

O. A. C. IS THROGGED

Graduation Activities Draw Friends to College.

ALUMNI IS REPRESENTED

Reading of Class Prophecy, Dedication of Fountain and Cadet Parade Are Principal Events of Busy Day.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, June 5.—(Special.)—A large attendance of alumni, friends and relatives of the graduating class at the Oregon Agricultural College attended the various commencement week activities on the campus today.

Tomorrow morning degrees and certificates will be awarded at 10 o'clock. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Enoch A. Bryan, college president of the Washington State College.

DEGREES CONFERRED ON 97

Address to Graduates Made by Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, June 5.—(Special.)—Ninety-seven students this morning were awarded degrees from the University of Oregon.

Among today's graduates was Leslie Bledsoe, of San Dimas, Cal., who is blind. He was made a bachelor of arts.

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, professor of Leland Stanford University, spoke on the "relationship of the universities to the American spirit." He declared the idea of the educated class forming an aristocracy "is entirely wrong."

He told the graduates that a point of contact for usefulness must be found at once. "Do not flaunt your degrees," he warned. "You should remember they are to help men's souls, not to decorate their persons."

Dr. Wilbur advocated a system of exchange for a portion of the student body of one institution with that of another in the Northwest, and pointed out that the plan might apply to a limited extent to the faculties of the schools.

A flower drill by the co-eds of the university on the campus tonight ended the commencement exercises.

WRITER WINS $50 PRIZE

MISS RICHARDSON'S VERSE CHOSEN GREATER PORTLAND SLOGAN.

Six Others Offered by Same Entrant Are Declared Superior to 8000 Other Contributions.

Favorites the specialty man, T.A.'s the Greater Portland plan.

This slogan, written by Miss Laura E. Richardson, poet and song writer, who lives in her little cottage at 1628 Macadam road, won the $50 prize in the slogan contest held by the Greater Portland Association.

The decision of the judges, which was unanimous, was announced yesterday.

A total of 2000 people participated in the contest and in all approximately 8000 slogans were submitted.

The committee in charge of the contest and to whom the judging of the slogans fell, consists of E. M. Gray, chairman; Albert Feldonheimer, Thomas H. Edwards, Charles Berg and J. E. Joyce, Mr. C. Baker, secretary.

That in addition to the winning slogan, six others submitted by Miss Richardson were better than those submitted by any other contestant.

The rules of the contest were such that no one member of the association or associated with it in any way could compete for the prize.

Miss Richardson, winner in the contest, was formerly employed by Portland firms as stenographer and secretary. About 10 years ago, however, she suffered with an attack of typhoid fever and has been in ill health since.

The Greater Portland Association is an organization of the proprietors of specialty stores.

MAN LOST THREE DAYS

MINER Wanders in Snow and Lives on Buds.

Elton Olson, of Cornucopia, Leaves Companion and in Wandering Meets Three Bears.

BAKER, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Wandering in the snow near Cornucopia, 74 miles east of here, for three days without food and finally being compelled to exist on buds from the trees, was the experience of Elton Olson, formerly of Baker, and now an employe of the Baker Mines Company at Cornucopia, according to a report received here today.

Mr. Olson and William Gardner went fishing on Chehalis River. When they started home they disagreed on the route and separated. Gardner reached Cornucopia and a searching party started to hunt for Olson.

They searched three days before they found him 20 miles from camp and traveling in the opposite direction. He had had nothing to eat and was without matches or knife so could find only buds to eat.

In his travels he encountered three brown bears, one of which compelled him to climb a tree. He crossed his own trail several times, at some places wading in from six to eight feet of snow.

After eating ravenously of the searching party's food he was able to return to camp with his rescuers.

MINE UNION NOT TO STRIKE

Butte Employers Declare Doors Are Closed to ex-Employees.

BUTTE, Mont., June 5.—Possible danger that the present strike of the Butte Workingmen's Union might spread to the mines was dispelled today when the electricians in the employ of the mining companies met and determined not to go out in sympathy with the smaller unions of the city under any circumstances.

The miners are not organized in Butte and the only possible way the mines could have been affected was to have involved the electricians, who are affiliated with the union.

Members of the Employers' Association are giving their striking employees notice that they need not expect to get their jobs back when the controversy shall have been adjusted because of their having chosen to stick by the union rather than their former employers.

Many men who walked out in this strike were receiving above the new scale asked, which is $4 a day. The old scale was $3.50 a day.

CITIZEN LEAGUE ELECTS

Lieutenant-Governor Hart Speaks in Eastern Lewis County.

CHEHALIS, Wash., June 5.—(Special.)—The Chehalis business men and others who attended the Mayfield bridge dedication Friday and made the journey from here into the Big Bottom country, returned home yesterday. They report an attendance of 500 at the meeting of the Citizens League of Eastern Lewis County, which was held at Randle Saturday. A picnic dinner was served at noon.

Following this the business session of the Citizens League was held and Professor F. S. Thompson was re-elected president; V. H. Horeywell, of Moraine, and Fred W. Gray, of Lynden, were elected secretaries. Lieutenant Governor Hart, of Tacoma, and State Senator Ralph Nichols, of Seattle, made brief addresses.

50 AUTOS ARE COMING

Spokane Business Men's Party En Route to Portland.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—A. W. Lindsay, a Spokane banker, who, with Mrs. Lindsay and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stanley, arrived here by automobile last night from Spokane, states that 50 automobiles will arrive in Hood River Wednesday night from Spokane en route to Portland. The party will be prominent business men of Spokane and their families.

Some of the motorists will travel by way of Walla Walla and Pendleton and others will come through by Yakima and Goldendale. They will meet here Wednesday and pass the evening, proceeding to Portland in a body the next day.

MADRAS ANGLER DROWNED

Boat With Three Overturns and Thomas Tucker, 55, Is Lost.

GATEWAY, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Thomas Tucker, a well-known blacksmith of Madras, was drowned in the Deschutes River yesterday afternoon. He was fishing from a boat with two friends when the boat was overturned. The other two men escaped. Mr. Tucker was about 55 years old and leaves a family.

A large party of searchers is looking for the body.

Civic Club Hears Candidates. The candidates for school director were speakers at the last regular meeting of the Woman's Welfare Club Thursday. Mrs. S. M. Blumauer, Dr. Francis Drake, Fred A. Ballin and E. B. MacNaughton outlined their views on school questions, and after the speaking questions were asked by the audience.

Miss Grace De Graff spoke on "The Oregon Forestry Organization," Washington, D. C. The club will hold its next meeting the first Thursday in September, in room H, Central Library.

Dr. O'Day Returns Home. Dr. J. Chris O'Day, of Portland, returned home yesterday after one month spent in the Eastern cities. He visited the leading hospitals in New York, Baltimore, Rochester, Philadelphia and other centers, and he made the unreserved statement upon his arrival in Portland that the hospitals of this city are doing just as good work as was found in any of the leading American institutions he visited in the East.

GRANT ACT IS READY

Only President's Signature Is Needed on Land Measure.

FINAL ACT EXPECTED SOON

Original House Provisions for Administration of Oregon & California Tracts Are Not Altered in Conference.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 5.—Only the signature of President Wilson is now lacking to complete the final enactment of the Oregon and California land-grant law, the House today having ratified the conference report. The measure is expected to reach the White House within the next few days. The conference report does not change the original House bill as to the administration of the law.

The law says that "the Secretary of the Interior, in co-operation with the Secretary of Agriculture, or otherwise, is authorized and directed," etc.

In the opinion of Representative Elnott, who has given much time to the legislation, the Secretary of Interior is empowered to administer the law should he so desire. It is expected, however, that the Interior Department will utilize the services of the Forestry Department, particularly in the valuation of timber.

Special agents of the General Land Office and the Geological Survey, both under the Interior Department, will be used to classify the lands.

5 HURT IN AUTO WRECK

THREE WOMEN PINNED BENEATH BAKER COMMISSIONERS' CAR.

E. A. Whittier Crawls From Wreckage and Rescues Others, but One Is in Critical Condition.

BAKER, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Five were injured, one seriously fatally, in the wrecking of the automobile driven by E. A. Whittier, city commissioner, today. They are: Mrs. O. A. Decker, aged 54, badly bruised and internal injuries, condition serious; Mrs. E. A. Whittier, aged 52, badly bruised about the body; Mrs. John Shelton, aged 75, mother of Mrs. Decker and Mrs. Whittier, seriously bruised and because of her age is considered in precarious condition; Norma, 5-year-old daughter of Harry G. Hyde, county assessor, badly bruised; City Commissioner Whittier, aged 60, wrist sprained and otherwise injured.

The accident happened near the Tom Hewlett ranch, 23 miles east of Baker at 1 o'clock. The party was returning from Mr. Whittier's ranch and the car was deflected from the road by a dust heap. The machine turned turtle, hurling the little girl clear of the wreck, but throwing the others underneath the car. Mr. Whittier crawled out and, with the aid of passersby, lifted the auto off the chassis. An ambulance was summoned from town and, with an automobile driven by Assessor Hyde, brought the injured ones here. Mrs. Decker being taken to the hospital, where she was unconscious for several hours.
