Yesterday's Results. At Los Angeles—Los Angeles 5, Portland 4.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 1.—(Special.)—Good base-running gave the Angels their winning run over the Beavers today.

The score was even in the fifth, one each, Basier walked, took a too big lead off first and would have been out had Guisto held Roche's throw.

Ellis' Triple Scores Two. Scoggin's single put Basier on third and he scored on Magner's sacrifice single.

Magner's single put Basier on third and he scored on Magner's sacrifice single. Then Ellis set the ball to the center-field fence for a triple, clearing the bags of their two occupants.

In the sixth, the winning run came in. McLarry forced Galloway, who had singled, at second and then stole second himself.

Basier was walked. On the next pitch, the winning run came in. In the sixth, the winning run came in. McLarry forced Galloway, who had singled, at second and then stole second himself.

2 WINNERS BARRED

Lough and Youmans Too Old to Enter Skate This Year.

HOBSON FOURTH TO SIGN

Trial Trip Over Course to Be Traversed During Festival Feature Event Will Be Taken Next Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Of the six winners who pulled down handsome watches as prizes in The Oregonian roller skate marathon last June, two are ineligible this year because they don't come within the age limit.

Norman Youmans, of Lincoln High School, took second prize last year, but he was 14 years old then and is now too old to enter.

Youmans was formerly the mascot of the Portland Baseball Club and the day he won the prize in last year's race was also his birthday.

John Hurlburt is in lineup. John Clifford Hurlburt, of Washington High School, finished third last year.

With two runners who finished first and second last year out of the running, two enterprising lads are bound to get the first two prizes.

Lawrence Cook and Carl Tuma finished in the order named right after the six winners.

Lionel Hobson fourth to enter. Lionel Hobson was the fourth to enter for next Thursday's contest, but the rest of the runners-up have not as yet been heard from.

Don't forget the trial trip over the course with the marathon editor next Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

But Art Fromme, of Tigers, is Real Leader With Eight Wins Out of Nine Starts.

WILLIAM PIERCEY, late of the New York Yankees, but now with the Salt Lake Bees, along with George Kahler, of Los Angeles, has as yet to be defeated, according to the pitching records of the Pacific Coast League up to and including the games of last Sunday.

Piercey has one win and no defeats, while Kahler has two victories in as many starts.

As to the regulars, Art Fromme, the Vernon Tiger, is the mainstay, having been returned the better of eight occasions, after starting nine times.

The effectiveness of Young "Speed" Martin has been tested too many times by Manager Elliott, of the Oaks, for Martin, after making a sensational start has dropped four matches in 13 games.

Byron Houck, of the Portland Beavers, stands higher than any of the other Beavers in the pitching column, with Wynn Noyes a close second.

Following are the season's records up to the games of the present series:

Rixey Holds Opponents to Only Five Hits—Pirates Walk Over Cincinnati Reds to Victory to Tune of 8 to 4.

BROOKLYN, June 1.—The Boston Nationals beat Brooklyn twice today, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, but the Dodgers retained the lead through New York's defeat at Philadelphia, two errors by Olson giving passes by Cheney and Gowdy's single gave the Braves a lead of four runs in the opening inning of the first game and they scored two more in the eighth on a pass, Cheney's error and Wilhoit's double.

Cheney fanned eight batters and Matis, who pitched the ninth inning, struck out the side after giving two bases on balls. Ragon held the Brooklyn batters safe except in the fifth, when Olson scored their only run on a force out, a wild pitch and Matis' single.

Rudolph and Coombs fought a pitcher's battle in the second game, and Matis, who pitched the ninth inning, struck out the side after giving two bases on balls. Ragon held the Brooklyn batters safe except in the fifth, when Olson scored their only run on a force out, a wild pitch and Matis' single.

Northwestern League News

LES SHEEHAN, San Francisco utility player, has been purchased for Seattle by D. E. Dugdale. Sheehan is the young Santa Clara College player. He has been going at a lively clip, but he sold to manager Harry Dalton, who has been turned over to the Seals by Detroit.

Johnson, Butte, 34; Gilsason, Spokane, 33; Murphy, Vancouver, 33, are the leading hitters in the Northwestern circuit among the hitters of official records up to and including last Sunday's games.

Here are the batting averages of some players you know in the northern circuit: Dave Hillyard, Butte, .324; Fred, Great Falls, .322; Grover, Butte, .319; Kautner, Spokane, .306; Carson Bigbee, Tacoma, .297; Dan Murray, Spokane, .285; Sammy Bohne, Tacoma, .282; Fritz, Tacoma, .273; Rube Evans, Spokane, .272; Leard, Tacoma, .270.

According to the records up to and including last Sunday's games, Emery Webb, Spokane, is leading the Northwestern pitchers with two wins and no losses. However, Emery is being used chiefly as a relief pitcher. Rube Evans, Spokane, is the real leader of the circuit, with seven wins and one loss.

"Canuck" White, Great Falls; Acosta, Vancouver, and Schmitt and Pat Eastley, of Seattle, follow Evans as the real leaders among the hitters of the Northwestern circuit. White has won five and lost one; Acosta has captured seven and lost two, and Schmitt and Eastley have won six and lost two each.

Here are the averages of some of the northern pitchers you know: Kallio, Great Falls, .714; Callahan, Vancouver, .667; Clark, Great Falls, .625; McGinnity, Butte, .611; Garry, Tacoma, .600; Sutherland and Peterson, Tacoma, .571; Bloomfield, Salween, Fulwider, Rock
