W. W. McCredie, Portland baseball magnate, returned to his mahogony desk in the Yeon building yesterday after 10 days in Southern Oregon and after 10 days in Southern Oregon and his first official act was to send out a request for watvers upon two Beavers—Charley Hollocher, utility infielder, and Oscar Harstad, pitcher.

Judge McCredle said that Walter McCredle had a deal on with Pete Lister of the Rock Island club of the Three Eye League for the sale of Hollocher.

Owing to the illness of Kenneth Williams, the proposed deal for the barter of Harstad to Spokane for the Indian's outfielder, has failen through.

Plans for Harstad Are Vague. "We have had too many sick ones on our ball club in the past couple of years and have no room for any more. If Williams were in good condition we uld make strenuous eforts to land him."

Judge McCredie doesn't know wha the future has in store for Harstad, should other Coast League clubs grant waivers. Harstad is now at his home in Tacoma nursing his arm. Hollocher is here in the city and consulted with the local magnate this afternoon. Chuck Ward is the one the Rock Island club really wants and it is not altogether certain that Lister will take Judge McCredie came back more en thusiastic than ever over his new business venture, the Winno Hot Springs, south of Eugene on the line of the proposed Klamath cutoff. He says the new resort is located in the midst of a hunter's paradise.

Anaual Meeting to Be Invited The Judge Intends to invite the Coas League magnates to hold their next annual meeting at Winino. He will also invite the newspapermen to be present. After the meeting the crowd will be armed with rifles and shooed out into the woods to hunt deer, guides, cougars, bobcats, rattlers, bear, pedros and pinochles for a couple of weeks. Henry Berry, San Francisco magnate has already voted his indorsement. Wining would be an excellent place for Hen and Walt McCredie to settle their long-standing cream-puff duel, con-cerning which so much ink was spilled during the snowy days last Winter.

Attention is being paid to the short right field fence at North Side Park, Chicago. It is declared that it is several yards farther out than the right garden wall at Philadelphia and therefore, that it is wrong to kick about it. The distance of the wall isn't the real trouble. Its only about one-half the heighth of the Philadelphia wall, which towers high in the air. There will be twice as many home-tune over the Chitwice as many home-runs over the Chi-cago enclosure as over the Philadelphia and Cadman.

REGENTS ASK FOR ARMORY

Accommodation for University Cadets and Guardsmen Sought.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Seattle, May 27 .- If the plan proposed to the University of Washington Board to the University of Washington Board of Regents at a recent meeting is carried out, the university soon will have a large state armory on the campus, available to the university cadets and the regular militia alike Regents Gaches, Wheeler and Perkins were named to take the matter up with the proper state authorities.

Present plans for the reorganization of the state militia call for the reorganization.

of the state militia call for a new ar-mory, to be used as a regimental train-ing quarters, the old one to remain as a battallon armory. Further reorganization in the marine department of the National Guard will mean bringing the training ship into Lake Union, and in that case the university is prepared to offer a site on the lakeshore where such a ship could be moored. The regents decided to ask the cooperation of the city of Seattle in build-ing a demonstration school on the campus.
