

TWO MORE IRISH REBELS EXECUTED

Commandant-General and Editor of Journal Opposing Recruiting Shot.

BRITISH OFFICER TRIED

Court-Martial Now Considering Responsibility for Shooting of F. Sheehy Skeffington Before Martial Law Ruled.

DUBLIN, via London, May 12.—James Connolly and John McDermott were shot today for complicity in the rebellion.

The official headquarters announced regarding the executions is as follows: "The trial of two prominent leaders of the rebellion whose names were appended to the proclamation issued by the so-called provisional government, namely, James Connolly and John McDermott, took place on May 9. The sentence of death was returned in each case, and the sentences were carried out this morning, after confirmation by the general commander-in-chief."

James Connolly was styled by his associates "Commandant-General" of the Irish Republican Army. He was one of the seven signers of the proclamation issued by the insurgents at Dublin at the outbreak of the revolt. Connolly was wounded during the fighting and was taken prisoner. It was announced in London last week that he could not be placed on trial at that time on account of his wounded condition.

Mr. Connolly lived for several years in New York City, where he was a Socialist and writer on labor topics. He returned to Ireland about five years ago to assist in organizing the Irish labor party. He was about 50 years old.

McDermott Brilliant Orator.

John McDermott was known to Irishmen in the United States as one of the most brilliant orators in Ireland, and as one of the so-called inner circle of revolutionists in the recent uprising. Authorities in London say that he was one of the original organizers of the Irish Volunteers in November, 1912, in Dublin. At the outbreak of the war McDermott was editor of Irish Freedom, a Dublin journal ardently opposed to recruiting. The paper later was suppressed.

During a visit of Queen Mary to Dublin several years ago McDermott, his friends declared, was arrested during a disturbance and so roughly handled by the police that he became permanently a cripple.

CAR DECISION IS DEFERRED

Verdict to Be Given Monday in Case of Alleged Speeding.

Decision in the case of C. W. Brown, conductor of a streetcar on the St. Johns run, charged with exceeding the speed limit, has been postponed again in Municipal Court. Judge Langstaff announced yesterday that a decision would be rendered Monday, at which time attorneys for the streetcar company and the Jitney Drivers' Union will appear.

Brown was arrested on complaint of George W. Walker, a jitney chauffeur. Interest is rife in the case, because of the question raised as to whether the speed of streetcars is regulated by the franchise held or by the traffic ordinance.

DISABLED WOMAN SUICIDE

Twenty-Five Years in Wheel Chair Ended With Bullet.

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., May 12.—Twenty-five years of life in a wheel chair ended today for Mrs. Robert Allen with a bullet. A revolver was found beside the aged woman's vehicle and she was dead.

BRANDEIS' CASE SCANNED

(Continued From First Page.) sought the opinion of Mr. Brandeis, whose views in past had often differed from his and who contrived to be regarded as unbiased. This time they agreed that the merger would violate the law.

"Mr. Snow and I had a heated argument on the question," said Mr. Anderson. "He said he knew nothing about the interstate commerce laws and I said that nobody did."

Commissioner Harlan said he had always regarded Mr. Brandeis in the 5 per cent rate as a counsel for the commission and not for the shippers.

Mr. Harlan Questioned Closely. Mr. Borah and Mr. Works on the Republican side closely questioned Mr. Harlan as to the terms of his letter inviting Mr. Brandeis to enter the case, both insisting that Mr. Brandeis had been employed specifically to represent the shippers and that he had at the last, without notice to the other shippers' representatives, thrown the case away.

Mr. Works finally got Mr. Harlan to admit that the question of the adequacy of the railroad revenues was fundamental and that Mr. Brandeis' admission affected the whole case, so far as counsel was concerned.

Mr. Borah said that he found great difficulty in making out from Mr. Harlan's testimony just what Mr. Brandeis' relation to the case was. He said Mr. Brandeis seemed to have been a tenth commissioner. On the other hand, he said, quoting from Mr. Harlan's letter asking Mr. Brandeis to accept, Mr. Harlan had told him that the railroad side would be fully presented, but that the commission wanted the shippers' side fully stated and asked Mr. Brandeis to present that side fully.

The sub-committee hopes to report on today's hearing to the full committee next Monday.

OFFICIAL WAR REPORTS

Germans. BERLIN, May 12.—(By wire from Sayville.)—The text of today's statement by German army headquarters is as follows:

"Western front.—Southeast of the Hohenzollern redoubt near Hülluch, German battalions from the Palatinat yesterday stormed several lines of a British position. Up to this time 17 unrounded prisoners have been brought in. Several machine guns were taken. The enemy suffered heavy losses, especially during a futile counter-attack. "In the Argonne the French attacked La Belle Meuse, using flame throwers. The attack failed. "In the Meuse district there has been artillery fire by both sides. Aside from the heavy bombardment in the Thiaumont wood there has been no important infantry action. "Eastern front.—A German air squadron dropped numerous bombs on the Horodzieja station on the line between Krashin and Minsk."

French. PARIS, May 12.—The text of today's official statement follows: "On the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun front), there was an intense artillery activity from the sector of the wood of Avocourt to Dead Man Hill. The Germans vainly attempted to dislodge us during the night from the positions we captured May 1 in the western slope of the hill. Two successive attacks were repulsed by our fire. "The flight bank bombardment in the region of Douaumont-Vaux continued."

Turkish. CONSTANTINOPLE, via London, May 12.—The War Office announced today that the Russian troops which were defeated on May 8 in the Mount Kope sector of the Caucasus front, being expelled from positions nearly 10 miles in length, have been pursued to the eastward. The announcement says: "Mesopotamia front.—The situation is unchanged. The hostile aeroplane was hit by our guns and dropped in flames behind the trenches of the enemy. "Caucasus front.—The enemy troops which were expelled on May 8 from their positions were pursued eastward. They are making every effort to maintain their present positions. "Dardanelles front.—Five hostile guardships which attempted to approach the Helles front were driven off by our artillery. "In the waters of Smyrna a hostile monitor appeared off the island of Kios and opened fire. Our batteries replied and hit the monitor, destroying her funnel and mast. The monitor

IRVINGTON SROUSED

Committee Starts Work to Protect Fine Home District.

LARGE FUND IS RAISED

Canvass to Be Made to Renew Restrictions Against Erection of Business Houses—Prominent Men Become Active.

The protest against the building of any stores or garages in Irvington, one of the finest residential sections in the city, which was started Wednesday night at a meeting of the Irvington Club, after it had been reported a grocery and butcher shop building was being planned for erection on a prominent corner in the district, took on large proportions yesterday when a committee of formidable strength was appointed and started work. The committee numbers some of the most prominent business men of Portland and also represents the active forces behind a large fund already raised by Irvington residents to fight the proposed commercialization of the district.

The crisis arises with the expiration July 1 of this year of the building restrictions, which thus far have protected Irvington and made of it one of the slightly residential districts. The proposed store, it is said, is to be started after July 1.

The committee will start at once to take the necessary action to have the restrictions renewed and the wishes of about 97 per cent of the property-owners in the district regarded. Petitions will be circulated in a house-to-house canvass and will pledge the signers not to patronize any store or garage which might be built in the district.

The petition is not a boycott action, but is intended to be a warning. The petition was started yesterday, and many have signed. The fund being raised will be to carry on the action to have the restrictions renewed.

Following is the committee which is to lead the fight: C. C. Colt, Emory Olmstead, J. L. Bowman, Colonel S. B. Martin, J. F. Carroll, W. E. Wood, Walter M. C. A. Morden, F. S. Doernbecher, J. S. Beil, W. J. Hoffmann, John F. Logan, E. Mitchell, L. J. Wentworth, John T. Douglas, Thomas Mullin, Walter M. Cook, Robert D. Inman, Edgar W. Smith, J. C. Costello, H. M. Haller, J. P. Jester, E. J. Mautz, F. S. Myers, E. J. Jaeger, O. M. Plummer, R. L. Sablin, M. A. Peppleton, R. G. E. Cornish, F. E. Bowman, George E. Frost, H. B. Miller, Walter E. Lewis, Louis G. Geringer, Ellis F. Stevenson, William A. Albers, John H. Stevenson, Judge W. N. Gatens and E. F. Irvine.

APPAM CASE IS ON TRIAL

Washington Contends Treaty Does Not Protect Vessel.

NORFOLK, Va., May 12.—When the proceedings to determine possession of the captured British liner Appam, brought as German prize to this port, were begun in Federal Court here today, the United States government, through counsel for the German Embassy, made public for the first time the State Department's contention that the vessel was captured in violation of the 1914 "Countdown" treaty.

It disclosed that the department considered the case one involving legal questions to be decided by the courts, and contrary to what has heretofore been generally understood, expressed the view that the treaty did not apply within the protecting clauses of the Prussian-American treaty. It pointed out that the treaty granted asylum for vessels of war, but not for prizes, but does not protect the spoils of war deposited in American ports.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The German government claims possession of the Appam under article 19 of the treaty of 1795 which provides that the vessels of war, prizes and spoils of both Germany and the United States, shall have free entry and departure with their prizes from the ports of both countries.

The contest arises over the fact that the Appam was not brought into Hampton Roads by a German warship but came wholly unaccompanied.

250 ON STRIKE FOR AIR

Windows of Mill Said to Have Had Only Eight-Inch Opening.

LAUREL, Minn., May 12.—About 250 weavers and spinners in the Laurel Cotton Mills went on strike today for more fresh air. The strikers alleged that the windows in the mill were nailed down, leaving only an eight-inch opening.

The management closed the plant, leaving about 500 employees idle, but it was thought the differences would be adjusted tomorrow.

TOBACCO TAX DEFEATED

Vote Said to Have Wrecked German Imperial Revenue Scheme.

LONDON, May 12.—The German government has suffered a defeat in the Reichstag, which has voted against the tobacco tax," says an Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Amsterdam.

The tax was stoutly opposed by the Socialists. The defeat, wrecked Dr. Helfferich's (Secretary of the Imperial Treasury) taxation scheme."

COMMITTED GIRL RELEASED

Alleged Delinquent of 14 Turned Over to Relative's Care.

BAKER, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—After being committed to the State Industrial School at Salem, Or. Clara, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aydelette, of Prairie City, will not have to make the trip to Salem with J. G. Kilpack, district investigator of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Oregon. Mr. Kilpack was called because of complaints of delinquency against the girl.

The grand jury and District Attorney recommended her commitment, and with the order, and had to leave without her.

British Columbia's financial depression was only in part due to the war. The real cause was the collapse in 1912-13 of a boom which followed several years of prosperity, characterized by speculation and abnormal growth of the cities and towns. The year 1914 was a year of depression.
