LOS ANGELES, Cal. May 28 .- (Special.)—The Tigers won this afternoon 2 to 0 from the Beavers, and tied them this morning six-all, and wound up their last three series with what is believed to be pretty close to a record. Beginning with the Angels they lost one in seven, took the same from Oak-land, and let the Beavers down with but one game, winning five because of today's tie. Tonight they left, 18 strong, for Salt Lake, to tackle Blankenship's men. Getting a late start, the Beavers tied up the morning frame after Vernon had run in her six men by the third frame. Houck quit in the second frame, frame. Houck quit in the second frame, while Decanniere shuffled out an inning later, when the Beavers began to hit him, and they kept it right up with Arelianes until the sixth, when he settled. With the score tied and the game run past the tenth it was called when noon arrived. Wille's batting was a feature, both morning and afternoon, and all week, for that matter. Guisto, McCredie's heavy slugger, only got three hits during the week.

This afternoon the Tigers won with one single, making only two hits altogether, the last one by Ellis Johnson in the eighth counting for nothing. Stumpf started it in the fourth by throwing Risberg's grounder wild to Stumpf started it in the fourth by throwing Risberg's grounder wild to first. Then Fisher let an inshoot get away from him and Risberg took second. Bates was walked by Noyes, and again Fisher had a passed ball, both runners moving up in nice position to score when Daley tore off the first hit.

Coast League Gossip.

In an effort to strengthen his pitching staff, which has consisted almost exclusively of Speed Martin, Manager Elliott of Oakland signed Jack

Then, with the game lost, all of the Beavers settled down and played alright ball, but it was too late. Highl-botham worked the last three frames. Although Portland made eight hits off Johnson, they could do nothing when hits meant runs. Wille slammed the ball to the fence for a triple in the third frame, but two were gone and had the third frame, but two were gone and had the state. The Beavers stay here to play the time to come.

It is becoming apparent that Los Angeles fans expected too much of Frank Chance. Since his team has shown that it is not better than some of the rest of the coast contenders, certain fans in the Angel city actually doubt, from comments heard in the South, if Chance is divine. Such blasphemy is to be severely censured.

Just when his arm was practically O. K. once more and holding out superbly, Justin Fitzgerald, Seal right fielder, injured himself in another spot. Reports indicate that he will be out of the game for at least a month longer. If he recovers from his sec-ond injury and his arm continues to mprove the advance of this player to the majors, delayed for the past three years because of his lame whip, is about due. Fitz injured his arm in 1911 during a tryout with the New and it has been a long road back for him.

Charley Schmutz, former coaster now with Seattle, pitched 31 consecu-tive innings from the beginning of the season before a run was made against him and then the first player to score went over on an error.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The eyes of the baseball world were focused in the week just closed on the remarkable record of the New York Nationals. The refored of the New York Nationals. of the Brooklyn leaders.

The aggressiveness developed by the Giants leads many of their followers to hope they will not stop until they have equaled or surpassed the world's record of 20 straight games won, made by the old Providence team in 1884, or the modern record of 19 straight wins by the Chicago Americans, famous 'hitless wonders' of 1906.

The Eastern clubs, by virtue of the success of their Western invasion, virtually monopolize the first positions of both leagues. The only exception is the Cleveland Americans. The first invasion of the West, which ended Wednesday, resulted in the Eastern clubs of the National League winning 25 games and losing 19, while the Eastern teams of the younger organization won 28 and lost 19.

In 1914 the Braves got their pennant start on the road, after having played badly in Boston surroundings. We haven't the exact figures before us, but we should say there is very little difference in the home and foreign yield of the average club. This Spring nearly every club has done better on the road than at home. Home clubs have been trimmed steadily, and the result has had a depressing effect upon many communities, which can upon many communities, which can stand the mere reading of defeat as long as they can look upon victories.

Golf pro's, who have had to spend most of their time teaching the young and old idea how to shoot, have not been any too greatly elated by the suc-Two victories were credited to the Baby Beavers as a result of yesterday's play against the Montavilla Wildcats on the Vaughn-street grounds in the Inter-City Baseball League schedule. One was a nine-inning, 9-to-2 walloping, and the other was a 5-to-4 game was the protested contest several weeks ago and President Norman Bay ruled that only the last half of the ninth inning canto should be replayed. The replay was caused when Leapy Lind stole home with the winning run, but it was claimed that the man at the bat interfered with the catcher in preventing a law.

Our idea of nothing to bring suit for a wrestling championship. You'd think a fellow would want such facts suppressed in place of going to court to have them proved. After all, what can you expect with nearly 2,000,000,000 people making up the world.

That Vice-Versa Stuff Again.
Said John McGraw to Connie Mack,
"Who are these Has-Beens' coming back?"
"We'll show 'em yet whose word is law,"
Said Connie Mack to John McGraw.

If anyone had suggested that late in May Connie would take that collection of his and glide blithely and gracefully by the White Sox and Tigers, would you have had the suggester arrested or merely warned? It may be that Jack Dillon, 30 pounds lighter, will erase Frank Moran from the spotlight. But we also recall how Moran, 50 pounds lighter, was to chase Colonel Willard clean out of the ring. Soul Marks of Sorrow.

I read the horror in his soul.

I saw the terror all unuttered.

"Black is the pit from pole to pole."

As Henly muttered. I saw the anguish in his eye, The pain and sorrow, all sufficing. And right away I knew the guy Had started slicing.

It may have been that the Giants, after losing 13 out of 15, cracked under the terrible strain and lost all control of themselves. Or it may have been that they hit the bottom hard enough to rebound with the velocity they have shown. Baseball, for 1916, is still be youd the confines of the dope.

Prior to 1878 there were no regular appointed umpires, each club selecting its own man. In the Spring of this year the first regular staff was selected.

Two or three men in each city where games were played were named and se-lected and assigned before each game. The officials did not travel from one town to another. It is said that Pitcher Bill Piercey of Salt Lake, looks like a regula quired a polish by reason of his trial with the Yankees. At present he is out of the game on account of a strained muscle in his shoulder. Hitters come and hitters go. They it one week like reincarnations of Delahanty and then go hitless for an entire series. Harry Wolter, of the An-gels, however, is one real consistent hitter, if there exists such a personage. Harry looks about the same at the plate on Tuesday as he does on Sunday.
