Detroit 9, Philadelphia 3.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10. — Detroit again had an easy time in defeating the Philadelphia Americans today, the score being 3 to 3. The home team failed to take advantage of Boehler's wildness, only one player, Strunk, who got two triples and a double, doing any hitting. Errors on the part of Philadelphia and passes to Detroit enabled the visitors to pile up runs, only four of which were earned. Score:

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Tucked in between rain spells, a ball game finally was put across yesterday at Recreation park, and in consequence the Bewers are a few decimal points his bearings well-greased and Portland was able to muster only two hits off the former Portland favorite.

One of these was a dinky infield tap by Louis Guisto and the other a shot to centerfield by Captain Vaughn. Guisto almost collared another, Schaller backing up against the leftfield fence and spearing a long fly that looked good for a home run with a runner on the bases.

In San Francisco or Salt Lake, Louie's smash would have been a home run with yards to spare.

lacing the Beavers gave him opening week at San Francisco.

Wynn Noyes started the game for Portland, but gave way to Irve Higginbotham in the third, after a walk, three hits and an unusual misplay had presented the Seals with three runs.

Higginbotham pitched airtight ball the remaining six stanzas and would not have been scored on except for a bit of tardy thinking.

not have been scored on except for a bit of tardy thinking.

Jumping into details of the Seai scoring, Noyes waiked Brooks, the first man at bat in the third inning. Steen singled past third. Fitzgerald sacrificed Brooks to third base and Steen to second. With the infield drawn in, Schaller plugged a grounder between first and second and Brooks scored. Nixon's throw to the plate drove Steen back to third, so Fisher threw to second base to head off Schaller.

In the excitement, Coffey slipped one over on the boys and lit out for the home plate. Higg awoke with a jump, uncoiled a nice throw home, but Umpire Guthrie called the runner safe. The afternoon was as chilly as a day in Labrador and beauty as a day Umpire Guthrie called the runner safe.

The afternoon was as chilly as a day in Labrador and hardly 1000 fans were out. Ominous rain clouds hung over the park during the hostilities.

It was the first appearance of Shortstop Coffey and first Baseman Autrey in Portland and they made good impressions. In hair, at least, Coffey resembles Wolverton, Score:
