. Bonham is expected to start for home within a few days and he will assume his new duties upon his arrival here.

JUROR DAYTON INCAPACITATED.—His foot injured by a falling board, District Judge Arthur C. Dayton has been incapacitated from work for two days and his court work has been taken over by Judges Bell and Jones. Judge Jones is receiving the motions that were scheduled before Judge Dayton and Judge Bell is hearing the cases which were to have come before District Judge No. 3.

MAMAM PLAN MONSIEUR TRAMP.—On Friday evening the mamams will have a moonlight hike. The members will assemble on Corbett street at Baycroft avenue at 7:30 P. M. They will ascend the hill to Eagle Point and then tramp up the long ridge to Council Crest. If the weather be suitable a short campfire session will be held on the way.

ADAM LOEB'S FUNERAL IS TODAY.—Funeral of Adam Loeb, who died Monday at his home, 411 Benton street, will be held today at the Portland crematorium at 2:30 P. M. He was 73 years old and was the father of Miss Carrie, George, Alfred and Gene Loeb and Mrs. Mary Nelson, of this city, and brother of Mrs. Fred Killus, of Springfield, Ill.

MAY FESTIVAL PLANNED.—The annual May festival of the Central School will be held on the school grounds Friday, at 1:30 P. M. The amusements will consist of calisthenic drills, wood drills, Indian club drills, folk dances, races, games, etc. An admission of 10 cents will be charged. The proceeds will go to the athletic fund. Everybody is invited.

WARNINGS TO CANDIDATES ISSUED.—Deputy County Clerk Bush has issued warnings against candidates who would further their campaigns by supplying the public with sample ballots of their own. One printer was headed off as he was about to accept a contract for such work, which is illegal.

MAY FESTIVAL OPENS.—The second annual May festival for the benefit of St. Agatha's parish, in Sellwood, opened yesterday afternoon and evening. Dinner was served in the afternoon and a concert was given in the evening. The festival will continue this afternoon and evening.

MAYOR ALBEN TO SPEAK TONIGHT.—Mayor Alben will speak before the Men's Club tonight at the Pilgrim's Congregational Church, Shaver street and Missouri avenue. A banquet will be served at 7 o'clock. The Veterans' quartet will sing.

REALISTIC TRENCH WARFARE DEPICTED IN "BIRTH OF A NATION."

BATTLE SCENE FILMED.

Miles of trenches, with everywhere the bursting of bombs, the plunging smoke of cannons, horses, men, boys, armament, all in one great tangle of death—that is one of the scenes that is presented in the "Birth of a Nation," the great photoplay of the Old South. The scene depicts the Battle of Petersburg, where the Little Colonel, the principal figure in the story, makes his last stand against the lines of blue which are closing in upon him. Never in the history of motion pictures has a scene been presented that would even approach this battle scene as it is shown in the "Birth of a Nation."

CONFERENCE OPENS TODAY.—The annual conference of the Free Methodist Churches of Oregon will organize this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Central Church, Center Addition, with Bishop Wilson T. Hogue presiding. The bishop is expected to make the opening address and conference officers will be elected. A public meeting will be held tonight. The conference will meet daily for business at 8:30 A. M., and there will be religious services in the afternoon and evening. Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Women's Missionary Society will meet. On Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock a missionary rally will be held with addresses from returned missionaries from Africa and China, including Frank Millikan and wife. It is expected the conference will conclude its business Saturday.

PORTLAND PREPARES PROTEST.—The Bureau of Trade and Commerce, of the Chamber of Commerce, protesting against the proposed inclusion of Portland in the Seattle division of the Coast Steamship Inspection. These telegrams were authorized by the managing committee of the bureau and will be sent at once to Senators Lane and Chamberlain at Washington. The position of Portland in the division, if any, is made, Portland interests will be best served by the inclusion of this port in the same district with San Francisco.

E. L. CARDIE IS VISITOR.—E. L. Cardie, assistant general freight and passenger agent for the Spokane and International Railway at Spokane, was in Portland on business yesterday and incidentally renewed friendships. Mr. Cardie formerly was general agent here for the freight department of the Soo line and was one of the first directors of the Portland Transportation Club. He called at the new quarters of the club yesterday and congratulated the boys on their progress. He reports that business conditions at Spokane are improving steadily.

AID SOCIETY REPORT FILED.—According to the report of Superintendent of Arre, of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, 23 of the 78 charges received by the institution, during the last month have been placed. He reports that business conditions at Spokane are improving steadily. The funeral of Charles F. Bartholoma, who died at his home, 89 North Seventeenth street, last Monday night, aged 47 years, will be held from the Finley Undertaking parlors today at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Bartholoma was born in Baden, Germany, and came to the United States at the age of 12 years. He lived in a number of the Northwestern states before coming to Oregon 20 years ago.

EXCURSION TO BEND PLANNED.—The Portland Chamber of Commerce has decided to send a strong representation to assist in the celebration of the opening of the two great sawmills there. The date for the celebration has not yet been set, but the Portland body will be prepared as soon as it is announced to begin organizing for an excursion to Bend to help out the jubilation.

GIRL HAS POEM TO ROSE

Miss M. J. Carr, of Lincoln High, Composes Festival Tribute.

It was "opening night" for the Portland Transportation Club in the new quarters at Fourth and Washington streets Monday night, when nearly the entire membership and their families joined in the fun. The occasion was both formal and informal. So far as the actual dedication of the new clubrooms was concerned, it was formal, but so far as the activities of the evening are measured, they were happily informal.

Music, dancing, refreshments and oratory made up a programme of real entertainment. Intervals between numbers were devoted to inspection of the handsomely furnished quarters. The entire second floor of the Merchants' National Bank building has been taken under lease for an indefinite period and attractively furnished.

CHAMBER COMMITTEE BUSY

Methods to Increase Oregon Industries Are Considered.

The general committee of the Chamber of Commerce appointed to consider plans for fostering Oregon industries and business held a second meeting yesterday to consider the work further. A smaller committee will be appointed to work out detailed plans for the proposed movement, and another meeting will be held probably in about two weeks.

The principal difficulty in framing a workable plan is the danger of a purely "home products" campaign being held in disfavor by local concerns
