

THOUSANDS IN LINE FOR PREPAREDNESS

Organizations With Membership of 20,000 in Favor of Demonstration.

CAMPAIGN IS ONLY BEGUN

Fraternals and Patriotic Orders, Business Men and Others Indicate Intention to Join in Parade on June 3.

EARLY NOTIFICATION REQUESTED.

Owing to the limited time in which the parade in favor of preparedness for defense is to be organized, members of organizations which desire to participate are urged to co-operate with the committee by notifying Roy W. Kest, of 1000 S. Commercial, as soon as possible of their intentions. Telephone: Marshall 4109 and A 6601.

A monster mass meeting to arrange for the preparedness parade to wind through Portland streets on June 3 will be held Saturday noon at the Chamber of Commerce.

The parade will be open to men and women alike, for it is intended to be a great popular expression of all the civilian sentiment. Uniforms are not demanded in the parade and little preparation will be required by the participants. Flags are to be distributed at the formation of the line.

Spectators May Join.

It is possible that there may be more paraders in the streets on that night than will be spectators. The curbstone, "was the opinion expressed by one of the members of the committee yesterday afternoon when the reports of proposed participation were brought in.

Bank Clerks to March.

The American Revolution Bank expects to have 30 bank clerks in line, and the students and alumni of Hill Military Academy and Bishop Scott Academy are planning to have several hundred participants.

CHAMBER PLANS VEHICLE

The Chamber of Commerce executive committee has decided to enter a decorated automobile in the Rose Festival parade and to co-operate in many other ways with the festival directors to help the big show along.
