

SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

CALENDAR FOR TODAY.

Society.
Luncheon for Miss Nan Fullerton, Mrs. R. Lee Barnes, hostess, at Waverley Country Club.
Luncheon and bridge, by Mrs. Frank Burke, today, Waverley Country Club.
Tea for Miss Katherine Crellin, by Mrs. Vernon A. Cartwright, today, at the Malarkey residence.
Luncheon and bridge today at Hotel Mallory by Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie.
Tea this afternoon for Miss Fullerton by Miss Katherine Graham, at her home in Irvington.

TEAS, luncheons and bridge parties will claim the attention of the younger contingent today, several affairs of this nature having been planned. Miss Nan Fullerton, charming little bride-elect, of Seattle, will be the honor guest for the luncheon which Mrs. R. Lee Barnes will be hostess at the Waverley Country Club today, which will be followed by a large tea honoring Miss Fullerton by Miss Katherine Crellin, another charming visitor in the city, will be held with a tea for which her cousin, Mrs. Vernon A. Cartwright, will be hostess today at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Malarkey.
Yesterday a merry group of the younger girls, guests of Miss Harriet Cumming for tea at the Waverley Country Club, complimenting Miss Fullerton.

Mrs. George N. Davis is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Bunnell, of Lewiston, Idaho, for a fortnight.

A luncheon and bridge will be given today at the Waverley Country Club by Mrs. Frank Burke. Guests have been asked to make up three tables for cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams will leave Friday morning for a trip of several weeks in Chicago. They will be domiciled at Hotel Blackstone, and as they have business interests in Chicago they will be extensively entertained.

Mrs. B. F. Esbensen, of Los Angeles, prominent in social circles and women's activities, both in California and in Tacoma, her former home, particularly the P. E. O. Sisterhood, is attending the P. E. O. convention in Portland this week. She is being entertained by a number of well-known matrons, among whom are Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie, who presided at a charming luncheon in her honor Friday at Mrs. Spencer's tearoom. Additional guests were Mrs. H. E. Albee, Mrs. M. J. Aitchison, who also entertained Sunday for Mrs. Sherman with a motor trip on the Columbia Highway, Mrs. D. L. Brice, Mrs. J. C. Davis, Mrs. Colista Murray Dowling, Mrs. A. C. Going, Mrs. Albert Hawkins, Mrs. William Hull, Mrs. J. C. Mann, Mrs. E. H. Loomis, Mrs. M. J. Aitchison, Mrs. C. B. Aitchison.
The majority of the guests were members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood.

Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie will entertain today with a bridge luncheon at Hotel Mallory, 29 guests having been asked to the affair.

Honoring Miss Lillian Balmer, bride-elect, a special dinner was given by Mrs. John Keller. She was assisted by her daughter, who arranged an attractive musical program, which included the piece and a quartet of the afternoon. Mrs. Katherine Brandes sang two solos, and piano selections were given by Miss Gladys Balmer and Miss Hulda Hafner. Miss Lillian Balmer also contributed to the program with piano solos, Miss Mathilda Spillman, piano accompanist, and vocal solos. Miss Gertrude O'Brien entertained with games. Refreshments were served.

A simple wedding took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. L. Lee, when her daughter, Miss Gladys Balmer, became the bride of Harry William Reschke. The bride's father, Henry L. Lee, was unable to be present as he is in Honolulu. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Jenkins, of St. David's Episcopal Church, in the reception hall in front of the large colonial fireplace, which was handsomely decorated with white and red flowers and white and red ribbons. The bride wore a suit of white broadcloth, a large picture hat, and a corsage bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and lilies of the valley.
Mr. and Mrs. Reschke will be at home after June 1 at the Rex Arms Apartments.

The Association of Lincoln High School Alumnae is eagerly anticipating the dance to be given Friday at Linnea Hall, Twenty-first and Irving streets. Outsiders will be allowed, providing one of the couple be an Alumnae member. Cards for those not wishing to dance and a novel program are being arranged by the committee, which includes Miss Miller, chairman; Adolph Bloch and Evanda Gove.

At the opening performance of "Fra Diavolo," tomorrow night at the Baker Theater, under the auspices of the Portland Art Association, Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Ervin will be the hosts for a box party in honor of Miss LoDesca Loveland, of New York. Additional guests will include Mrs. Joseph P. Mulder and Gustave Kraemer.

WOMEN WHO LEAD THE WAY

By MARIE DILLE

Mrs. May Wright Sewell—International Pacificator.
MRS. MAY WRIGHT SEWELL is one of the few influential women of America who stand out firmly against the rushing tide of martial sentiment and uphold anti-preparedness and peace. Mrs. Sewell is the founder and honorary president of the International Council of Women. She is also the organizer of the International Conference of Women to Promote Permanent Peace, which was established last July at San Francisco under Commission given by the Panama-Pacific Exposition. She is a lecturer of note and the author of several books, the last of which is "Women, World War and Permanent Peace." Mrs. Sewell has been an active worker in the cause of peace for 30 years.
Mrs. Sewell last came into the limelight a few months ago when she joined the Ford peace party and left for Europe to conquer the world by harmony. Since the return of the peace ship Mrs. Sewell has been lecturing throughout America, not only with the view of justifying the Ford expedition, which she contends fulfilled its mission, but with the aim of forcing a discussion of peace, even though it may be discussed in derision, rather than encouraging the general talk of war.
The three things that Mrs. Sewell resolved to do as a member of the Ford peace party were accomplished. The aims were to place peace discussions on the front page of every great newspaper in the neutral world; to invite all neutral countries to join in the war against war; and to inaugurate anti-preparedness to offset the action which is being taken by other unofficial bodies toward the introduction of a greater military body. All neutral nations have joined the peace conference, although the delegates of Spain were not permitted to attend the conference which began at the Hague, March 1. Rather than to bring about the immediate termination of the war Mrs. Sewell's aim is to organize the nations into a federation of the world which will be accomplished at the end of the conflict that a similar one may be forever avoided in the future.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF PATTON HOME, WHO IS ACTIVE IN FORTHCOMING TEA, JUNE 2.

Mrs. D. H. Rand BUSHNELL-PROT

Mrs. Sewell is convinced that she accomplished a great work as a member of the Ford peace party in the Scandinavian countries. Here a new hope of holding out against the threatening conflict and remaining neutral was inspired. She delivered addresses of encouragement before a great democratic club of Christiania, comprised of all members of society from servants to statesmen and teachers. In Stockholm she was met by a delegation from the Frederika Bremer Association, a civic and political study club with branches in every city in Sweden.

An attack upon the methods of conducting the Morningside Sanitarium, of Portland, at which the Alaska insane are cared for, is being conducted by the Nome-Seward Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, of Nome, Alaska.
Literature attacking the sanitarium is being sent out by the Nome organization. The sole object, according to those conducting the institution, is to take from Portland the care of insane Alaskans and have an institution for that purpose established in Alaska.
The Chamber of Commerce at Nome, Alaska, has and have an institution for that purpose established in Alaska. One of the charges made against the management of the hospital were of long standing and had been discontinued, said Dr. Luckey. "Dr. Luckey said that the literature attacking the institution which was now being circulated was sent out by the business interests of Nome in order to arouse interest in a movement to have an asylum established in Alaska.
The Chamber of Commerce at Nome, with a view of getting a hospital established for the Alaska insane within its own trade zone, will balk at nothing," said Dr. Luckey. "During the 12 years that the territory's insane have been cared for at Portland, more than 200 patients have recovered and returned to Alaska, aside from those who chose to go elsewhere."
"Morningside Hospital is conducted by contract with the Department of the Interior and is subject to inspection by that department. Here also are kept insane marines, who are under the jurisdiction of the United States Treasury Department. The institution frequently is inspected by officials of both departments. Governor Strong recently inspected the hospital and complimented the management in the highest terms.
"I have been connected with the institution during the entire period of the present management, nearly three years, and during this time no inspector has returned an adverse report, and most of them have spoken in highly complimentary terms."
The attack on the Portland institution is based on affidavits of former inmates, most of whom speak of conditions there several years ago.

HOSPITAL IS ATTACKED

CARE OF ALASKAN INSANE IN PORTLAND IS CRITICISED.

Morningside Sanitarium Doctor Says Sole Object Is to Have Institution Located in Far North.

SNAPSHOTS

By BARBARA BOYD

Filling the Day.
IN a general way the life of Darwin is counted successful. He is rated among the world's great men. He is credited with having accomplished much. Most of us would feel rather well satisfied, I think, could we do as much with our life, in some certain field, as he did with his.
Yet here is what he has to say of the way he filled his days:
"I am just a machine for grinding out generalizations. If I had my time to go over again, I would bring into every day something of friendship, art, music, such things of life."
A statement like that from such a source is worth considering, isn't it? One would think, looking at what he has done, that he would have little to complain of as to the way he had used his time; yet we see him holding up friendship, music, art, these things of life that are not rated as anything out of the ordinary, as of equal value to these things the world calls success and fame.
And yet many of us who do not fill our days with as worth-while work as Darwin do not include in their list of these things that life eventually taught him were so worth-while.
Why do we not? Nothing prevents our doing it. But indifference or lack of appreciation. Few days are so full but we could step aside into these realms for a few brief minutes if we really wanted to. And if our minutes do seem overcrowded, since these things are worth while including, a revision of our programme might give us time for them.
Many of us who are housekeepers dawdle over our work. Direct, efficient methods might save us from an hour to an hour each morning. Some of us spend a lot of time in gossip, mere chit chat, that gets us nowhere. And those of us who do none of these things, whose days seemed full of work or duties that cannot be shirked, might lessen them by simpler living or simpler dressing, by cutting down expenses so that there needn't be such a grind to meet them.
Some think they cannot enjoy these things, even if they had the time, because they have not the means.
But today these things are within the reach of all. Art galleries are on all sides, open sometimes during the week, free to the public. And one doesn't need to go to art galleries to see pictures. The most beautiful pictures to be found are all about us. No artist could put on canvas what one can see for himself in woods and fields, in the heavens and on the earth.
Libraries are everywhere pouring out through the printed page the thought of the greatest minds of all time. And the thought is as full of beauty—of fancy and imagery and romance—as are the canvases in the art gallery.
Music, too, can be ours today for the listening. In churches, stores, restaurants, on recreation piers, on boats—everywhere today is music given freely.
No one is too poor today to bring into these things which a man as great as Darwin considers as essential as those things which win fame and success.
And no matter how busy we are, if we will look over the programme of our days we will in most cases dis-

The Portland Hotel

Opening of our new Assembly Hall and Ball Room

This (Wednesday) Evening Eight to ten-thirty

The Portland Hotel Orchestra

Mr. Waldemar Lind, Director
Mrs. Delphine Marx, Soloist
Mr. John Claire Monteith, Soloist

Light refreshments will be served

Under the management of Geo. C. Ober

MANY HOUSES ROBBED

BURGLARS TAKE $25 HIDDEN IN FAMILY ICE CHEST.
Hattab Stolen From Another Home, and Trunks in Several Hotels Are Rifled by Thieves.
A series of petty burglaries reported to the police would seem to indicate, in the opinion of officers, that a gang of criminals is working Portland.
Brink's Pharmacy, 450 Washington street, was entered by a thief who mined through the plastering of the wall from an adjoining vacant room. The sum of $32 was reported taken from the cash register.
The landlady of a lodging-house at 111 North Ninth street reported to the detectives that she was awakened about 3:45 A. M. by someone flashing a light in her face. The prowler fled. One of the lodgers lost $16 which had been taken from his trouser's pocket.
O. W. Tarr, of Gresham, Or., reported his house at East Forty-fifth and Lincoln streets had been entered and a porcelain bathtub removed. Another bathtub had been disconnected.
Jacob Crozier, 441 East Forty-first street, reported the loss of a brown suit.
Robbers entered a place at 41 North Sixth street and took $25 from the icebox, where it had been concealed.
Literature attacking the sanitarium at the Chester Hotel, at First and Washington streets.

LACK OF LABOR CONFIRMED

Washington Commissioner Declares Serious Shortage Is Impending.
OLYMPIA, Wash., May 23.—Edward W. Olson, State Labor Commissioner, today confirmed a report given out by Federal Immigration Commissioner Henry White, of Seattle, to the effect that there will be a serious shortage of labor in the state this Summer and Fall, more particularly in the Fall, when harvesting will require a large number of men in the fields of Eastern Washington.
There is a shortage of labor already in the lumbering business, including the lumber mills and logging camps, while in the machinist trades the supply of skilled men is inadequate, according to Commissioner Olson. Common labor is plentiful yet.

COUPLE IN BLIND PIG RAID

Patrol Wagon Load of Liquor Seized and Mr. and Mrs. Glezek Arrested.
Herman Glezek and his wife, Anna M. Glezek, were arrested on a charge of violating the prohibition law in a raid made on an alleged blind pig at 53 Cook avenue yesterday. The arrest

PERSONAL MENTION.

Carter Wood, of Boise, is at the Portland.
A. H. Page, of Newberg, is at the Cornwell.
J. M. Leishman, of Banks, is at the Oregon.
C. W. Everitt, of Seattle, is at the Oregon.
D. S. R. Walker, of Eugene, is at the Perkins.
Z. T. Taylor, of Corvallis, is at the Perkins.
W. E. Burton, of Condon, is at the Perkins.
W. R. Fountain, of Eugene, is at the Imperial.
Benjamin Brick, of Salem, is at the Portland.
H. S. Scupham, of Cazadero, is at the Nertonia.
J. A. McCurdy, of Boston, is at the Nertonia.
W. L. Gazzam, of Seattle, is at the Cornwell.
Robert Bell, of Spokane, is at the Cornwell.
George W. Holmes, of Astoria, is at the Oregon.
Harley S. Slusher, of Astoria, is at the Oregon.
V. A. Clements, of Grants Pass, is at the Imperial.
George B. Conyers, of Clatskanie, is at the Perkins.
Horace Matlock, of Canyon City, is at the Imperial.
J. S. Burns, of Condon, is registered at the Imperial.
J. S. Kelly, of Walla Walla, is registered at the Seward.

No Buttons No Laces Slip on and off at will

Avoid Deception—Insist on the Genuine

MARtha WASHINGTON COMFORT SHOES

Have many cheap imitations. You must be alert to avoid deception. Flatly refuse shoes of similar appearance but inferior quality offered as the genuine Martha Washington, or as being just as good. Look for the Mayer trade mark and the name "Martha Washington" stamped on the sole.

Mayer Martha Washington Comfort Shoes

37 Different Styles
High Shoes
Low Shoes
Button Shoes
Lace Shoes
All Solid Comfort

If your dealer does not handle the Martha Washington Shoe, write us and we will see that you are supplied.

F. Mayer Boot & Shoe Co., Milwaukee, Wisconsin

For Sale in Portland by
Egbert Young Shoe Co., Maurice Christenson, Bonham & Currier, Barton Shoe Co., E. E. Kunkle, W. E. Goggins

Pe Ell to Graduate Five.

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 23.—(Special)—Five graduates of the Pe Ell High School will be awarded their diplomas on May 29. The annual exhibit of school work will be held Friday, and the baccalaureate services will be held Saturday night. The graduates are Gladys Butler, Avis Dodge, Albert Rudolph, Martell Kotula and Russell Butler. The high school enrollment in Pe Ell has increased from 21 to 56 in the last three years.

Slayer of Outlaw Joins Militia.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 23.—(Special)—Deputy Sheriff Giles Quimby, better known as the slayer of the outlaw Tomnow, has enlisted in Company G of this city, and so has Leroy Her-

BOX OFFICE NOW OPEN

Secure your seats now for comic opera, "Fra Diavolo." See the greatest local production of opera ever given in the city—100 people ensemble. Performances Thursday Night, May 25 Saturday Matinee, May 27. Popular Prices. BAKER THEATER

For the Girl Graduate Dainty White Dresses

The simplest, prettiest little dresses one could wish for. Billowy white net in the most becoming of new Spring styles; some with draped skirts, others more simply arranged. These just arrived in time for preparedness for graduation, and are most reasonably priced at

$14.50, $16.50, $17.50

A Charge Account Your Privilege

Eastern Washington Outfitting Co.

Washington Street at Tenth

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR Preferred Stock CANNED GOODS

"The brand of no regrets"

ALLEN & LEWIS

Wholesale Distributors

FOLGER'S Golden Gate COFFEE

45c Coffee 45c Quality

J. A. Folger & Co. San Francisco