LOS ANGELES, May 30 .- (Special.)-Running true to holiday dope, the Angels and Beavers split today's doubleheader, the locals taking the afterbreakfast contest, 6 to 2, and losing the big crowd game this afternoon, 5 to 2. Kelley outpitched Zabel this morning, but was unfortunate in allowing three of the seven hits made off him to be in the fourth frame, when the Angels ran in four men and cinched the game. Not one of the hits got out of the infield either, and two of them didn't seem to move more than 20 feet from the plate, good leg work on the bases Beavers Sail Into Mr. Hogg.

This afternoon, Portland hopped right onto Mr. Hogg, a fusillade of hits netting three runs. Wille and Vaughr bases. Southworth's single scored Wille Nixon and Guisto were easy infield outs, but Fisher came across with the fourth hit, a single to right center which scored Vaughn and Rodgers.

For the Angels, Maggert doubled and scored on a sacrifice and Kane's fly

In the second inning, McCredie became a little nervous over Houck's work and after he had walked two men and allowed a single, Bassler scoring, the boss sent Higginbotham in to work ut the game. Hogg was taken out in the next frame, but to keep from working he had to walk three men and hit Doane,m. another, forcing one run acrose the Mattick,m. [Gleich'n.]

From this place on Hig and Standridge did good work, the Angels hitting McGaffa.s. right along in nearly every inning, but being unable to do a thing with Hig-ginbotham in the way of runs. In the seventh, Vaughn tore off a single, got around to third on two outs and came in with the Beavers' last run when Nixon hit safely to center. Maggert copped the batting honors with five hits in the afternoon game in five times up, and two out of three trips in Guisto made only one hit in eight trips to the plate.
