Southern Women Shift Support to Mrs. Cowles on Report of Opponent's Plan.

BOLT BY ILLINOIS LIKELY

Home Members of Delegation to Vote for Chicago Member-Mrs. Sarah Evans, of Portland. Is Auditor Possibility.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The election of officers, although two days off and the report tomorrow of the nominating committee, absorbed the attention tonight of the 10,000 delegates, alternates and visitors attending the 13th biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in session here, Although it is unofficially reported that Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, of California, and Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, of Obio will be reported as the only canfornia, and Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, of Ohio, will be reported as the only candidates for the presidency, it is expected that a large number of the Illinois delegation said to be pledged to Mrs. Cowles will bolt and propose as the state's candidate Mrs. George Bass, of Chicago. Mrs. Bass has announced that she will permit her name to come before the convention.

Members of the board of directors, it was learned from a reliable source, op-posed the entrance of "dark horses" into the contest and for this reason tomorrow's session is looked forward to with more than ordinary interest.

South Shifts to Mrs. Cowles. Prominent officers of the Illinois delegation announced that their state would stand by Mrs. Cowles. Massachusetts, which next to Illinois has the largest number of delegates, also has declared for Mrs. Cowles.

Delegates from most of the Southern Delegates from most of the Southern Delegates has the Southern Delegates from most of the Southern Delegates from the S states, heretofore claimed by Mrs. Sneath's supporters, insisted tonight that there had been a sudden shift to Mrs. Cowles because of rumors circulated regarding Mrs. Sneath's alleged intention of permitting the Federated Negro Women's Clubs of the South to Join the federation. Both Mrs. Sneath and Mrs. Cowles Issued statements that the negro question plays no part in the campaign

There will be no contests for the other offices, a member of the board of directors said tonight, except for that of auditor, to which Mrs. William P. Harper, of Seattle, and Mrs. Sarah Evans, of Portland, Or., aspire, Miss George A. Bacon, of Worcester, is as Force of 22,000 Carranza Troops and the proposed for first vice president.

Polities Overshadows All Else in

Mrs. Cowles is the candidate backed Herrera as saying he was ready to attack the Americans if they did not state are deeply interested in her. Mrs. withdraw from Mexico before June 1. Sneath, who was here last Summer, has many admirers among the clubwomen, and both are regarded by those who are intimately acquainted with club affairs as splendid women.

Mrs. Evans and Mrs. W. P. Harper, the latter of Seattle, are both being mentioned for the office of auditor.

Mrs. Evans has not said whether or not Mrs. Evans has not said whether or no she will allow her name to be used. Mrs. Hildreth, president of the New York Federation, is said to be one of her strong supporters. All Mrs. Evans will say on the subject is: "I shall stand firmly by Mrs. Cowles and shall not do one thing to hurt her candidacy. Loyal-ty will be first with the Oregon delega-tion."

For the first time in the history of the conference, however, adjournment was not final. The delegates will meet at call of the board of bishops at a time and place to be fixed by them. This action will permit, if it is deemed advisable, of a session in 1918 to consider the plans for the unification of Methodists, which will be presented to the Southern Methodist Church at that time.

ALBANY, Or., May 29.—(Special.)—
Plans for Albany College's 15th annual commencement have been completed by President Wallace Howe Lee.

The college of liberal arts will graduate the largest class since 1999. The conservatory of music will graduate one student.

The past college year has been one one student.

The past college year has been one of the most successful in the history of the institution. With the academy practically cut off and the largest student body in the college of liberal arts for years past, the institution has developed to a wonderful extent.

That every college class will be larger next year than it has been for some 15 years past is the prediction of students. They will remain in the county for two days.
