INTEREST IN FIGHT HIGH

Game Is Halted for Week to Give Ad Santel Rest, but Will Be Continned Tuesday Night When He Meets Freberg.

BY HARRY B. SMITH. SAN FRANCISCO, May 21 .- (Special.) Willie Ritchie writes from Chicago o say that he will be leaving within a ew days for Portland to visit his folks there and take on the six-round bout with Ralph Gruman. He has been enjoying himself in the Windy City playing golf, and if any of the Portland experts want to have a plon of the world he will certainly give them an opportunity. If you don't think so, just read this from what he

I find there is getting to be a world of interest in San Francisco regarding the battle in Fortland, despite the fact that it will be no more than a limited-round encounter. Ritchie is no longer regarded as a lightweight king, he is still in the running as a welterweight still in the running as a welterweight.
Some of the fans are inclined to be skeptical as to whether Ritchie's fractured rib has really healed, and this should be just the opportunity to decide once for all whether he is to go ahead in his chosen profession or to drop it for keeps.

The wrestling game, which has been halted for a week in order to give Ad Santel a rest, will be continued next Tuesday night, when the Chicagoan meets John Freberg, also of Chicago. Freberg weighs 230 pounds and is a big fellow. Whether he is to go the way of other wrestlers who have met up with Santel can't be foreteld. up with Santel can't be foretold.
Santel has unquestionably showed that he has had too much work. In several of his most recent matches he has been decidedly stale, and it has en manifested in a lack of aggressiveness.

Letters have come to the writer of this column from Walter Miller, repre-senting Charlie Cutter and Jack Tay-lor, of Spokane, anent a recent article on Santel. Miller writes that Cutler would be bleased indeed to have a chance to meet Santel in a finish match and that he willingly would bet $5000 on himself.

Taylor writes to deny that he accused Santel of making conditions with his opponents. He believes that he can master Santel if given the opportunity and pleads with local promoters to offer him something worth while He offer him something worth while. He admits that his affair with Santel lacked in the spectacular, but explains that matches are not particularly sensational where there are two good men rying the hardest to win.

Chat No. 15

ROLLER skating on a brand new maple floor proved to be one of the chief attractions for visitors at the park yesterday. The Rink was opened to the public Saturday night when a large attendance unanimously declared the floor to be superb. Roller skating has long been recognized as a most healthful form of exercise and the fresh air at The Oaks and good music are additional features to be remembered when a skating party is planned.

Rousing selections were played to Auditorium audiences by the Columbian Ladies' Orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Sherman Brown. Miss Harriet Leach and Miss Gertrude Hoeber were particularly well received with their solo numbers. Yesterday's pro-gramme will be continued twice daily for the balance of this week. Other forms of diversion, including the Blue Streak, Merry-go-Round, Rodeo, Mystic River, Chutes, Laughing Gallery and the Miniature Railway, are daily attracting those who come to the park for entertainment that is different. The youngsters are having the time of their lives with the interesting little locomotive and its string of passenger coaches. The lawns offer the children opportunity to romp in invigorating fresh air while parents enjoy their happiness from comfortable seats and shady bowers.

The new picnic arrangements at the park have met with instant recognition from those who have seen and used the new kitchenette and the spick and span tables now provided for outing parties. You may secure reservations of a table and pavilion to suit the size of your party by telephoning Sellwood 230.
