

BRES ARE INVITED TO COOKING SCHOOL

Mrs. Vaughn Arrives to Give Demonstration in Art of Keeping House Well.

CAKE IS NAMED "OREGON"

General Work to Be Along Line of Gettin Best Results Without Heavy Expenditures—Friday Will Be Exception.

PROGRAMME FOR TODAY AT ELEVENTH-STREET PLAYHOUSE. 1:30 P. M.—Doors open. 2:00 P. M.—Music. 2:20 P. M.—Lecture, "The Modern Household."

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES. Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn arrived yesterday from California to give her series of lectures to the women of Portland.

"How well you look, how happy," was my greeting.

"Shall I tell you my recipe for health," she asked.

"It is summed up in the one word, 'Service'.

"While we are doing something to make other people happier and the world better, we haven't time to think of our own troubles and imaginary ills," said Mrs. Vaughn.

"But one should be temperate in all things. Temperance in work as well as in play, in eating and in drinking should govern our actions.

"I am so glad to be back in Portland. I shall never forget the beautiful school we had here the last time I was in the city.

"The women were all so lovely and so deeply interested. And what a lot of pretty, young women came! I always want the brides and the engaged girls and the inexperienced housekeepers to attend, because I can save them so many heartaches and backaches and maybe save their husbands from attacks of indigestion—who knows? But I am always flattered when the older women, the experienced housewives, attend the lectures. They inspire me to do my best."

Cake Named for Oregon. Mrs. Vaughn has a new cake that she has named after this state, and wherever she goes she tells about our wonderful apples.

"Some folks call my new cake 'apple cake,' but I call it 'Oregon cake,'" declared Mrs. Vaughn.

"This delicious and interesting concoction will be demonstrated on Friday, which will be one of the big days.

"Big day? Why, they will all be big days.

"When Mrs. Vaughn speaks there is always a crowd. So let all who would get a good seat go as early as possible.

The doors of the Eleventh-street playhouse will open at 1:30 o'clock. Beginning at 2 o'clock there will be a musical programme, arranged by the management of the Ellers Music House, and the lectures will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

Today a model breakfast will be discussed and a California cake will be made and explained.

"Tomorrow an ideal luncheon will be made and explained in all its details.

Wednesday will be "dinner day" and on Thursday a full-course 40-cent dinner will be served, and in addition there will be some dainties and salads made.

"In all of those I shall consider the cost and shall tell the women how to get the best values for their money. I shall give them a good, fair idea of the value of each dish—not only

SUPPORT AND HIP REDUCER $1.15

BEAUTIFUL CORSELETS $1.30

Instructions for measurements below.

Extends two inches above waist line. Mention Style No. 8—Not sold in stores.

The above articles support abdomen and reduce hips, reducing by lacing in back. Boned with flexible rust-proof stays. Made of coutil or Summer net. Give light waist measure over corset, also light hip measure seven inches below waist line.

Waist over 35, 25c extra. Sizes over 40, 50c extra. Do not deduct for lacing.

Hygiene Corset Factory 24 West Twelfth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BRILLIANT SHINE METAL POLISH

Makes old metals new. Keeps all polished metal bright. Contains no free acids, neither acid nor ammonia. Puts on a quick, lasting finish. Sold in two sizes and by all grocers, hardware and drug stores. Look for the Photo on Case.

the money value, but the nutritive value," said Mrs. Vaughn.

Friday to Be Big Day. "But on Friday! Wait till Friday comes. Then we will be reckless!"

"We will have the fancy dishes, regardless of cost, so that the women who want to spend generously and don't have to worry about money may hear of a few dishes of the variety that run into money.

"In addition there will be some more moderate recipes and the all-important apple cake, that is one of the best things imaginable.

"School teachers," girls who live in apartments, those who do light housekeeping, young women who are planning to give parties, go to college, entertain house guests in the summer months, society girls who would have cozy chatting parties and all who are interested in preparing delicious dainties with but little trouble should be there on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for the closing session of the cooking school."

Mrs. Vaughn said that in Sacramento 20 brides-elect called on her after one lecture and told her about the "only men in the world." "I hope that the brides will come to the school," she said, "and I hope they will always be

SHERIFF OF CLARKE COUNTY SEEKS RE-ELECTION.

E. S. (Bert) Biesecker.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 28.—(Special)—E. S. Biesecker, better known as Bert Biesecker, has announced his candidacy to succeed himself as Sheriff of Clarke County on the Republican ticket.

When Sheriff Biesecker was a target for Tracy, the outlaw. He took an active part in the hunt for Tracy and Merrill and was fired upon by Tracy. One of the bullets passed between his body and arm, one went through the rim of his hand and his horse was shot.

Sheriff Biesecker has been a resident of this county for 27 years and has been in business here for 11 years at in the Council.

happy. Knowing how to do housekeeping in an artistic way, without getting tired and cranky will do wonders toward keeping the god of love in the little household," concluded the "queen of housewives."

Mr. Vaughn will be introduced today by Mrs. Percy W. Lewis, president of the Monday Musical Club, who attended every lecture given by Mrs. Vaughn last season and is deeply interested in the work she is doing and the message of "Better foods—better homes."

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 28.—(Special)—Captain Charles Schillinsky, of the steamer Bandon, suffered two broken ribs when the wharf at Port Orford collapsed yesterday afternoon as the steamer came alongside.

He was the most seriously injured man of the five victims, none having been fatally hurt, as at first reported.

After receiving medical treatment, the captain was able to proceed with his craft, en route to San Francisco and Southern California ports.

The accident is reported to be due to the tilting of the wharf, a portion about 90 by 160 feet having gone down. The men were injured by being swept into the sea by a large pile of ties, which were intended as cargo for the Bandon.

The steam schooners Phoenix and Brooklyn were called in after the accident, and the loaded portions of the tie consignment, taking all they could carry and cleaning off the congested wharf.

USE OF FLAGS IS URGED

Memorial Day Committee Asks Half-masting of Emblems.

It has been requested by those in charge of the Memorial day observance that National flags be displayed at half mast tomorrow noon and then be allowed to float at the top of the staff for the remainder of the day.

The aides to T. R. McDevitt, marshal of the Memorial day parade, have been asked to report to John W. Curran, chief aide, at the corner of Fourth and Salmon streets at 2 P. M. They are J. E. Courtney, J. S. Hamilton, Dr. Emmet Drake, F. M. Varner and H. Q. Aldrich.

All sons of veterans have been requested by the committee to meet with the Grand Army of the Republic at their headquarters in the Courthouse at 2 P. M. to act as escort for that body.

This means all those who are sons of veterans, whether members of a camp or not.

CENTRALIAN TRIES SUICIDE

L. Letistio Attempts to Die While at Health Resort.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 28.—(Special)—L. Letistio, about 40, was brought here this evening by train from St. Martin's Springs, suffering from three self-inflicted gunshot wounds in the face. He was accompanied by his wife, and a son 12 years old.

According to the story told at St. Joseph's Hospital, where the wounded man was taken, he attempted suicide while dependent over ill-health, and shot himself three times with a .22-caliber revolver. His jaw was broken.

The family lives at Centralia, and planned to leave for that city tonight. The doctors say his condition is critical.

Read The Oregonian classified ads.

CHEESE CRISIS HERE

Humble Article of Diet Soon May Become Luxury.

FERMENT SUPPLY FAILING

Rennet, or Calve's Stomach Extract, No Longer Can Be Secured

Abroad—Hope Lies in Home Butchers.

Cheese, that most lowly of fare, about which jesters have had their fun and epicureans their delight, is about to graduate into the luxury class, all for the lack of rennet.

The want of extravagance of American farmers in disposing of the stomachs of young calves, and indirectly, the European war, will be to blame. Unless the farmers, dairymen, butchers and livestock growers generally, conserve the stomachs of the young calves they kill, the cheese industry, especially in the west, will be paralyzed, according to Frederick Davies, of Portland, who is closely in touch with the situation.

When the situation is so serious that the disclosures of a canvass of the situation just made.

Rennet is the inner or mucous membrane of the fourth stomach of the calf, and the ferment in it is used in curdling milk in cheese making on a large scale. Pepsin is a good substitute, but cheese makers in the West are not equipped to use pepsin. For that reason the sudden decrease in the supply of rennet ferment has alarmed the cheese makers.

Cheese makers in former years bought their dried rennet from the East, but they have just been informed that the supply companies face the same problem. It is impossible to get any more rennet extract from the East.

"Now, the only solution for us out west is to induce the farmers to save the rennet from the young calves they kill. If every cheese manufacturer and dairymen or stockman would wake up to the needs of the situation, we could temporarily solve the problem in 30 days. If quick action is taken, enough rennet can be saved from the slaughtered calves to stem the tide.

"Commercial rennet is the stomach of the young suckling calf or the calf which has been exclusively on milk. The best rennets come from Bavaria, but this source has been despatched by the European war. The city of Copenhagen yearly consumes some 5,000,000 rennets in the manufacture of rennet extract, which in turn is sent to America and other countries. Even with the European supply before the war many cheese manufacturers extracted their own ferment from the rennet.

Pepsin Supply Too Small. "Pepsin could be substituted for rennet extract, but cheese makers on the Coast are not familiar with handling pepsin and it would mean considerable loss in adjusting their factories to use it. The best pepsin in the world in existence would be but a drop in the bucket for what we need," Mr. Davies said.

"It is only within a few weeks that we have realized what a crisis is facing the cheese industry in the West. It may even make cheese a luxury, available only at an exorbitant price, because of the prevailing wastefulness of livestock growers.

The best makers should urge all city and county authorities to pass measures compelling every dairymen shipping calves already slaughtered to ship them with the rennet in the same way as it is now compulsory to ship the heart with the animal. This will solve the problem and save the cheese industry from a complete collapse.

"You will always be proud of your princely bishop. I can say this as no one else, for I am not of his denomination, but I am of his faith, and I am expecting to make it my future home. I am glad to write this to you.

Most sincerely, BISHOP HUGHES LAUDED

Former Pastor of First Congregational Church Among Those Sending Words of Praise.

and our zebras the most striped; we also have Madame Addie Bedini and her horse, who once won a prize in the Portland Rose Festival show (that was in 1910); we have everything for the entertainment of children and the education of adults. Our show is 10 large circles in the combine and our wild animals eat peanuts out of the hands of babes.

The press agent for the John Robinson circus stopped long enough to light a new cigarette.

"If you'll just take about a column to tell the people that we arrived safe and sound, I'll be glad to give a parade Monday morning at 10 o'clock and two performances Monday and two Tuesday, starting at 1 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. each day; if you'll just tell them that the weather man has promised a big day for us so far as sunshine is concerned, I'll be much obliged. The people are hungry to know about us. We've got hundreds of people at work, 350 on the payroll, to be exact, and acrobats and actors such as have never been seen about one tent in a lifetime. Just tell the people that the show grounds at Twenty-sixth and Raleigh streets is fine seating, many of humanity and will be 10 acres of fun and games tomorrow. If you'll just tell them these things, I'll be getting on, as I have a lot of work to do. I've got to help the commissary buy 100 bushels of potatoes and other vegetables for the performers and engage a lot of feed for the animals, and I haven't much time. Your readers are craving news about us."

Route of Parade Given. Through a haze of mellow smoke the form of the press agent was seen retreating through the door, his boots bulging with pictures and papers all about the John Robinson circus, which is in town. From a pile of notices deposited on the editorial desk the following facts have been gleaned:

The street parade will take place this morning, leaving the show grounds at Twenty-sixth and Raleigh at 10 o'clock. The parade will move down Raleigh to Twentieth, thence to Flanders, thence to Morrison, to Fourth, to Third, to Burnside, to Sixth, to Flanders, and then back to the show grounds.

By that time the streetcars will be carrying the crowd to the grounds. The doors of the big tent will open this morning at 1 o'clock and again tonight at 7. The hours will be same on Tuesday.

Rider Has Festival Cup. Madame Bedini, who is the daring horsewoman of the show, has a silver loving cup won in the 1910 Rose Festival in a parade with the (press agent says) 1909 contestants.

The show arrived in four special trains yesterday. Hundreds of people were there to welcome it, and scores of boys "carried" water for the elephants. The great agent, Mr. Brown by name, poked his head in the editorial room for the second time and gave the following parting shot:

"Remember to tell the people that we have a zoological paradise out there, and not to miss it."

TELEPHONE LINES REBUILT

Coos and Curry Service Often Impeded by Falling Trees.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 28.—(Special)—The Coos and Curry Telephone company is expending a large amount of money in improving and rebuilding its lines in Coos county and several trunk lines have been made over and replaced. The line between North Bend and Empire is a frequent trouble carrier and sometimes when in greatest need is out of commission in the winter months.

The company has just finished moving the line from the old highway through the timber to the newly completed plank boulevard where there is little likelihood of trees falling on the wires.

A distance of 12 miles, the line is being practically rebuilt and two new circuits are being installed. Between Riverston and Coquille the line has been reconstructed and new wire strung on the poles.

The world's output of new platinum in 1914 was placed at 265,453 Troy ounces. Russia furnished 241,200 ounces, Colombia 17,500 ounces and the United States 770 ounces.

BIG CIRCUS IS HERE

John Robinson Outfit to Parade at 10 This Morning.

TWO-DAY STOP ARRANGED

Performances Will Be Given Afternoon and Evening, Today and Tomorrow; Menagerie to Be Led Through Streets.

"Mr. Editor, we have the only blood-sweating behemoth in existence, the most beautiful lion tamer; we have the largest menagerie, the funniest clown, our elephants are the 'mammothest,'

"A Millionaire for a Day" there is Harry Hall, whose every movement is comedy. Also Queenie Williams, a dancing girl who is gleeful and pretty. May Pollard is an attractive girl who sings. An exceptionally comely chorus of girls adds to the act.

A plea for preparedness with regular beats on a make-believe but realistic sea in Chester's "Battle of the Navies," showing the sinking of English and German battleships.

"The House of the Future" by Jessie Hayward and Mr. Hahn, is one that takes the house by storm. Miss Hayward is deliciously funny as a "chambermaid in a bun" and her knight of the road is also funny.

Williams, Pollard and Baldwin, with real music and comedy, are two sparkling dancers and a chap who plays the piano nicely.

An attractive novelty song, dance and dialogue number is by Wilson, Stafford and Wilson.

Warren and Dietrich present blackface student and sing Irish and German songs.

A snappy, slap-stick motion picture comedy, a scenic film, and the thrilling "Who's GUILTY?" episode are shown.

and our zebras the most striped; we also have Madame Addie Bedini and her horse, who once won a prize in the Portland Rose Festival show (that was in 1910); we have everything for the entertainment of children and the education of adults. Our show is 10 large circles in the combine and our wild animals eat peanuts out of the hands of babes.

The press agent for the John Robinson circus stopped long enough to light a new cigarette.

"If you'll just take about a column to tell the people that we arrived safe and sound, I'll be glad to give a parade Monday morning at 10 o'clock and two performances Monday and two Tuesday, starting at 1 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. each day; if you'll just tell them that the weather man has promised a big day for us so far as sunshine is concerned, I'll be much obliged. The people are hungry to know about us. We've got hundreds of people at work, 350 on the payroll, to be exact, and acrobats and actors such as have never been seen about one tent in a lifetime. Just tell the people that the show grounds at Twenty-sixth and Raleigh streets is fine seating, many of humanity and will be 10 acres of fun and games tomorrow. If you'll just tell them these things, I'll be getting on, as I have a lot of work to do. I've got to help the commissary buy 100 bushels of potatoes and other vegetables for the performers and engage a lot of feed for the animals, and I haven't much time. Your readers are craving news about us."

Route of Parade Given. Through a haze of mellow smoke the form of the press agent was seen retreating through the door, his boots bulging with pictures and papers all about the John Robinson circus, which is in town. From a pile of notices deposited on the editorial desk the following facts have been gleaned:

The street parade will take place this morning, leaving the show grounds at Twenty-sixth and Raleigh at 10 o'clock. The parade will move down Raleigh to Twentieth, thence to Flanders, thence to Morrison, to Fourth, to Third, to Burnside, to Sixth, to Flanders, and then back to the show grounds.

By that time the streetcars will be carrying the crowd to the grounds. The doors of the big tent will open this morning at 1 o'clock and again tonight at 7. The hours will be same on Tuesday.

Rider Has Festival Cup. Madame Bedini, who is the daring horsewoman of the show, has a silver loving cup won in the 1910 Rose Festival in a parade with the (press agent says) 1909 contestants.

The show arrived in four special trains yesterday. Hundreds of people were there to welcome it, and scores of boys "carried" water for the elephants. The great agent, Mr. Brown by name, poked his head in the editorial room for the second time and gave the following parting shot:

"Remember to tell the people that we have a zoological paradise out there, and not to miss it."

TELEPHONE LINES REBUILT

Coos and Curry Service Often Impeded by Falling Trees.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 28.—(Special)—The Coos and Curry Telephone company is expending a large amount of money in improving and rebuilding its lines in Coos county and several trunk lines have been made over and replaced. The line between North Bend and Empire is a frequent trouble carrier and sometimes when in greatest need is out of commission in the winter months.

The company has just finished moving the line from the old highway through the timber to the newly completed plank boulevard where there is little likelihood of trees falling on the wires.

A distance of 12 miles, the line is being practically rebuilt and two new circuits are being installed. Between Riverston and Coquille the line has been reconstructed and new wire strung on the poles.

The world's output of new platinum in 1914 was placed at 265,453 Troy ounces. Russia furnished 241,200 ounces, Colombia 17,500 ounces and the United States 770 ounces.

RAILWAY MEN TO MARCH

MORE THAN 2000 EMPLOYEES TO BE IN PREPAREDNESS LINE.

Physicians and Teachers, as Well as Attorneys, Are Organizing to Take Part Saturday Night.

The transportation organizations of the city are the latest and largest addition to the column of the preparedness parade which is to be held in Portland Saturday night, June 3.

The Southern Pacific and of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle have already arranged to be out in force.

The committee is arranging to buy 2000 American flags for distribution among the railroad marchers, and indicated yesterday that even more than 2000 may be in line.

Professional men are rapidly organizing their forces and the divisions of physicians, teachers, etc., are expected to be fully equipped for the parade, which promises to be between 500 and 600.

The action of the Central Labor Council in declining to take official steps toward participation was not an evidence of a hostile attitude toward the demonstration, according to assurances given Judge Gantenben, chairman of the parade committee, by representatives of the Council.

Practically the entire membership of the Central Labor Council is affiliated with the various fraternal organizations which have already prepared to enter divisions in the parade. This will have a tendency to draw off the members to the fraternal divisions, and the Labor Council officials felt that they should not enter as an organization unless they could muster their entire force in a single division.

The committee will meet daily this week to organize the parade. Roy Keel, chairman of the committee in charge of civic and fraternal divisions, is expected from them. He can be called at the City Hall.

Representatives of other organizations are also urged to get in touch with the committee as soon as possible.

Participation in the parade is intended to be a voluntary expression of one's sympathy with the principle of adequate preparedness for defense.

PENSIONS GRANTED MANY

Scores of Oregon Widows Get $12 a Month From Government.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 28.—Widows' pensions of

BIG CIRCUS IS HERE

John Robinson Outfit to Parade at 10 This Morning.

TWO-DAY STOP ARRANGED

Performances Will Be Given Afternoon and Evening, Today and Tomorrow; Menagerie to Be Led Through Streets.

"Mr. Editor, we have the only blood-sweating behemoth in existence, the most beautiful lion tamer; we have the largest menagerie, the funniest clown, our elephants are the 'mammothest,'

"A Millionaire for a Day" there is Harry Hall, whose every movement is comedy. Also Queenie Williams, a dancing girl who is gleeful and pretty. May Pollard is an attractive girl who sings. An exceptionally comely chorus of girls adds to the act.

A plea for preparedness with regular beats on a make-believe but realistic sea in Chester's "Battle of the Navies," showing the sinking of English and German battleships.

"The House of the Future" by Jessie Hayward and Mr. Hahn, is one that takes the house by storm. Miss Hayward is deliciously funny as a "chambermaid in a bun" and her knight of the road is also funny.

Williams, Pollard and Baldwin, with real music and comedy, are two sparkling dancers and a chap who plays the piano nicely.

An attractive novelty song, dance and dialogue number is by Wilson, Stafford and Wilson.

Warren and Dietrich present blackface student and sing Irish and German songs.

A snappy, slap-stick motion picture comedy, a scenic film, and the thrilling "Who's GUILTY?" episode are shown.

and our zebras the most striped; we also have Madame Addie Bedini and her horse, who once won a prize in the Portland Rose Festival show (that was in 1910); we have everything for the entertainment of children and the education of adults. Our show is 10 large circles in the combine and our wild animals eat peanuts out of the hands of babes.

The press agent for the John Robinson circus stopped long enough to light a new cigarette.

"If you'll just take about a column to tell the people that we arrived safe and sound, I'll be glad to give a parade Monday morning at 10 o'clock and two performances Monday and two Tuesday, starting at 1 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. each day; if you'll just tell them that the weather man has promised a big day for us so far as sunshine is concerned, I'll be much obliged. The people are hungry to know about us. We've got hundreds of people at work, 350 on the payroll, to be exact, and acrobats and actors such as have never been seen about one tent in a lifetime. Just tell the people that the show grounds at Twenty-sixth and Raleigh streets is fine seating, many of humanity and will be 10 acres of fun and games tomorrow. If you'll just tell them these things, I'll be getting on, as I have a lot of work to do. I've got to help the commissary buy 100 bushels of potatoes and other vegetables for the performers and engage a lot of feed for the animals, and I haven't much time. Your readers are craving news about us."

Route of Parade Given. Through a haze of mellow smoke the form of the press agent was seen retreating through the door, his boots bulging with pictures and papers all about the John Robinson circus, which is in town. From a pile of notices deposited on the editorial desk the following facts have been gleaned:

The street parade will take place this morning, leaving the show grounds at Twenty-sixth and Raleigh at 10 o'clock. The parade will move down Raleigh to Twentieth, thence to Flanders, thence to Morrison, to Fourth, to Third, to Burnside, to Sixth, to Flanders, and then back to the show grounds.

By that time the streetcars will be carrying the crowd to the grounds. The doors of the big tent will open this morning at 1 o'clock and again tonight at 7. The hours will be same on Tuesday.

Rider Has Festival Cup. Madame Bedini, who is the daring horsewoman of the show, has a silver loving cup won in the 1910 Rose Festival in a parade with the (press agent says) 1909 contestants.

The show arrived in four special trains yesterday. Hundreds of people were there to welcome it, and scores of boys "carried" water for the elephants. The great agent, Mr. Brown by name, poked his head in the editorial room for the second time and gave the following parting shot:

"Remember to tell the people that we have a zoological paradise out there, and not to miss it."

TELEPHONE LINES REBUILT

Coos and Curry Service Often Impeded by Falling Trees.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 28.—(Special)—The Coos and Curry Telephone company is expending a large amount of money in improving and rebuilding its lines in Coos county and several trunk lines have been made over and replaced. The line between North Bend and Empire is a frequent trouble carrier and sometimes when in greatest need is out of commission in the winter months.

The company has just finished moving the line from the old highway through the timber to the newly completed plank boulevard where there is little likelihood of trees falling on the wires.

A distance of 12 miles, the line is being practically rebuilt and two new circuits are being installed. Between Riverston and Coquille the line has been reconstructed and new wire strung on the poles.

The world's output of new platinum in 1914 was placed at 265,453 Troy ounces. Russia furnished 241,200 ounces, Colombia 17,500 ounces and the United States 770 ounces.

The First National Bank Fifth and Morrison Streets Capital and Surplus $3,500,000 In every department of banking we are prepared to serve the public acceptably

THE BANK OF CALIFORNIA NATIONAL ASSOCIATION of San Francisco. Founded 1864 Capital paid in gold coin $8,500,000.00 Surplus and undivided profits 8,193,579.15 Commercial Banking. Interest paid on Time and Savings Deposits. PORTLAND BRANCH, Corner Third and Stark Sts. Wm. A. MacRae Manager. J. T. Burchaell Assistant Manager.

TRADE ACCEPTANCES Recognizing the importance of Acceptances as a means of increasing and simplifying domestic and foreign trade, we have prepared and issued an interesting and valuable monograph on this subject. Copies on Application. AMERICAN EXCHANGE NATIONAL BANK 128 Broadway New York City

THE UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK Third and Oak Sts. Portland, Or. CAPITAL $1,000,000.00 SURPLUS $1,000,000.00

Preparedness Is the need of the hour for the protection of our country and of our later years. Accumulate funds through a banking account, which affords protection for any emergency. Open an account with the bank with a strong reserve

ITCHING