Steckle, who is credited with hav-ing a volce of clarity and sympathetic sweatness. She is a graduate of Olivet College Conservatory, Michigan. These and other details came out in the examination of the two neighbors. The statements of the two witnesses relative to the language used effected a deadlock of evidence, and Municipal Judge Langguth dismissed the case with a bouquet of advice. "You all have the right to be happy in the neighborhood," said the judge. "Yet you must all learn to give and take, as it were. And you can't have any happiness where there is bad blood between neighbors." The dock foreman glared at the pos-
